ferment and carries on to Vancouver and a new century A captivating and intimate narrative The Writing Life provides a compelling portrait of the last three decades of Canadian cultural life From the book Tuesday 4 February 1992 Toronto Early this morning the latest in a series of strange phone calls from Edmund Carpenter in New York to discuss successive versions of his Canadian Notes Queries piece on Marshall McLuhan He falls to reminiscing and at one point says Marshall always reminded me of that passage in Boswell in which Boswell says that if you chanced to take shelter from a rain storm for a few minutes in Dr Johnson s company you would come away convinced that you had just met the smartest man in the world Marshall was like that too Of course if you spent an hour with Marshall well that was something quite different The Few Philip Kaplan,2015-02-27 In this new pictorial history from Philip Kaplan the perspectives of both RAF and Luftwaffe airmen are considered within the wider context of one of the most iconic and pivotal conflicts of modern history The Blitz primarily the bombing of London and the major cities of Britain by the German Air Force lasted for fifty seven nights from September 1940 into May 1941 Life under the bombing the perspectives of German and British airmen the experience of sheltering in the London Underground first hand accounts of the horror by survivors left behind all these voices are consolidated to great effect providing a suitable commentary to the rare archive photography on display Accounts and photographs of some of the most notable participants caught up in the proceedings include Al Deere Geoffrey Page Brian Kingcome Peter Townsend Bob Doe and Ginger Lacey The Big Fat Surprise Nina Teicholz,2015-01-06 Challenges popular misconceptions about fats and nutrition science revealing the distorted claims of nutrition studies while arguing that more dietary fat can lead to better health wellness and fitness Dundurn Performing Arts Library Bundle — Musicians Ezra Schabas, Lotfi Mansouri, Stuart Hamilton, James Neufeld, Robert Popple, Walter Pitman, Holly Higgins Jonas, Michelle Labrèche-Larouche, Carl Morey,2013-12-17 This special twelve book bundle is a classical and choral music lover s delight Canada s rich history and culture in the classical music arts is celebrated here both in the form of in depth biographies and autobiographies Lois Marshall Lotfi Mansouri Elmer Iseler Emma Albani and more but also in honour of musical places There s Music in These Walls a history of the Royal Conservatory of Music In Their Own Words a celebration of Canada s choirs and Opera Viva a history of the Canadian Opera Company Canada plays an important role in the promotion and performance of art music and you can learn all about it in these fine books Includes Opening Windows True Tales from the Mad Mad Mad World of Opera Lois Marshall John Arpin Elmer Iseler Jan Rubes Music Makers There s Music in These Walls In Their Own Words Emma Albani Opera Viva MacMillan on Music Raising the Living Dead Alberto Ortiz Díaz,2023-03-08 Raising the Living Dead is a new history of Puerto Rico s carceral rehabilitation system in the middle decades of the twentieth century that brings to life the interactions of incarcerated people their wider social networks and health care professionals The book addresses key issues in the history of prisons and the histories of medicine and belief including how prisoners different racial class and cultural identities shaped their incarceration and how professionals living in a colonial society dealt with the challenge of rehabilitating prisoners for citizenship The main idea of the book is that in the region multiple communities of care came together both inside and outside of prisons to imagine and imperfectly enact solution oriented cultures of rehabilitation Specifically Alberto Ortiz D az argues that scientific and humanistic approaches to well being were deliberately fused to raise the living dead an expression that reemerged in the modern Caribbean to refer to prisoners These reform groups sought to raise incarcerated people physically mentally socially spiritually and civically The book is based on deep original archival research into the Oso Blanco White Bear penitentiary in Puerto Rico yet it situates its study within Puerto Rico s broader carceral archipelago and other Caribbean prisons The agents of this history include not only physical health professionals but also their mental health counterparts psychologists and psychiatrists social workers spiritual and religious practitioners and of course the prisoners and their families By following all these groups and emphasizing the interpersonal exercise of power Ortiz D az is able to tell a story that goes beyond structural and social control debates Raising the Living Dead is not just about convicts their immediate interlocutors and their contexts however but about how together these open a window into the history of social uplift projects within the neo colonial societies of the Caribbean There is no book like this in Caribbean historiography and few examine these themes in the larger literature on the history of prisons Oakville's Flower Sean E. faced his own death from cancer strove to enlighten his colleagues in the field of medicine As only a lifetime Chicagoan could he described in tender detail the worlds in which people lived or worked providing a look not just at one city s citizens but at humanity as a whole Pick s widow and son curate this showcase of some of his most well remembered work such as The Rag Man of Lincoln Park and Brother Bill In these and all of his other works Pick wrote from the front lines speaking to people whom others might encounter everyday but never really see He faithfully characterized his subjects never denying them dignity or value and never judging them In the mirror he held up to his city Chicago could see the shared humanity of all its citizens
