Adrift in Macao Christopher Durang, Peter Rodgers Melnick, 2009 Set in 1952 in Macao China Adrift in Macao is a loving parody of film noir movies Everyone that comes to Macao is waiting for something and though none of them know exactly what that is they hang around to find out The characters include your film noir standards like Lurena the curvacious and wised up dame who luckily bumps into Rick Shaw the cynical surf and turf casino owner her first night in town She ends up getting a job singing in his night club perhaps for no reason other than the fact that she looks great in a slinky dress And don't forget about Mitch the American who has just been framed for murder by the mysteries villain McGuffin With songs and quips puns and farcical shenanigans this musical parody is bound to please audiences of all ages Page 4 of cover

Reaping Havoc AJ Rose, 2015-11-11 This book is nothing what I expected Not only are the characters well developed but the story line was completely new and interesting A whole new take on a genre I have read and loved It blew me away Reader Review No one asked Mitch Seeker if he wanted to be a grim reaper He didn't sign up for the rumors the lack of friends or the erratic schedule He doesn't want a life watching people die Especially not a man he loves Mitch's solution is simple don't fall in love He'll never have to explain why he doesn't age or why he's always there with death knocks Most of all he'll never be a widower Enter world class skier Nate Koehn If the soul attached to him is any indication Mitch has found another reaper in which case his undeniable feelings don't need suppressing However the spectral tag a long is only the beginning of Nate's issues Following a catastrophic loss Nate is no stranger to grief and the hole it leaves behind The question Nate and Mitch both must answer is loud and clear is the pain of loss worse than the ache of never having loved at all Product warning Contains vivid descriptions of death and an unconventional theory on the afterlife which may not be suitable for all readers Reader discretion advised
