Sacred and Secular Martyrdom in Britain and Ireland since 1914 John Wolffe, 2019-11-28

During and immediately after the First World War there was a merging of Christian and nationalist traditions of martyrdom expressed in the design of war cemeteries and war memorials and the state funeral of the Unknown Warrior in 1920 John Wolffe explores the subsequent development of these traditions of sacred and secular martyrdom analysing the ways in which they operated sometimes in parallel sometimes merged together and sometimes in conflict with each other Particular topics explored include the Protestant commemoration of Marian and missionary martyrs and the Roman Catholic campaign for the canonization of the saints and martyrs of England Secular martyrdom is discussed in relation to military conflicts especially the Second World War and the Falklands In Ireland there was a particularly persistent merging of sacred and secular martyrdom in the wake of the Easter Rising of 1916 although by the time of the Northern Ireland Troubles in the later twentieth century these traditions diverged In covering these themes the book also offers historical and comparative context for understanding present day acts of martyrdom in the form of suicide attacks

Haitian Revolution is embedded throughout the work of Alejo Carpentier Aim C saire and Derek Walcott This volume seeks to dialogue with the works of contemporary artists and Caribbean ancestors such as C L R James Wilson Harris and Fern ndez Retamar in order to show the impacts that spiritualism religious belief and mythology have had on Afro Cuban art Crisis and Renewal R. Ward Holder,2009-01-27 This latest volume in the Westminster History of Christian Thought series introduces readers to the events and ideas that propelled the various religious reformations of sixteenth century Europe A splendid introduction to this momentous period Crisis and Renewal examines the historical and theological developments that dramatically changed the religious landscape of Europe and continue to have important effects today Discussion questions and other aids make this an excellent book for classroom use Designed particularly for undergraduate courses in theology and religion the Westminster History of Christian Thought series offers reliable and accessible introductions to Christian thought for each major period in Christian history the early church the medieval era the Reformation the modern age and the contemporary period and concludes with a volume on American religious thought Passio SS. Perpetuae Et Felicitatis Engl Thomas J. Heffernan,2012-06-18 One of the most widely read and studied texts composed in Late Antiquity is the prison diary of Vibia Perpetua a young woman of the elite classes who was martyred in March of the year 202 or 203 C E in Carthage as part of a civic celebration honoring Caesar Geta She was well married and had recently become the mother of a baby son but despite her advantages she refused to recant her faith when she was arrested with other recent converts to Christianity Imprisoned with her was her pregnant slave Felicity Perpetua s steadfastness in her belief led to her martyrdom in the amphitheater A description of the heroic deaths of both women and the autobiography of one of the leaders of the Christian community Saturus is woven into Perpetua s diary by an anonymous editor who tells us that as they died Perpetua Felicity and the other condemned Christians bid farewell with a kiss of peace This unique and precious text survives in one Greek and in nine Latin manuscript versions Thomas Heffernan s new study contains much that has never been done before including a prosopography of all the individuals mentioned in the Passion a new English translation and the first detailed historical commentary in English on the entire narrative of the Passion It also includes a newly edited version of the Latin text based on all the extant manuscripts and rarer still the Greek text He concludes the book with a complete codicological description of all of the known manuscripts and thorough scholarly indices of the text itself Perpetua s prison diary is a revered text of early Christianity and Heffernan s new translation and commentary brings unprecedented scholarly resources to the much loved Passion Martin Luther As Comforter Neil R LeRoux,2007 Using meticulous rhetorical analysis of several important Luther texts this book examines how he offers comfort to those who are facing their own death or who are coming to terms with the death of loved ones Preacher and Cross André Resner,1999 Numerous books are available on the meaning and methods of preaching but nothing has been written that specifically addresses the character of those who would preach Preacher and Cross helps fill this gap in homiletic studies by examining the relationship between the message of Christian proclamation and the preacher with specific attention to ministerial character and the preacher's use of self in sermons Andr Resner discusses the two dominant approaches to homiletics the rhetorical approach typified by Augustine and the theological approach typified by Barth and then compares and contrasts these approaches to what the apostle Paul says on the issue Essential reading for those involved in ministry this work offers invaluable insights into the relationship between preachers and the message they proclaim Success Without Victory Jules Lobel,2006-02 An examination of how some legal issues are losing cases but that's okay because advances are still possible Paul and His Mortality R. Gregory Jenks,2015-11-16 While many books are written on Jesus's death a gap exists in writings about the theological significance of a believer's death particularly in imitation of Jesus's Paul as a first apostolic witness who talked frequently about his own death serves as a foundational model for how believers perceive their own death While many have commented about Paul's stance on topics such as forensic righteousness and substitutionary atonement less is written about Paul's personal experience and anticipation of his own death and the merit he assigned to it Paul and His Mortality Imitating Christ in the Face of Death explores how Paul faced his death in light of a ministry philosophy of imitation as he sought to imitate Christ in his life so he would imitate Christ as he faced his death In his writings Paul acknowledged his vulnerability to passive death as a mortal that at any moment he might die or come near death He gave us some of the most mournful and vitriolic words about how death is God's and our enemy But he also spoke openly about choosing death My aim is to know him to be like him in his death This study seeks to show that Paul embraced death as a follower and imitator of Christ because the benefits of a good death supersede attempts at self preservation For him embracing death is gain because it is honorable because it reflects ultimate obedience to God and because it is the reasonable response for those who understand that only Jesus's death provides atonement Studying mortality is paradoxically a study of life Peering at the prospect of life's end energizes life in the present This urgency focuses on living with mission in step with God the Creator and Sustainer of life who is rightly referred to as Life itself By focusing on mortality we focus on Paul's theology of life in its practical aspects in particular living life qualitatively aware of God's kingdom and mission and our limited quantity of days Promoting Peace, Inciting Violence Jolyon Mitchell,2013-01-04 This book explores how media and religion combine to play a role in promoting peace and inciting violence It analyses a wide range of media from posters cartoons and stained glass to websites radio and film and draws on diverse examples from around the world including Iran Rwanda and South Africa Part One considers how various media forms can contribute to the creation of violent environments by memorialising past hurts by instilling fear of the other by encouraging audiences to fight to die or to kill neighbours for an apparently greater good Part Two explores how film can bear witness to past acts of violence how film makers can reveal the search for truth justice and reconciliation and how new media can become sites for non violent responses to terrorism and government oppression To what extent can popular media arts contribute to imagining and building peace transforming weapons into art swords into ploughshares Jolyon Mitchell skillfully combines personal narrative practical insight and academic analysis Virgin Envy Jonathan A. Allan, Cristina Santos, Adriana Spahr, 2016-11-15 Virginity is of concern here that is its utter messiness At once valuable and detrimental normative and deviant undesirable and enviable Virginity and its loss hold tremendous cultural significance For many female virginity is still a universally accepted condition something that is somehow bound to the hymen whereas male virginity is almost as elusive as the G spot we know it s there it s just we have a harder time finding it Of course boys are virgins queers are virgins some people reclaim their virginities and others reject virginity from the get go So what if we agree to forget the hymen all together Might we start to see the instability of terms like untouched pure or innocent Might we question the act of sex the very notion of relational sexuality After all for many people it is the sexual acts they don t do or don t want to do that carry the most abundant emotional clout Virgin Envy is a collection of essays that look past the vestal virgins and beyond Joan of Arc From medieval to present day literature the output of HBO Bollywood and the films of Abdellah Ta a or Derek Jarman to the virginity testing of politically active women in Tahrir Square the writers here explore the concept of virginity in today s world to show that ultimately virginity is a site around which our most basic beliefs about sexuality are confronted and from which we can come to understand some of our most basic anxieties paranoias fears and desires Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2009-07-15 Death and dying and death related behavior involve the causes of death and the nature of the actions and emotions surrounding death among the living Interest in the varied dimensions of death and dying has led to the development of death studies that move beyond medical research to include behavioral science disciplines and practitioner oriented fields As a result of this interdisciplinary interest the literature in the field has proliferated This two volume resource addresses the traditional death and dying related topics but also presents a unique focus on the human experience to create a new dimension to the study of death and dying With more than 300 entries the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience includes the complex cultural beliefs and traditions and the institutionalized social rituals that surround dying and death as well as the array of emotional responses relating to bereavement grieving and mourning The Encyclopedia is enriched through important multidisciplinary contributions and perspectives as it arranges organizes defines and clarifies a comprehensive list of death related perspectives concepts and theories Key Features Imparts significant insight into the process of dying and the phenomenon of death Includes contributors from Asia Africa Australia Canada China eastern southern and western Europe Iceland Scandinavia South America and the United States who offer important interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspectives Provides a special focus on the cultural artifacts and social institutions and practices that constitute the human experience Addresses death related terms and concepts such as angel makers equivocal death end of life decision making near death experiences cemeteries ghost photography halo nurses caregiver stress cyberfunerals global religious beliefs and traditions and death denial Presents a selective use of figures tables and images Key Themes Arts Media and Popular Culture Perspectives Causes of
