Good Intentions Writing Center Work For Postmodern Times:

    Good Intentions Nancy Maloney Grimm,1999 Writing centers cannot resolve the national confusion about literacy but over time they can contribute to a better understanding and more democratic approaches to literacy education But to do this writing centers need to be more fully engaged with the paradox of literacy the way that literacy both dominates and liberates both demands submission and offers the promise of agency Nancy Grimm believes that postmodern theory which emphasizes the diversity of our society offers the best opportunities for this engagement Her book offers a fundamental reconsideration of writing center work work she maintains that must be informed by an understanding of the cultural role of literacy education Because so many educational practices are based on tacit assumptions about the normal way to do things Grimm argues that both the teaching and tutoring of literacy must be informed by a radical reconsideration of academic fairness Change will depend on the willingness of comfortably situated people to open themselves to authentic listening and the possibilities of having their world views transformed by writing center students Good intentions alone particularly good intentions grounded in a missionary narrative are not enough to overcome the potentially oppressive nature of literacy education Grimm begins by positioning the debate about the function of the writing center in the larger cultural conflict created by postmodern conditions She locates writing center work within the historical contradictions of literacy then analyzes the way composition teaching regulates an academic identity She goes on to show how postmodern theories of subjectivity offer ways to intervene in that regulation After reconceptualizing the politics of writing center administration Grimm ultimately argues for a conception of fairness that holds writing center workers responsible for not only granting students membership to the academic literacy club but also for changing the gates of that club when change is necessary Good Intentions is essential reading for educators involved with writing centers in any capacity whether they be directors researchers professional and undergraduate staff or simply teachers of students who use writing centers   Around the Texts of Writing Center Work R. Mark Hall,2017-05-01 Around the Texts of Writing Center Work reveals the conceptual frameworks found in and created by ordinary writing center documents The values and beliefs underlying course syllabi policy statements website copy and comments assessment plans promotional flyers and annual reports critically inform writing center practices including the vital undertaking of tutor education In each chapter author R Mark Hall focuses on a particular document He examines its origins its use by writing center instructors and tutors and its engagement with enduring disciplinary challenges in the field of composition such as tutoring and program assessment He then analyzes each document in the contexts of the conceptual framework at the heart of its creation and everyday application activity theory communities of practice discourse analysis reflective practice and inquiry based learning Around the Texts of Writing Center Work approaches the analysis of writing center documents with an inquiry stance a call for curiosity and skepticism toward existing and proposed conceptual frameworks in the hope that the theoretically conscious evaluation and revision of commonplace documents will lead to greater efficacy and more abundant research by writing center administrators and students   The Writing Center Director's Resource Book Christina Murphy,Byron Stay,2012-11-12 The Writing Center Director s Resource Book has been developed to serve as a guide to writing center professionals in carrying out their various roles duties and responsibilities It is a resource for those whose jobs not only encompass a wide range of tasks but also require a broad knowledge of multiple issues The volume provides information on the most significant areas of writing center work that writing center professionals both new and seasoned are likely to encounter It is structured for use in diverse institutional settings providing both current knowledge as well as case studies of specific settings that represent the types of challenges and possible outcomes writing center professionals may experience This blend of theory with actual practice provides a multi dimensional view of writing center work In the end this book serves not only as a resource but also as a guide to future directions for the writing center which will continue to evolve in response to a myriad of new challenges that will lie ahead   Writing Centers and the New Racism Laura Greenfield,Karen Rowan,2011-12-16 Noting a lack of sustained and productive dialogue about race in university writing center scholarship the editors of this volume have created a rich resource for writing center tutors administrators and scholars Motivated by a scholarly interest in race and whiteness studies and by an ethical commitment to anti racism work contributors address a series of related questions How does institutionalized racism in American education shape the culture of literacy and language education in the writing center How does racism operate in the discourses of writing center scholarship lore and how may writing centers be unwittingly complicit in racist practices How can they meaningfully operationalize anti racist work How do they persevere through the difficulty and messiness of negotiating race and racism in their daily practice The conscientious nuanced attention to race in this volume is meant to model what it means to be bold in engagement with these hard questions and to spur the kind of sustained productive multi vocal and challenging dialogue that with a few significant exceptions has been absent from the field   Writing Center Research Paula Gillespie,Alice Gillam,Lady Falls Brown,Byron Stay,2001-12-01 There are writing centers at almost every college and university in the United States and there is an emerging body of professional discourse research and writing about them The goal of this book is to open formalize and further the dialogue about research in and about writing centers The original essays in this volume all written by writing center researchers directly address current concerns in several ways they encourage studies data collection and publication by offering detailed reflective accounts of research they encourage a diversity of approaches by demonstrating a range of methodologies e g ethnography longitudinal case study rhetorical analysis teacher research available to both veteran and novice writing center professionals they advance an ongoing conversation about writing center research by explicitly addressing epistemological and ethical issues The book aims to encourage and guide other researchers while at the same time offering new knowledge that has resulted from the studies it analyzes   Sensemaking for Writing Programs and Writing Centers Rita Malenczyk,2023-06-15 In this collection writing program and writing center administrators from a range of academic institutions come together to explore their work through the lens of sensemaking Sensemaking is an organizational theory concept that enables institutions supervisors teachers tutors and others to better understand the work they do by using narrative metaphor and other theoretical lenses The book is divided into two sections Sensemaking with Tutors and Teachers and Sensemaking and Institutional Structures Chapter authors employ several theoretical approaches to sensemaking ranging from individual experience to institutional history to document design providing readers with ideas for how to administer and teach within their programs more effectively how to advocate for their programs within larger university contexts and how to positively influence the lives and careers of those they work with Sensemaking for Writing Programs and Writing Centers theorizes daily experiences from working lives and suggests problem solving strategies Writing program administrators writing department chairs and writing center directors tutors and staff will find value in its pages A Guide to Composition Pedagogies Gary Tate,Amy Rupiper-Taggart,Kurt Schick,Brooke Hessler,2014-02 This is a bibliographic guide written for newcomers to the field The book familiarizes writing instructors with the current topography of composition studies and directs them to the best books and articles for further exploration Working with Faculty Writers Anne Ellen Geller,Michele Eodice,2013-10-15 The imperative to write and to publish is a relatively new development in the history of academia yet it is now a significant factor in the culture of higher education Working with Faculty Writers takes a broad view of faculty writing support advocating its value for tenure track professors adjuncts senior scholars and graduate students The authors in this volume imagine productive campus writing support for faculty and future faculty that allows for new insights about their own disciplinary writing and writing processes as well as the development of fresh ideas about student writing Contributors from a variety of institution types and perspectives consider who faculty writers are and who they may be in the future reveal the range of locations and models of support for faculty writers explore the ways these might be delivered and assessed and consider the theoretical philosophical political and pedagogical approaches to faculty writing support as well as its relationship to student writing support With the pressure on faculty to be productive researchers and writers greater than ever this is a must read volume for administrators faculty and others involved in developing and assessing models of faculty writing support Naming What We Know Linda Adler-Kassner,Elizabeth Wardle,2015-06-15 Naming What We Know examines the core principles of knowledge in the discipline of writing studies using the lens of threshold concepts concepts that are critical for epistemological participation in a discipline The first part of the book defines and describes thirty seven threshold concepts of the discipline in entries written by some of the field s most active researchers and teachers all of whom participated in a collaborative wiki discussion guided by the editors These entries are clear and accessible written for an audience of writing scholars students and colleagues in other disciplines and policy makers outside the academy Contributors describe the conceptual background of the field and the principles that run throughout practice whether in research teaching assessment or public work around writing Chapters in the second part of the book describe the benefits and challenges of using threshold concepts in specific sites first year writing programs WAC WID programs writing centers writing majors and for professional development to present this framework in action Naming What We Know opens a dialogue about the concepts that writing scholars and teachers agree are critical and about why those concepts should and do matter to people outside the field   Impact of Emergent Technologies on Writing Centers and Pedagogy Wang, Tingjia,2025-05-08 Emergent technologies reshape the landscape of writing centers and pedagogical practices in higher education From AI driven writing tools to collaborative platforms and digital feedback systems these innovations transform how writing support is delivered accessed and understood Writing centers are no longer confined to physical spaces instead they evolve into hybrid or fully online environments that accommodate diverse learner needs and preferences Pedagogically instructors and tutors rethink traditional approaches integrating digital literacy multimodal composition and ethical engagement with technology into their curricula As a result emergent technologies enhance accessibility and efficiency while challenging educators to critically examine the role of technology in writing instruction and the student learning experience Impact of Emergent Technologies on Writing Centers and Pedagogy explores the impact of emergent technologies on writing centers and writing pedagogy in higher education worldwide It examines the themes concerns and challenges emerging from different writing centers and their culturally and linguistically diverse responses towards the latest transformations in writing pedagogy This book covers topics such as digital literacy policymaking and writing programs and is a useful resource for educators computer engineers academicians researchers and scientists   Center Will Hold Michael Pemberton,2003-12-01 In The Center Will Hold Pemberton and Kinkead have compiled a major volume of essays on the signal issues of scholarship that have established the writing center field and that the field must successfully address in the coming decade The new century opens with new institutional demographic and financial challenges and writing centers in order to hold and extend their contribution to research teaching and service must continuously engage those challenges Appropriately the editors offer the work of Muriel Harris as a key pivot point in the emergence of writing centers as sites of pedagogy and research The volume develops themes that Harris first brought to the field and contributors here offer explicit recognition of the role that Harris has played in the development of writing center theory and practice But they also use her work as a springboard from which to provide reflective descriptive and predictive looks at the field   Tutoring Second Language Writers Shanti Bruce,Ben Rafoth,2016-03-01 Tutoring Second Language Writers a complete update of Bruce and Rafoth s 2009 ESL Writers is a guide for writing center tutors that addresses the growing need for tutors who are better prepared to work with the increasingly international population of students seeking guidance at the writing center Drawing upon philosopher John Dewey s belief in reflective thinking as a way to help build new knowledge the book is divided into four parts Part 1 Actions and Identities is about creating a proactive stance toward language difference thinking critically about labels and the mixed feelings students may have about learning English Part 2 Research Opportunities demonstrates writing center research projects and illustrates methods tutors can use to investigate their questions about writing center work Part 3 Words and Passages offers four personal stories of inquiry and discovery and Part 4 Academic Expectations describes some of the challenges tutors face when they try to help writers meet readers specific expectations Advancing the conversations tutors have with one another and their directors about tutoring second language writers and writing Tutoring Second Language Writers engages readers with current ideas and issues that highlight the excitement and challenge of working with those who speak English as a second or additional language Contributors include Jocelyn Amevuvor Rebecca Day Babcock Valerie M Balester Shanti Bruce Frankie Condon Michelle Cox Jennifer Craig Kevin Dvorak Paula Gillespie Glenn Hutchinson Pei Hsun Emma Liu Bobbi Olson Pimyupa W Praphan Ben Rafoth Jose L Reyes Medina Guiboke Seong and Elizabeth Adelay Witherite   Landmark Essays on Writing Program Administration Kelly Ritter,MELISSA IANETTA,2024-11-01 Leading with the provocative observation that writing programs administration lacks an established set of texts that provides a baseline of shared knowledge in which to root our ongoing conversations and with which to welcome newcomers Landmark Essays on Writing Program Administration focuses on WPA identity to propose one such grouping of texts This Landmark volume is the cornerstone resource for new Writing Program Administrators and graduate students seeking an ever important overview of the literature on Writing Program Administration Drawing broadly across scholarship in writing programs and writing centers Ritter and Ianetta work to historicize theorize and problematize the ever shifting answers offered to the question Who or what is a WPA   Writing Centres in Higher Education Sherran Clarence,2017-10-11 This collection of essays reflects on the ways in which writing centres in South Africa are working in and across disciplines Institutional constraints and challenges that arise from these collaborations are addressed and opportunities for transforming teaching and learning spaces are explored The chapters speak to the global move in higher education to reconsider how knowledge is made who makes it and how support and development opportunities for students and lecturers should be created and sustained across the disciplines This volume contributes to the body of knowledge in the growing field of the scholarship of teaching and learning in higher education in South Africa It builds on the work of the first collection of such essays Changing Spaces Writing Centres and Access to Higher Education Eds A Archer and R Richards 2011 SUN PReSS to understand why working within the disciplines is so critical for writing development in a South African context   Reinventing (with) Theory in Rhetoric and Writing Studies Andrea Alden,Kendall Gerdes,Judy Holiday,Ryan Skinnell,2019-10-21 Reinventing with Theory in Rhetoric and Writing Studies collects original scholarship that takes up and extends the practices of inventive theorizing that characterize Sharon Crowley s body of work Including sixteen chapters by established and emerging scholars and an interview with Crowley the book shows that doing theory is a contingent and continual rhetorical process that is indispensable for understanding situations and their potential significance and for discovering the available means of persuasion For Crowley theory is a basic building block of rhetoric produced by and within specific times and locations as a means of opening other ways of believing or acting Doing theory in this sense is the practice of surveying the common sense of the community doxa and discovering the available means of persuasion invention The ultimate goal of doing theory is not to prescribe certain actions but to ascertain what options exist for rhetors to see the world differently to discover new possibilities for thought and action and thereby to effect change in the world The scholarship collected in Reinventing with Theory in Rhetoric and Writing Studies takes Crowley s notion of theory as an invitation to develop new avenues for believing and acting By reinventing the understanding of theory and its role in the field this collection makes an important contribution to scholarship in rhetorical studies and writing studies It will be valuable to scholars teachers and students interested in diverse theoretical directions in rhetoric and writing studies as well as in race gender and disability theories religious rhetorics digital rhetoric and the history of rhetoric Publication supported in part by the Texas Tech University Humanities Center Contributors Jason Barrett Fox Geoffrey Clegg Kirsti Cole Joshua Daniel Wariya Diane Davis Rebecca Disrud Bre Garrett Catherine C Gouge Debra Hawhee Matthew Heard Joshua C Hilst David G Holmes Bruce Horner William B Lalicker Jennifer Lin LeMesurier James C McDonald Timothy Oleksiak Dawn Penich Thacker J Blake Scott Victor J Vitanza Susan Wyche Unlimited Players Holly Ryan,Stephanie Vie,2022-06-15 Unlimited Players provides writing center scholars with new approaches to engaging with multimodality in the writing center through the lenses of games play and digital literacies Considering how game scholarship can productively deepen existing writing center conversations regarding the role of creativity play and engagement this book helps practitioners approach a variety of practices such as starting new writing centers engaging tutors and writers developing tutor education programs developing new ways to approach multimodal and digital compositions brought to the writing center and engaging with ongoing scholarly conversations in the field The collection opens with theoretically driven chapters that approach writing center work through the lens of games and play These chapters cover a range of topics including considerations of identity empathy and power productive language play during tutoring sessions and writing center heuristics The last section of the book includes games written in the form of tabletop game directions that directors can use for staff development or tutors can play with writers to help them develop their skills and practices No other text offers a theoretical and practical approach to theorizing and using games in the writing center Unlimited Players provides a new perspective on the long standing challenges facing writing center scholars and offers insight into the complex questions raised in issues of multimodality emerging technologies tutor education identity construction and many more It will be significant to writing center directors and administrators and those who teach tutor training courses Our Body of Work Melissa Nicolas,Anna Sicari,2022-09-15 Our Body of Work invites administrators and teachers to consider how physical bodies inform everyday work and labor as well as research and administrative practices in writing programs Combining academic and personal essays from a wide array of voices it opens a meaningful discussion about the physicality of bodily experiences in the academy Open exchanges enable complex and nuanced conversations about intersectionality and how racism sexism classism and ableism among other isms create systems of power Contributors examine how these conversations are framed around work practices policies and research and identify ways to create inclusive embodied practices in writing programs and classrooms The collection is organized to maximize representation in the areas of race gender identity ability and class by featuring scholarly chapters followed by narratively focused interchapters that respond to and engage with the scholarly work The honest and emotionally powerful stories in Our Body of Work expose problematic and normalizing policies practices and procedures and offer diverse theories and methodologies that provide multiple paths for individuals to follow to make the academy more inclusive and welcoming for all bodies It will be an important resource for researchers as well a valuable addition to graduate and undergraduate syllabi on embodiment writing instruction pedagogy and WPA work Contributors Dena Arendall Janel Atlas Hayat Bedaiwi Elizabeth Boquet Lauren Brentnell Triauna Carey Denise Comer Joshua Daniel Michael Faris Rebecca Gerdes McClain Morgan Gross Nabila Hijazi Jacquelyn Hoermann Elliott Maureen Johnson Jasmine Kar Tang Elitza Kotzeva Michelle LaFrance Jasmine Lee Lynn C Lewis Mary Lourdes Silva Rita Malenczyk Anna Rita Napoleone Julie Prebel Rebecca Rodriguez Carey Ryan Skinnell Trixie Smith Stacey Waite Kelsey Walker Shannon Walters Isaac Wang Jennie Young Linguistic Justice on Campus Brooke R. Schreiber,Eunjeong Lee,Jennifer T. Johnson,Norah Fahim,2021-12-06 This book supports writing educators on college campuses to work towards linguistic equity and social justice for multilingual students It demonstrates how recent advances in theories on language literacy and race can be translated into pedagogical and administrative practice in a variety of contexts within US higher educational institutions The chapters are split across three thematic sections translingual and anti discriminatory pedagogy and practices professional development and administrative work and advocacy in the writing center The book offers practice based examples which aim to counter linguistic racism and promote language pluralism in and out of classrooms including teacher training creating pedagogical spaces for multilingual students to negotiate language standards and enacting anti racist and translingual pedagogies across disciplines and in writing centers Changing Spaces Arlene Archer,Rose Richards,2011-07-01 Changing Spaces makes a forceful and credible case for the role of writing centres in engaging with students staff and institutional structures in understanding issues of access from a social perspective This is a specialist book for those working in writing centres and for academics of all disciplines It is based on research and provides an important set of theoretical arguments developed through reflection on writing centre practices about student writing and the work of the university Professor Sioux McKenna Centre for Higher Education Research Teaching and Learning Rhodes University How do we select and train tutors How do we work with faculty How do we combat the image that we are remedial a fix it shop How do we prove our worth How do we show that we improve retention Changing Spaces demonstrates the flexibility of writing centers and the unique roles they play in South Africa Writing centers everywhere represent institutional responses to the learning needs of their students and they do so because writing centers adapt easily to different contexts and situations They meet students where they are as a group and individually Professor Leigh Ryan Writing Center Director University of Maryland USA Strategies for Writing Center Research Jackie Grutsch McKinney,2015-09-15 Strategies for Writing Center Research is a how to guide for conducting writing center research introducing newcomers to the field to the methods for data collection analysis and reporting appropriate for writing center studies
