Gottfried Keller Eine Einfuehrung In Sein Werk:

Gottfried Keller Bernd Neumann,1982 Readers and Their Fictions in the Novels and Novellas of Gottfried Keller
Gail K. Hart,2020-05-01 This study seeks to alter our understanding of Keller s realism by problematizing the act of reading within fiction The story of reading in Keller s fiction is a self conscious meditation on the schism between life and its literary representation and it emphasizes the incapacity of that representation to actually and substantially influence the life it is based on This has consequences for the didactic writer The act of reading here generally involves a collision between fiction and its other and a move or tragic failure to move toward an acceptance and affirmation of the non correspondence between life and literature a process that renders moral didacticism a quixotic project This position runs counter to the prevailing view of Keller as a consciously didactic author who tried to create a credible copy of reality in order to revise and repair the real world by inspiring readers to make the depicted improvements in their nonfictional universe Reflections of Realism Robert C. Holub,1991 Comprises papers from the International Conference on title held Nov 1988 London UK on economics planning environmental impact safety control generators Acidic paper no index Holub German U of California Berkeley contends that realism is not primarily a textual property but a matter of reception and reexamines 19th century German literary realism by considering traditionally representative texts novellas and novels from the perspective of effects on readers Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Geschichte der deutschsprachigen Literatur, 1870-1900 Peter Sprengel,1998 Eine berblicksdarstellung zu den Entwicklungslinien der Literaturgeschichte des ausgehenden 19 Jahrhunderts Informationen zu Gattungen und Genre etc Between National Fantasies and Regional Realities Arne Koch,2006 Despite its popularity during the nineteenth century regional literature has often been overlooked with regard to its role in the development of German national consciousness By exploring various illustrations of geographic historical landscapes in texts written before the 1848 revolutions and after the 1871 unification this book investigates the vital polyphony generated by unique regional voices throughout the age of nationalism Close readings of texts by Berthold Auerbach Theodor Storm Wilhelm Raabe Fritz Reuter Theodor Fontane Gottfried Keller and Marie von Ebner Eschenbach examine recognizable and unfamiliar regions Although this study concentrates on provincial writings literary regionalism s fictionality and simultaneous referentiality raise broader questions for the programmatic aesthetics of Poetic Realism and for inquiries into identity formation Out of Place John B. Lyon,2016-11-17 In late nineteenth century Germany the onset of modernity transformed how people experienced place In response to increased industrialization and urbanization the expansion of international capitalism and the extension of railway and other travel networks the sense of being connected to a specific place gave way to an unsettling sense of displacement Out of Place analyzes the works of three major representatives of German Realism Wilhelm Raabe Theodor Fontane and Gottfried Keller within this historical context It situates the perceived loss of place evident in their texts within the contemporary discourse of housing and urban reform but also views such discourse through the lens of twentieth century theories of place Informed by both phenomenological Heidegger and Casey as well as Marxist Deleuze Guattari and Benjamin approaches to place John B Lyon highlights the struggle to address issues of place and space that reappear today in debates about environmentalism transnationalism globalization and regionalism Gender and Laughter ,2016-08-09 This essay collection is dedicated to intersections between gender theories and theories of laughter humour and comedy It is based on the results of a three year research programme entitled Gender Laughter Media 2003 2006 and includes a series of investigations on traditional and modern media in western cultures from the 18th to the 20th century A theoretical opening part is followed by four thematic sections that explore the multiple forms of irritating stereotypical gender perceptions aspects of post colonialism and multiculturalism the comic impact of literary and media genres in different national cultures as well as the different comic strategies in fictional philosophical artistic or real life communication The volume presents a variety of new approaches to the overlaps between gender and laughter that have only barely been considered in groundbreaking research It forms a valuable read for scholars of literary theatre media and cultural studies at the same time reaching out to a general readership
