Rapidly Growing Churches Matt Miofsky, Dr. Jason Byassee, 2018-10-16 Leaders who are interested in planting or revitalizing congregations often feel discouraged and defeated after leadership conferences or after reading about the heroes of church planting and church growth They are amazing they say I can't be that amazing But Jesus' load is easy and his burden is light When we examine the practices and characteristics of those heroes we see striking trends and commonalities Aspiring church leaders can learn the practices and develop the characteristics that will lead to successful churches Instead of feeling defeated new leaders should have a hope filled sense of what new thing they can do Authors Matt Miofsky and Jason Byassee carefully researched interviewed and profiled successful church growers across the U S and identified 8 characteristics these leaders and their congregations have in common These pastors are still learning still figuring out how to do this work and how to faithfully live into God's call But for now how are they doing what they do What mistakes have they made learned from Where have they paid the stupid tax that others should avoid Each of these heroes is painfully ordinary and up front about their flaws And each can see slightly farther than the rest of us What do they see that we can learn from Discover the 8 characteristics and learn how to adapt them for your own congregation and calling Believe in miracles and act accordingly Integrate new people quickly Love the local Exist to reach the next person Elevate the practice of giving Work in teams Preach effectively to skeptics Make friends with the denomination

Speak Good News David Schaal, 2024-02-16 If one word evokes discomfort when spoken to Christ followers and non Christ followers alike it would be the word evangelism For the Christ follower this word brings feelings of guilt shame and inadequacy They know that at some level they should be participating in evangelistic activities but they are not My passion is to see Christ followers intentionally engaging people in spiritual conversations I wrote this book to educate and encourage Christ followers in the beauty of sharing the love of Jesus with others Speak Good News aims to change the less than favorable reputation associated with

Built on the Sand Brian Black,2021-02-18 This book provides a new and thoroughly researched analysis to the problem of church growth Both sociological research and biblical evidence show that denominations which uncompromisingly stand for their beliefs grow Long term growth accordingly demands strictness and emphasizes theological differences Evidence of evangelical decline is charted over the last several decades While much of the book will focus upon the Holiness Movement to exemplify the difficulties faced by modern conservatives the scope is broadened to include all evangelical groups Similar factors which caused mainline churches to begin shrinking in the 1960s are causing the decline of evangelical churches today history is simply repeating itself The concepts in this book give insight to the problem by placing church growth in a proper sociological and scriptural framework Along with scientific growth concepts much of the book applies biblical principles from the New Testament and relates how the mega church philosophy has not only undermined the foundation of many Christian values it has also begun causing growth to collapse The church in America is dying and unless biblical foundations are restored the American church will soon crumble into nothing more than a footnote of history C H U R C H Dennis Fakes, 2008-08 Too often the word church evokes ho hum yawns Yet God s desire is that the church meet the deepest of human need and provide human beings with daily and eternal hope How can the church be more CHRIST centered How can it be a safe secure HOME for spiritual seekers who may not be particularly religious but do wish to connect with God and other seekers Why does the church not have a sense of URGENCY in getting the good news out to a world looking for real good news How can RELATIONSHIPS with God and others be developed How can we discover know and claim our CALLING as the people of God How can the church truly be the HOPE of the world
