conservatives in the party apparat and the military Gorbachev sought to demilitarize the Soviet Union from the beginning but that process took on a more revolutionary hue as he came to understand how deeply embedded Stalinism was He sought to continue where Lenin had left off believing that Stalin had sidetracked and deformed Soviet socialism Toward this end Gorbachev redefined the image of the enemy by emphasizing common human values in international relations over class conflict and altered the nature of the threat by stressing the primacy of economic over military competition Gorbachev changed the terms of political discourse and by changing the way in which the Soviet Union viewed the world he sought to make improvements in relations with the West and to decrease the military burden of his overstretched country
