Europe Alexandra Schwell, Michał Buchowski, Malgorzata Kowalska, Nina Szogs, 2016-04-29 Football has emerged as an important symbolic field through which various social, cultural, political, economic and historical dimensions and antagonisms are negotiated. This volume covers a variety of themes illuminating the multiple ways that football impacts on people's everyday lives. Using anthropological research methods and data collected from ethnographic fieldwork, the contributors scrutinize not only the social fields of football fans and the specific socio-cultural contexts in which they are embedded but also other actors beyond the pitch and the possibilities for both agency and subversion. Taking into account processes of Europeanization, globalization, commercialization and migration, the collection offers fresh insights into fan identity formations and practices and highlights the importance of anthropology's self-reflexive and actor-centred perspective.

Headslap John Klawitter, Deacon Jones, 2010-03-05 More than a simple story, Headslap brings to full view the NFL during the 1960s and 1970s, a time of incredible upheaval and change in the United States.
