Fringe Of Leaves:

A Fringe of Leaves Patrick White,1993-01 In 1836 a woman leaving Australia for England believes she is leaving behind her a multitude of vices and temptations but the ship upon which she is sailing will never reach its destination and there are ahead of her ordeals more trying than those she is leaving behind A Fringe of Leaves. (Novel. Repr.). Patrick White,1982 Dissociation and Wholeness in Patrick White's Fiction Laurence Steven,1989-08-23 Patrick White is a man divided one part of him strives for permanence surety the ideal while knowing the contingent temporal realm he inhabits must inevitably undermine such striving The desire and the knowledge of its futility leads him into a misanthropic devaluation of human creative possibility and complementarily into the arbitrary use of imposed symbolic resolutions directed to an elect who can see It has been this part of White largely that criticism has been industrious in explicating if not in quite the terms I have used above But there is another part of White which Witnessing the Past Sigrun Meinig,2004

The Fringe of Leaves Patrick White (Very Rev.),1976 Constructions of Colonialism Ian J. McNiven,1999-01-01 One of the most famous shipwreck sagas of the 19th century took place on the tropical coast of north east Australia In 1836 the Stirling Castle was wrecked off the Queensland coast and many of the crew together with the captain's wife Eliza Fraser were marooned on Fraser Island Early sensationalized accounts represent Mrs Fraser as an innocent white victim of colonialism and her Aboriginal captors as barbarous savages These first contact narratives of the white woman and her Aboriginal captors impacted significantly on England and the politics of Empire at an early stage in Australia's colonial history The text critically examines the Eliza Fraser episode by bringing together an interdisciplinary team of authors artists members of the Fraser Island Aboriginal community and academics in the areas of cultural and women's studies literature history anthropology archaeology the visual and creative arts This book Essays include feminist analyses of the incident investigations of textual and visual representations of Aboriginal people and considerations of the role played by Eliza Fraser as creative inspiration for the arts The text explores the constructions of Empire colonialism identity femininity savagery otherness captivity and survival A Fringe of Leaves Alan Dilnot,Jennifer Strauss,1986 A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns,Rebecca McNeer,2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense Contemporary Issues in Australian Literature David Callahan,2001 This volume intervenes in the contemporary study of Australian literature which ranges widely across issues of general cultural studies the politics of identity and the position of Australia within wider postcolonial contexts A Fringe of Leaves ,2007

Coombes,2014-12-10 Of all our childhood memories few are quite as thrilling or as tactile as those of climbing trees Scampering up the rough trunk spying on the world from the cool green shelter of the canopy lying on a limb and looking up through the leaves at the summer sun almost made it seem as if we were made for trees and trees for us Even in adulthood trees retain their power from the refreshing way their waves of green break the monotony of a cityscape to the way their autumn transformations take our breath away In this lavishly illustrated volume the trees that have enriched our lives finally get their full due through a focus on the humble leaves that serve in a sense as their public face The Book of Leaves offers a visually stunning and scientifically engaging guide to six hundred of the most impressive and beautiful leaves from around the world Each leaf is reproduced here at its actual size in full color and is accompanied by an explanation of the range distribution abundance and habitat of the tree on which it is found Brief scientific and historical accounts of each tree and related species include fun filled facts and anecdotes that broaden its portrait The Henry's Maple for instance found in China and named for an Irish doctor who collected leaves there bears little initial resemblance to the statuesque maples of North America from its diminutive stature to its unusual trifoliate leaves Or the Mediterranean Olive which has been known to live for more than 1 500 years and whose short narrow leaves only fall after two or three years pushed out in stages by the emergence of younger leaves From the familiar friends of our backyards to the giants of deep woods The Book of Leaves brings the forest to life and to our living rooms as never before
