The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R.

Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Poetry FM Lisa

Hollenbach, 2023-05-12 Poetry FM listens back to the experimental period of FM radio's development from the late 1940s to the 1980s to show how American poetry was shaped by and shaped in turn the emergence of a radio counterculture Like FM radio history the literary history of American poetry during this period is defined by waves of opposition to the literary and critical establishment by poets and movements who likewise stressed experimentalism alternative networks of distribution regionalism and community In this study Lisa Hollenbach focuses on two major radio stations Pacifica's KPFA in Berkeley and WBAI in New York to develop an institutionally grounded analysis of how poets' involvement with FM radio contributed to postwar aural imaginaries While poetry programming on Pacifica Radio has always been capacious including poetry from the past as well as contemporary poetry poetry in translation and poetry by unpublished writers Hollenbach focuses on writers who played important roles at these stations and whose work embraces oral poetics and/or radio and sonic tropes These especially include poets associated with the New American Poetry William Everson Kenneth Rexroth Jack Spicer Allen Ginsberg Robert Duncan Paul Blackburn and Amiri Baraka among others who brought the oral poetics of the new poetry to Pacifica Radio's experiment in FM radio But in the 1960s and 1970s the racial gender and sexual politics of both the New American Poetry and the FM revolution came under increasing scrutiny and contestation During these years poets as different as Spicer Ginsberg Baraka and Audre Lorde responded to this terrain of struggle by creating in their poetry performances and radio work alternative aural imaginaries or figurative channels for the transmission of fugitive signals across time and place This is a book about how radio the once dominant mass media form became an underground medium for and key figure in American poetry in the 1950s 1960s and 1970s Andrew Young Richard Ormrod, 2018-08-30 Andrew

Young was one of the most original inventive and paradoxical poets of the twentieth century C S Lewis called him A modern Marvell and a modern marvel and Philip Larkin remarked that His works are in no danger of being forgotten Regarded as a major poet by academic scholars Young's prestige in this critical biography is taken one step further and declared a great poet Dr Richard Ormrod criticises and analyses Andrew Young's poetry to establish this greatness especially in his lengthy masterpiece Out of the World and Back It also explores his fascinating life and personality a wry whimsical erudite complex
