For Melba:

Black Women and Breast Cancer Elizabeth A. Williams, 2018-11-16 Christian theology at its core is a story about someone being in trouble. In response to this trouble, the triune God intervenes. God identifies with those in trouble, walking with them through the experience. Yet the God of Christian theology goes a step further: God prevails over trouble. God is an overcomer. Black women with breast cancer identify with this God. They also see themselves in this theological narrative. They see themselves in the midst of troubles: troubles like racism, poverty, and environmental exposures that create the disease affecting their bodies. They see the troubles of breast cancer: their biological disposition towards more aggressive cancers, later stage diagnoses, poorer prognoses, diminished quality of care, and worse outcomes. Black women also palpably feel the troubles breast cancer brings: like fear, physical disfigurement, social isolation, being stereotyped for treatment decisions, abandonment, and even death. Black women feel the myriad troubles breast cancer brings. But Black women also know God in their troubles. They know an active God who identifies with and prioritizes their needs. They know this God through scripture and experience as God who puts them front and center. And because they know God as an overcomer and creative force, they know themselves as overcomers. For with God, their troubles do not last always. Black women with breast cancer construct a cultural theology of breast cancer out of knowing God. Borne out of experiences of the Black Church, womanist theology, and their intersectional identities of race, class, and gender, this theological investigation, informed by anthropology, examines how Black women construct an ontology of who God is and how God operates, and gain a God consciousness that shapes their response to the disease. Using pain, faith, and testimony as tools to struggle against breast cancer, Black survivors' theology transforms them from victims of breast cancer to change agents. Out of their lives as survivors comes a theology of complex hope, one cognizant of Black women's breast cancer disparities yet oriented towards Black women's achievement of health in the present and the future, a sufficient hope to sustain Black women through it all. Twitch Twitch Lee Love, 2011-05 What a culture shock! New to the United States, new to the city, new to the Lexhouse Advertising, leaving warm Jamaica to join the frozen tundra of corporate America. Read how this 23-year-old naive Leticia acclimates herself through the mazes of the complex business world in the very cold New York City. Read and live how she deals with her boss. Poor Leticia, she has to learn the hard way or does she?

Getting to Know Colombia Raphael Wilkins, 2025-08-28 A story of loss and discovery which is part memoir and part travelogue. In the wake of losing his wife Mary, the author accepted an unexpected invitation to travel to Colombia. This became both a journey through the Colombian Andes and also one through the stages of bereavement. How does a person mourn when their leading emotion is relief? After being trapped by circumstances into caring for in isolation, a complex and reclusive partner the author was released by her death but only into disorientation The chance offer from an old acquaintance led to an exotic travel experience and a culture and landscape so stunning that everything had to be brought into a different perspective This frank and poignant memoir will appeal to people who enjoy reflective travel literature to those who have had complex bereavements people interested in the reflections and choices of later life It is for those who are drawn to lose and find themselves through travel to exotic locations Within the travel book genre it is the first book of reflective travel writing about Colombia in the round previous books have concentrated on narco crime in the region

Jean Elliott, 2007-09-07 Melba Bradley had not been out of Chattanooga Tennessee in her life But having just graduated from four years of nursing school she decided to take a vacation before settling into a job and working herself to death for the rest of her life And the place she was going to see on her first out of state trip ever was New York City New York After all she had family there her father Jack s brother Cubon lived there with his wife Eileen and their daughters Verlanda and Trina In all of Melba s twenty two years it had always been the New York Bradleys that had flown down to see them in Chattanooga but because it had been five years since their last flight down Melba thought she d go against the grain and fly up to see them for once And Verlanda had assured her that once there she was going to show her all New York City had to offer And that was Verlanda s intention Out of a vacation that is meant to last for two weeks Melba enjoys three glorious days as Verlanda shows her all the New York City sights and introduces to her all her sophisticated friends And one of those friends is a nail technician named Judy who works for Verlanda s best friend Niecey s Hair Salon who s a palmistry freak on the side and reads the palms of both Verlanda and Melba telling them what to expect in their near futures For Verlanda she s going on a trip while Melba is going to meet a man although under very dangerous circumstances Melba doesn t believe that for a minute But she wonders when they return home to find her Uncle Cubon distressed by a phone call from his mother in Philadelphia stating she had to go into the hospital for tests and needed to have someone at her home to receive a package she is expecting to arrive in a couple of days and Cubon naturally asks Verlanda who has no choice other than go to Philadelphia and house sit for her grandmother Melba sees her to the bus station and returns to her cousin s home with the promise to her to stay with her parents until Verlanda gets back in the couple of days since the New York element can be dangerous for a tourist not schooled in its ways Only problem is that Verlanda did not tell her that because of something she did a week before her arrival her innocent hick cousin from the Tennessee sticks is about to walk into a trap that s going to land her in some very dangerous circumstances Will Napoleon be able to save her Melba woke up hours later to find herself in a small room devoid of everything but a small table and a chair She sat in her coat in the chair her hands and feet tied her mouth bound with strong cloth tape wondering where she was and how long she had been bound there Better yet she wondered who had kidnapped her and in fact who would want to The growling of her stomach came to remind her that it was time for a meal Melba didn t know whether breakfast lunch or dinner Thanks to her hands being tied behind her back and to the chair she couldn't see her watch to know what time it was and there was no clock in the small room to alert her otherwise Which meant that she was going to have to wait for whoever had left her there to come for her and that could be another long hour's wait if it wasn't the person's intention for her to die there altogether She wished she could rub her neck where a sharp pain registered from too much uncomfortable sitting She wondered if it was Monday or maybe Tuesday Melba had no way of knowing just how long she had been tied in the chair If only she could scream she might be able to claim someone's attention alert them to the fact that she had come to but that was made impossible by the strong tape covering her mouth Unless Taking a deep breath Melba began to force shrill sounds from her throat as she were screaming with her mouth closed Louder until her throat ached from the strain and she was forced to stop Thankfully for The Opera News, 1913 The South Western Reporter, 1924 Includes the decisions of the Supreme Courts of Missouri Arkansas Tennessee and Texas and Court of Appeals of Kentucky Aug Dec 1886 May Aug 1892 Court of Appeals of Texas Aug 1892 Feb 1893 Jan Feb 1928 Courts of Civil and Criminal Appeals of Texas Apr June 1896 Aug Nov 1907 Court of Appeals of Indian Territory May June 1927 Jan Feb 1928 Courts of Appeals of Missouri and Commission of Appeals of Texas The Strand Magazine Sir George Newnes, 1899 Distorted Bodies and Suffering Souls. Chantal Kwast-Greff, 2013 Chaos Pain Self mutilation Women starve themselves They burn or slash their own flesh or their babies throats and slam their newborns against walls Their bodies are the canvases on which the suffering of the soul carves itself with knife and razor In Australian fiction written by women between 1984 and 1994 female characters inscribe their inner chaos on their bodies to exert whatever power they have over themselves Their self inflicted pain is both reaction and language the bodily sign not only of their enfeeblement but also to a certain extent of their empowerment of themselves and their world The texts considered in this book chiefly by Margaret Coombs Kate Grenville Fiona Place Penelope Rowe Leone Sperling and Amy Witting function as both defiance and acceptance of prevailing discourses of femininity and patriarchy between submission and a possible future The narratives of anorexia bulimia fatness self mutilation incest and murder shock the reader into an understanding of deeper meanings of body and soul and prompt a tentative interpretation of fiction in relation to the world of real women and men in contemporary white Australia This is affective literature with the reader in voyeuristic complicity Holding up the mirror of fiction the women writers act perforce as a social lever their narratives as Bildungsromane But there is a risk that of reinforcing stereotypes and codes of conduct which supposedly long gone still represent women as victims Why are the female characters self destroyers and victims Why are they not heroes saviours or conquerors If women read about women themselves and feel pity for the Other they read about they will also feel pity for themselves there is little happiness in being a woman But infanticide and distorting the body are problem solving behaviours In truth the bodies of the female characters bear the marks and scars of the history of their mothers and the history of their grandmothers indeed that of their own the history of survivors
