Unconditional Devotion Maud A. Rider,2011-10-31 Throughout my entire life as far back as I can remember I felt a deep conviction in my heart for people to serve God righteously and in truth However my sinful life ruled but despite how firm or deep the bondages were my craving to serve God and live as I read in the old Bible my father had could not be satisfied by nothing in this world But despite my bondage when my life was at the lowest point in my thirties the Lord came to me and told me Jesus is the answer he knows all our needs Jesus is the answer he cares Give your life to Jesus and trust him today For Jesus is the answer we need Shortly after I was called to preach The Lord is Holy Direction was later given in dreams to write God has called and is calling man to an unconditional dedicated devoted relationship and fellowship with him Nothing God does he does different from his word nothing he commands man to do can be done differently and be acceptable unto him for works done differently from a command is not done as instructed Unconditional Devotion is the supreme power that kept every person that ever lived righteously in the earth pleasing unto God Those that claimed life in God and was alive in God had no other sanctification before God but obedience to the word Let us not forget that the word of the LORD is right and all his works are done in truth Ps 33 4 Practicing Christianity Margaret R. Miles,2006-06-07 Men and women throughout history have learned to shape their lives around Christian ideas attitudes and values in many different ways They have been helped by liturgies sermons visual imagery religious drama and hymns But perhaps the most important sources were the classic devotional manuals like The Imitation of Christ and The Pilgrim s Progress many of which are still in use today In this book Margaret Miles subjects these devotional manuals to a detailed critique Miles speaks as a scholar as a Christian living in the modern world and as a woman and she ends by discussing the relevance of her findings to Christian life today Prayers, and offices of devotion; for families, and for particular persons, upon most occasions ...
