development and prospects of outlawry and of the relationship of outlaws to the social conditions of changing times Throughout American history you will find larger than life brigands in every period and every region Often because we hunger for simple justice we romanticize them to the point of being unable to separate fact from fiction Frank Richard Prassel brings this home in a thorough and fascinating examination of the concept of outlawry from Robin Hood Dick Turpin and Blackbeard through Jean Lafitte Pancho Villa and Billy the Kid to more modern personalities such as John Dillinger Claude Dallas and D B Cooper A separate chapter on molls plus equal treatment in the histories of gangs traces women s involvement in outlaw activities Prassel covers the folklore as well as the facts even including an appendix of ballads by and about outlaws He makes clear how this motley group of bandits pirates highwaymen desperadoes rebels hoodlums renegades gangsters and fugitives who stand tall in myth wither in the light of truth but flourish in the movies As he tells the stories there is little to confirm that Jesse and Frank James Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid the Daltons Pretty Boy Floyd Ma Barker Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker Belle Starr the Apache Kid or any of the so called good badmen did anything that did not enrich or otherwise benefit themselves But there is plenty of evidence in the form of slain victims and ruined lives to show how many ways they caused harm The Great American Outlaw is as much an excellent survey on the phenomenon as it is a brilliant exposition of the larger than life figures who created it Above all it is a tribute to that aspect of humanity that Americans admire most and that Prassel describes as a willingness to fight however hopelessly against exhibitions of privilege Touring California and Nevada Hot Springs Matt C. Hanna, Vincent J. Del Casino, 2003 At first glance the relationships among tourists tourism maps and the spaces of tourism seem straightforward enough tourists use maps to find their way to and through the sites of history culture nature or recreation represented there Less apparent is how tourism maps and those using them construct such spaces and identities As the essays in Mapping Tourism clearly demonstrate the extraordinary interaction of work with leisure and the everyday with the exotic makes tourism maps ideal sites for exploring the contested construction of place and identity Construction sites in the New Berlin Alabama s civil rights trail Quebec City a California ghost town and Bangkok s sex trade are among the spaces the essays examined Taken together these essays allow us to see tourist space as it truly is contested ever changing and replete with issues of power Legends & Lore Along California's Highway 395 Brian Clune, 2022-01-24 Stretching from Victorville to Carson City Highway 395 offers a snapshot of California s diverse landscapes and oddities Tales of skinwalkers and sasquatch sightings flourish among the bones of ghost towns and stories of the elusive Lone Pine Mountain Devil ignite the curiosity Far from fiction the Sierra Phantom lived among the hills for fifty years and Mountaineer Norman Clyde used his skills to find lost hikers and climbers Rumors of the Lost Cement Mine with a rich vein of gold lures people in and the Tuttle Creek Ashram built high above Lone Pine offers peace Author Brian Clune explores the strange and fascinating side of the majestic mountains and lonely deserts along the El Camino Sierra Global Tourism William F. Theobald, 2013-01-11 The success of Global Tourism has led to this fully revised and updated second edition which retains all the strengths of the original book and is enhanced by the inclusion of five new chapters This edition draws together the insights of thirty three observers commonly concerned with the effects of tourism on contemporary society The Sierra Adventure Coloring Book , 2013-03-19 This is a perfect backseat or restaurant companion for families with young children traveling in California s gold country and Yosemite National Park Crisp images invite crayons and markers while child friendly text sheds light on things kids may be wondering about along the way What s the Mother Lode How does gold come out of the ground Which animals live in a giant sequoia grove Where can one see a moonbow Art sightseeing beginning science and California history blend seamlessly in The Sierra Adventure Coloring Book Philomath Devon Walker-Figueroa, 2022-09-14 Selected by Sally Keith as a winner of the 2020 National Poetry Series this debut collection is a ruminative catalogue of overgrowth and the places that haunt us With Devon Walker Figueroa as our Virgil we begin in the collection s eponymous town of Philomath Oregon We drift through the general store into the Nazarene Church past people plucking at the brambles of a place that won t let them go We move beyond the town into fields and farmland and further still along highways into a cursed Californian town a museum in Florence We wander with a kind of animal logic like a beast with a mind to get loose from a valley following towards foul through the tense overlapping space between movement and stillness An explorer at the edge of the sublime Walker Figueroa writes in quiet awe of nature of memory and of a beauty that is merely existence carrying on and carrying on In her wanderings she guides readers toward a kind of witness that doesn't flinch from the bleak or bizarre A vineyard engulfed in flames is reclaimed by the fields A sow smothers its young then bears more A neighbor chews locusts in his yard For in Philomath it is the poet's sometimes reluctant obligation to keep an eye on what is left of the people and places that have impacted us And there is always something left whether it is the smell of burnt grapes a twelfth century bronze or even a lock of hair Rootbound Patrick Moran, 2014-11-11 Rhianna's lifeless body lies splayed atop a salt spire on the south shore of Mono Lake A sapling oak rises from inside the young woman's abdomen Murder by tree hugger Or something more complicated On the eve of his arrest the confessed killer walks up to an aspen tree and disappears into it Heed is his name A genetic interloper between flora and fauna A shape shifter Thus begins the mystery confronting Rhianna's ex husband Marlyn a transgender man to uncover how a murderer could take the life of his beloved and how he can bring himself to rationalize those same choices as his own
