Walker,2014-06-27 In Crossing the Threshold Metaphors of an Evolving Faith Harlene Walker invites us to accompany her on a metaphorical hike through her cathedral forest while she explores her Christian faith and spirituality In the land of don't know the landscape changes radically until we finally come to an open garden of compassion Her faith life evolves realistically she recognizes that our society has evolved from post Christian to post theistic In this new paradigm as she laughs cries and feels frustrated or surprised she sees both her spirituality and her faith strengthen She has prepared herself and us to grow deeper into the wisdom of the heart and soul As we accompany her through many personal conversions Walker shows us that crossing thresholds is the work of body mind and spirit and that there is more than one threshold to cross      Sociology on the Menu Alan Beardsworth,Teresa Keil,2002-09-11 Sociology on the Menu is an accessible

Gender, Family and Work in Naples Victoria A. Goddard,2020-08-18 Breaking new ground in Mediterranean anthropology this book rejects the discipline s traditional focus on honour and shame in small face to face communities and suggests instead that gender and sexuality interact with material processes in the constitution of personal and social identities In this ethnographic account of the labour market in Naples the author shows how cultural definitions of gender can be used to investigate broad social processes Scarce stable employment in the area means that household members are forced to diversify their economic activities in order to survive Petty entrepreneurship is an option which is almost exclusively available to men Women who are either unable or unwilling to obtain factory work are generally confined to the status of outworkers The author emphasises that individual choices cannot be attributed solely to economic opportunities but that concepts of selfhood gender identity and the symbolic value of female sexuality are also important
