Fool Of God The Mystical Verse Of Ba:

The Mystical Origins of Hasidism Rachel Elijor, 2006-11-28 This very accessible introduction to hasidism as a movement opens a new window on its mystical underpinnings. It discusses the origins and dissemination of hasidism and the literature that facilitated this, the theological basis of hasidism and the mystical significance of the tsadik, the major figures of hasidism and the complex links to kabbalah and Sabbatianism. The discussion of the intellectual and social implications highlights the eighteenth century as a key period in modern Jewish history. Michael A. Fishbane, 2002-06-01 Written by one of the most noted scholars in the field, this commentary has Hebrew text and the new JPS English translation at the top of the page and a critical line by line commentary at the bottom. The Art of Teaching Persian Literature Franklin

Lewis, Asghar Seyed-Gohrab, Pounesh Shabani-Jadidi, 2024-08-19 This unique book is the first publication on the art of teaching Persian literature in English, consisting of 18 chapters by prominent early career, mid career and established scholars who generously share their experiences and methodologies in teaching both classical and modern Persian literature across various academic traditions in the world. The volume is divided into three parts: the background to teaching Persian literature, teaching Persian literature, pedagogy, translation and canon, and thematic and topical approaches to the Persian literature class. It includes such topics as the history of teaching Persian literature, the traditional teaching of Persian literature, the political and ideological intentions revealed in the formation of the Persian literature curriculum, the necessity to include marginalized modern Persian literature such as women's or diaspora literature, and more applied approaches to curriculum development and teaching. Contributors: Manizheh Abdollahi, Samad Alavi, Natalia Chalisova, Cameron Cross, Dick Davis, M. R. Ghanoonparvar, Persis Karim, Sooyong Kim, Daniela Meneghini, Jane Mikkelsen, Amir Moosavi, Evgeniya Nikitenko, Austin O. The Ocean of the Soul is one of the great works of the German Orientalist Hellmut Ritter (1892-1971). It presents a comprehensive analysis of the writings of the mystical Persian poet Farid al-Din Attar, who is thought to have died at an advanced age in April 1221 when the Mongols destroyed his home city of Nishapur in the north east of Iran. The book, which resulted from decades of investigation of literary and historical sources, was first published in 1955 and has since remained unsurpassed, not only as the definitive study of Attar's world of ideas but as an indispensable guide to understanding pre-modern Islamic literature in general. Quoting at length from Attar and other Islamic sources, Ritter sketches an extraordinarily vivid portrait of the Islamic attitude toward life, characteristic developments in pious and ascetic circles, and in conclusion, various dominant mystical currents of thought and feeling. Special attention is given to a wide range of views on love, love in all its manifestations including homosexuality, and the commonplace self-adoration of good looking youths. Ritter's approach is throughout based on precise philological interpretation of primary sources, several of which he has himself made available in critical editions. Routledge Revivals:
