Sabrina in Space Dennison R. Love,2012-03 The story about a young girl that builds spaceships flies to Mars saves the Earth from a very large asteroid that she captures puts in orbit above the Earth builds a space elevator above her home in Texas and also builds three space elevators on the moon and one on the planet Mars has lots of adventures while traveling around the solar system She is befriended by a humpback whale and saves lots of whales Apocalyptic Transformation Elizabeth K. Rosen,2008-02-15 Since its inception the story of the apocalypse has been used as a means by which to understand the world and one s place in it The appeal of the apocalyptic myth is largely rooted in its ability to make sense of instances of crisis by incorporating those crises into a larger plan for history and an end of time that God has planned Apocalypse is both an organizing principle to be imposed on an overwhelming seemingly disordered universe and a fundamentally moral story which offers hope of a new world where good and evil can be clearly delineated and addressed But all of the traditional functions and comforts of the apocalyptic myth are challenged when the myth collides with postmodernism The characteristics that define a work as postmodern ultimately destabilize the traits that make the apocalyptic myth unique Using the work of Terry Gilliam Don DeLillo Kurt Vonnegut and other writers in the genre Apocalyptic Transformation examines the collision of the postmodern mode and the apocalyptic myth explores the process of secularizing this religious story and the reasons for doing so and asks the question What happens when an author undermines the grand narrative of the apocalypse Are we all modern Robinsons?
