Mankind United Arthur Bell, On December 25th in the year 1875 a small group of generous and deeply sincere men and women met for the purpose of dedicating their lives and their fortunes to the establishment of a world wide commercial organization which would by its works as well as its words fittingly commemorate the birth of mankind's greatly beloved exemplar and way shower Christ Jesus He in memory of whom the Christian era is dated taught men that The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand and not afar off and that they might enter it at any time they were willing to obey the Golden Rule and to live in peace and brotherly love dealing with one another as they would be dealt with He knew that our world's resources and its glorious attractions existed in limitless inexhaustible abundance and that they had been placed here for the happiness and equal use of all mankind He knew that there was no need for rivalry or greedy competition That mankind might be persuaded to prove Jesus promises and to practically apply them on a world wide scale and in all branches of human relationships and that there might be erected to His memory a monument capable of exemplifying the Spirit as well as the Letter of His teachings this little group of men and women pledged their lives and their combined fortunes of over sixty millions 60 000 000 00 of dollars to the establishment of an organization which would devote its resources and the energies of its members to a discovery of the basic causes of world wide poverty wars and human suffering The program they had determined upon was quite unlike any ever before attempted They proposed to deal not with results or effects called Poverty and War but with their causes and if need be to spend their entire fortunes and lives in a world wide investigation and preparation of plans for the annihilation of what they believed to be humanly directed causes of mankind s endless fears insecurity and suffering They had become convinced that poverty ignorance superstition fear hate and war were largely if not entirely the effects of such humanly directed causes perpetuated century after century by those individuals who found it financially profitable to do so and who had reached such a point of moral idiocy that they no longer considered the sufferings of their victims In no way could the men and women who gathered together that Christmas Day be classified as visionary impractical idealists although the vision which had gradually dawned in the thoughts of each one of them during a period of many years could only have been the out growth of the highest form of unselfed ideals If we were permitted to mention the names of some of the members of that little group they would be instantly recognized by the well informed people of every civilized nation on our earth today They each had experienced extreme poverty in earlier years and their attainment to positions of wealth and prominence had not been by visionary dreaming but by exercising intelligence industry and an unyielding determination to break the shackles of such slavery However success had not dimmed their memories or caused them to forget their tortures of hunger and privation nor the fact that hundreds of millions of men women and little children were still hungry and poorly clad and tens of millions of them dying of starvation and exposure each year And so on that Christmas Day in the year 1875 a world wide organization was formed and given a name A name which for over fifty eight years was to be known only by the members of that group and their immediate co workers but a name which throughout all of future human history will stand as a beacon light of progress forever reminding the men and women of every age that the Universe itself is their home and that there will never come a time when men will be able to say that they know all there is to know and that there is nothing new to explore or to discover For never will the Research Department of The International Institute of Universal Research and Administration cease making discoveries of which the human race should be informed nor cease from striving to be worthy of its name s significance It will never reach the stage where it has wholly fulfilled its mission to the human race of serving those whom its founders considered as their brothers and sisters and desired to benefit It will never cease growing nor enlarging its capacity to serve The major purpose of The International Institute of Universal

Research and Administration was to be the discovery and application of ways and means by which the Golden Rule might be Practically applied in all human relationships in order that poverty and wars would no longer occur and men might learn to live in peace and happiness in this gloriously beautiful world home of ours That men might learn to enjoy its abundant resources which belong equally to us all their eyes need only be opened to the inexhaustible nature of the needful or desirable things of life placed here on our earth in such endless variety by our Creator To open men s eyes to the needlessness of poverty and war and to prove to them the availability of the earth s limitless resources this was the task to which The Institute s founders had set their hands People who have spent less time effort or money in economic research may not yet be willing to heed the warnings which some of The Institute s discoveries necessitate nor to believe the promises which other discoveries so filled with hope now justify Those who are willing not only to heed our Research Department s warnings and act in accordance with its recommendations but also to believe and accept its promises will be able when they are sufficient in number to awaken the intelligent right thinking people of the world in time to prevent another war a war which is internationally planned by the world s War Lords and actual Rulers for the purpose of exterminating the educated and religious inhabitants of the civilized nations and of permanently enslaving those who are not slaughtered during this world wide holocaust of deadly gases poisons death rays and searing flames
