Following The Wrong God Home:

Following the Wrong God Home Clive Scott Chisholm, 2009-05-01 Clive Scott Chisholm wryly describes himself as a fugitive from the American Dream A displaced Canadian and a legally registered alien Chisholm set out from his home in upstate New York in 1985 to discover the origins of that dream In Following the Wrong God Home he recounts his personal odyssey describing the people he encountered and the unforgettable stories they told Chisholm's solo journey on foot from the Missouri River to Salt Lake City retraced the 1 100 mile trek of nineteenth century Mormon pioneers In this account he juxtaposes that Mormon search for the dream of community against the modern search for the American dream of individuality muses over how much and how little things have changed in the century and a half since 1847 and creates a narrative informed by the American dreamers he came across from Omaha to Salt Lake City

Following The Wrong God Home Catherine Lim, 2011-09-22 A wonderful new novel from Catherine Lim a modern love story of east meets west set in the author's native Singapore Never before has Yin Ling appeared in such splendour Perched in the bridal car with her mother in law to be in layers of unaccustomed make up bedecked with the jewels of her fiancé's family she is about to marry into one of the richest and most influential clans in Singapore But on the way to the ceremony the car passes through a destitute area of the city and Ling catches sight of a scene of death a terrible omen for a bride Instead of looking away Ling stops the car and goes to look It is a dead baby abandoned Despite her finery Ling picks it up So begins Catherine Lim's new novel Ling poor beautiful an outstanding student and a poet is to marry Vincent Chee a rich PhD student from a very traditional upper class family She will become a dutiful wife not the existence of her dreams but the Chee's money and influence is essential for her mother has cancer and they cannot abandon a faithful old servant Ah Heng Cheh However the mapping out of Ling's future doesn't proceed smoothly Almost against her will and through her poetry she meets outspoken American professor Ben Gallagher who threatens to overturn everything Ling must make her choice east or west head or heart The birth of a son makes her moral predicament even more agonizing

Every War Has Two Losers William Stafford, 2003 Born the year World War I began acclaimed poet William Stafford 1914-1993 spent World War II in a camp for conscientious objectors Throughout a century of conflict he remained convinced that wars simply don't work In his writings Stafford showed it is possible and crucial to think independently when fanatics act and to speak for reconciliation when nations take sides He believed it was a failure of imagination to only see two options to fight or to run away This book gathers the evidence of a lifetime's commitment to nonviolence including an account of Stafford's near hanging at the hands of American patriots In excerpts from his daily journal from 1951-1991 Stafford uses questions alternative views of history lyric invitations and direct assessments of our political habits to suggest another way than war Many of these statements are published here for the first time together with a generous selection of Stafford's pacifist poems and interviews from elusive sources Stafford provides an alternative approach to a nation's military habit our current administration's aggressive

Revenge and Forgiveness Patrice Vecchione, 2004-04 When you seek revenge dig two graves Anonymous A poetry anthology for teens on a perennially important topic Acclaimed anthologist and teacher Patrice Vecchione has put together an immensely powerful group of poems all of which address the timeless and uniquely human desires for revenge and for forgiveness The events of September 11th inspired this book I wanted to create a tangible forum a book to hold in our hands to help frame and think not just about terrorism but about who we are as individuals and who we are as a country It's been gestating in me for all this time Finding these poems was like turning little lights on to illumine the dark How can beauty be made out of ugliness and fear Can it rise from ash Patrice Vecchione

Southeast Asian Personalities of Chinese Descent Leo Suryadinata, 2012 This is a bold project recording the lives of a particular group of Southeast Asians Most of the people whose biographies are included here have settled down in the ten countries that constitute the region Each of them has either self identified as Chinese or is comfortable to be known as someone of Chinese ancestry There are also those who were born in China or elsewhere who came here to work and do business including seeking help from others who have ethnic Chinese connections With the political and economic conditions of the region in a great state of flux for the past two centuries it is impossible to find consistency in the naming process Confucius had stressed that correct names make for the best relationships In this case Professor Leo Suryadinata has been pursuing for decades the elusive goal of finding the right name to give to the large numbers of people who have in one way or another made their homes in or made some difference to Southeast Asia I believe that when he and his colleagues selected the biographies to be included here they have taken a big step towards the rectification of identities for many leading personalities In so doing he has done us all a great service
