chronological and thematic chapters these little known primary source documents many never before published and some translated into English for the first time consist of newspaper clippings journal articles letters poems and sermons and provide insight into a wide variety of issues relating to Lincoln s Jewish connection Topics include Lincoln s early encounters with Central European Jewish immigrants living in the Old Northwest Lincoln s Jewish political allies his encounters with Jews and the Jewish community as President Lincoln s response to the Jewish chaplain controversy General U S Grant s General Orders No 11 expelling Jews as a class from the Military Department of Tennessee the question of amending the U S Constitution to legislate the country s so called Christian national character and Jewish eulogies after Lincoln s assassination Other chapters consider the crisis of conscience that arose when President Andrew Johnson proclaimed a national day of mourning for Lincoln on the festival of Shavuot the Feast of Weeks a day when Jewish law enjoins Jews to rejoice and not to mourn Lincoln s Jewish detractors contrasted to his boosters how American Jews have intentionally Judaized Lincoln ever since his death the leading role that American Jews have played in in crafting Lincoln s image and in preserving his memory for the American nation American Jewish reflections on the question What Would Lincoln Do and how Lincoln for America s Jewish citizenry became the avatar of America s highest moral aspirations With thoughtful chapter introductions that provide readers with a context for the annotated documents that follow this volume provides a fascinating chronicle of American Jewry s unfolding historical encounter with the life and symbolic image of Abraham Lincoln shedding light on how the cultural interchange between American ideals and Jewish traditions influences the dynamics of the American Jewish experience become adults it travels with us to Western Australia and then back to Chipinga We share the lives of others as the Rhodesian Bush War escalates in what was a quiet and idyllic country town to one of the most dangerous and deadly districts in Rhodesia Then the books deals with our final move back to Western Australia and our struggle to once again build a life for our children and ourselves To most people this may seem to be an unusual life but to a Rhodesian it would be considered pretty much the same story as many other families Although it is our story there are many stories told by others who have shared our way of life It is about love hate and humor It is about determination and desperation It is about life and death and friendship and community spirit Most of all I hope it is a monument to those who died or were seriously injured physically or mentally black or white It is also a salute to those incredible farmers the Rhodesian armed forces and those who worked in the rural areas during those troubled times For me personally writing this book has been a huge emotional journey
