Following Jesus Without Dishonoring Your Parents:

Following Jesus Without Dishonoring Your Parents Jeanette Yep, Peter Cha, Susan Cho Van Riesen, Greg Jao, Paul Tokunaga, 2009-08-20 Written by and for Asian Americans this study guide helps you discover and embrace Asian identity and learn to bridge the conflicting values of parents culture and faith Through accounts of humorous frustrating and heartbreaking personal experiences the authors offer support encouragement and ideas for living out the Christian faith between two cultures Christian Higher Education David S. Dockery, Christopher W. Morgan, 2018-12-10 Our world is growing increasingly complex and confused a unique and urgent context that calls for a grounded and fresh approach to Christian higher education Christian higher education involves a distinctive way of thinking about teaching learning scholarship curriculum student life administration and governance that is rooted in the historic Christian faith In this volume twenty nine experts from a variety of fields including theology the humanities science mathematics social science philosophy the arts and professional programs explore how the foundational beliefs of Christianity influence higher education and its disciplines Aimed at equipping the next generation to better engage the shifting cultural context this book calls students professors trustees administrators and church leaders to a renewed commitment to the distinctive work of Christian higher education for the good of the society the good of the church and the glory of God Invitation to Lead Paul Tokunaga, 2003-02-10 Writing from his own rich experiences both successes and failures Paul Tokunaga addresses the needs difficulties gifts and abilities that Asian Americans struggle with in leadership Asian American Evangelical Churches Antony William Alumkal, 2003 Annotation Based on studies of two congregations in New York the Chinese Community Church and the Korean Presbyterian Church this analysis examines issues of racial formation religious belief and ethnic identity The educational and economic values of the church members and the role their religious beliefs play in their gender and family values are also discussed To carry out his research Alumkal sociology of religion Iliff School of Theology Denver Colorado attended weekly services at the two churches for over a year in the mid 1990s when he also interviewed c 50 church members Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Learning Our Names Sabrina S. Chan, Linson Daniel, E. David de Leon, La Thao, 2022-08-30 Asian American Christians have diverse stories beyond the cultural expectations of the model minority or perpetual foreigner In this compelling resource a team from East Asian Southeast Asian and South Asian backgrounds encourage us to know our history telling diverse stories of the Asian diaspora in America and the impacts of migration culture and faith Finding Our Voice Matthew D. Kim, Daniel L. Wong, 2020-06-17 No one preaches in a cultural vacuum The message of what God has done in Christ is good news to all but to have the greatest impact on its hearers or even to be understood at all it must be culturally contextualized Finding Our Voice speaks clearly to an issue that has largely been ignored preaching to Asian North American ANA contexts In addition to reworking hermeneutics theology and homiletics for these overlooked contexts Kim and Wong include examples of culturally specific sermons and instructive

questions for contextualizing one's own sermons Finding Our Voice is essential reading for all who preach and teach in ANA contexts But by examining this kind of contextualization in action all who preach in their own unique contexts will benefit from this approach

Anxious about Decisions Michael Gembola, 2022-09-26 Do you get anxious when you have to make a decision Do you overthink overtalk and overanalyze When anxiety surrounds every decision the result can be decision making paralysis Counselor Michael Gembola explores this common struggle and then points to the peace that comes from knowing God as your refuge and ever present help in trouble

Intersecting Realities Hak Joon Lee, 2018-11-13 Experiencing racial marginalization in society and pressures for success in family Asian American Christian young adults must negotiate being socially underpowered culturally dissonant and politically marginal To avoid misunderstandings and conflicts within and without their communities more often than not they hide their true thoughts and emotions and hesitate to engage in authentic conversations outside their very close knit circle of friends In addition these young adults might not find their church or Christian fellowship to be a safe and hospitable place to openly struggle with all of these sorts of questions all the while lacking adequate vocabulary or resources to organize their thoughts This book responds to these spiritual moral struggles of Asian American young people by theologically addressing the issues that most intimately and immediately affect Asian American youths sense of identity God race family sex gender friendship money vocation the model minority myth and community uniquely and consistently from the contexts of Asian American young adult life Its goal is to help young Asian Americans develop a healthy balanced organic sense of identity grounded in a fresh and deeper understanding of the Christian faith

Double Particularity Daniel D. Lee, 2017-05-01 Double Particularity is a constructive proposal for theological methodology addressing the Asian American context using the theology of Karl Barth It focuses primarily on employing Barth's theology to develop a methodology for engaging the Asian American context This methodological focus means that it is an integrative and synthetic work bringing seemingly disparate thoughts and concepts together Here the Asian American context serves as an important case study With the center of worldwide Christianity moving to the global South and even as American Christianity becomes more reflective of immigrant populations the theological need for a deeper engagement with context is more urgent than ever Karl Barth particularly his thought on election Christology and reconciliation offers much wisdom and insight for the churches of the majority world and for these ethnic churches even though he is often seen as just a figure in the Western historical tradition Hence this study is a contribution to the development of a connection between Barth and contextual theology to the stimulation and enrichment of both

A Church of Our Own R. Stephen Warner, 2005 In this definitive collection of essays spanning fifteen years R. Stephen Warner traces the development of the new paradigm interpretation of American religion Originally formulated in the 1990s in response to prevailing theories of secularization that focused on the waning plausibility of religion in modern societies the new paradigm reoriented the study of religion to a focus on communities subcultures new religious institutions and the fluidity of modern religious identities This perspective continues to be one of the most important driving forces in the field and one of the most significant challenges to the idea that religious pluralism inevitably leads to religious decline A leading sociologist of religion Warner shows how the new paradigm stresses the role that religion plays as a vehicle for the bonding and expression of communities within the United States a society founded on the principle of religious disestablishment and characterized by a diverse and mobile population Chapters examine evangelicals and Pentecostals gay and lesbian churches immigrant religious institutions Hispanic parishes and churches for the deaf in terms of this framework Newly written introductory and concluding essays set these groups within the broad context of the developing field A thoughtfully organized and timely collection the volume is a valuable classroom resource as well as essential reading for scholars of contemporary religion

Korean Americans and Their Religions Ho-Youn Kwon, 2010-11-01 Since 1965 the Korean American population has grown to over one million people These Korean Americans including immigrants and their offspring have founded thousands of Christian congregations and scores of Buddhist temples in the United States In fact their religious presence is perhaps the most distinctive contribution of Korean Americans to multicultural diversity in the United States Korean Americans and Their Religions takes the first sustained look at this new component of the American religious mosaic The fifteen chapters focus on cultural racial gender and generational factors and are noteworthy for the attention they give to both Christian and Buddhist traditions and to both first and second generation experiences The editors and contributors represent the fields of sociology psychology theology and religious ministry and themselves embody the diversities underlying the Korean American religious experience they are Korean immigrants who are leaders in their fields and second generation Korean Americans beginning their careers as well as leaders of both Christian and Buddhist communities Among them are sympathetically analytical outside observers Korean Americans and Their Religions is a welcome addition to the emerging literature in the sociology of new immigrant religious communities and it provides the fullest portrait yet of the Korean religious experience in America

The 2008 Report: Bay Area Chinese Churches Research Project, Phase II Timothy Tseng, James Chuck, 2009 The 2008 report of the San Francisco Bay Area Chinese churches project edited by James Chuck and Timothy Tseng Contains updated profiles of Chinese congregations in the Bay Area and essays by Dean Adachi Ken Carlson Johnson Chiu Virstan Choy James Chuck Russell Jeung Ricky Manalo Donald Ng Victor Quan Steve Quen Chloe Sun and Timothy Tseng and Russell Yee

Embracing the New Samaria Alejandro Mandes, 2021-09-07 What does the Bible tell us about ethnic diversity How far do we need to travel to fulfill the Great Commission Walk out your front door and you ll find our new Samaria a land of immigrants refugees and people of countless cultures and backgrounds longing for us to welcome them and to share the good news Dr Alejandro Mandes has dedicated his life to helping bridge cultural gaps in the church He shares his vision for the church to see love reach and ultimately be the new Samaria in a way that brings true transformation to our churches and communities A Latino and a native of the US Mexico borderland he has traveled around the world to understand cultures equip thousands of leaders and befriend influencers within the emerging immigrant church With the ultimate goal of unity Embracing the New Samaria will help you to consider new ways to do church that accommodates multiethnicity community development and theological diversity You ll see that Mandes is a teacher who admonishes out of love and trains from a huge passionate heart You ll be challenged with thoughtful questions hear memorable stories learn key strategies and make plans to equip those around you to impact your changing community in loving tangible and practical ways It s time for all of us to catch the vision that Mandes presents to make disciples and love our neighbors so that we embrace a great community of every tribe language and tongue Doing Asian American Theology Daniel D. Lee,2022-11-29 With insights from interpersonal neurobiology and trauma theory Daniel D Lee s theological methodology and vocabulary which incorporates the need for personal integration and communal journey offers a process of integration and reconciliation for Asian American theologies in service of Asian American communities of every kind

Women, Leadership, and the Bible Natalie R. Wilson Eastman,2014-05-16 What do you believe about women s roles in church leadership Should women lead groups that include men Should women preach Should women be ordained More importantly why do you believe what you believe Plenty of books exist telling women what to think precious few help women think for themselves particularly about theological issues Women Leadership and the Bible helps women learn to interpret the Bible and discern for themselves answers to their questions about women s roles in the church along with any other issue they may face in life In straightforward plain language Dr Natalie Eastman introduces women to a five step easy to follow process for studying the Bible and interpreting what they study This book encourages women that they can think for themselves and can analyze significant theological issues despite any hesitations they may have any conflict surrounding an issue or any lack of theological training By the time readers finish this book they will have a biblically defensible theologically reasoned and thoroughly discerned understanding of what they believe Scripture says about women s roles and how that understanding could play out within the church No longer will they feel as though they have nothing to contribute when the subject of women s roles or any other of life s theological questions arises Developing a Transformational English Ministry in Chinese Churches Matthew R. S. Todd,2016-07-25 If you want to discuss development and transitions of a growing English ministry you ve come to the right book If recruiting and training youth workers or development of worship discipleship and mentoring is your concern you ll find ideas here Many Chinese churches lack a long vision for their English ministry rooted in the Great commission The author explores maturing English congregational models the Silent Exodus and why partnering is imperative A celebration is given to the Chinese churches multicultural potential and challenge to reconcile the CBC hybrid culture This volume has one goal healthier churches to the glory of God Heart.
