German Wartime Memory, American Exceptionalism, and Post-Cold War Blockbuster Cinema Robert Pirro, 2025-08-29 This book excavates the diverse and mostly unnoticed political meanings made available to American and German audiences by the blockbuster films helmed by transplanted West German directors Roland Emmerich and Wolfgang Petersen Through formal film analysis broad consideration of American and German film criticism and reflection on relevant political developments of the post Cold War era the book reveals how traces of Germany s experience of dictatorship and wartime destruction find inadvertent cinematic expression in ways that helped American and German moviegoers find orientation in the changed political and cultural landscape of a newly globalized world To complement and deepen the analysis of the Hollywood output of Emmerich and Petersen the book juxtaposes the creative product of these transplanted directors to examples of a converse cinematic phenomenon considered under the label American Babelsberg which encompasses World War Two themed films shot by American directors in Germany utilizing the production facilities at Babelsberg Focus here is placed particularly on two high profile cinematic releases of the aughts Valkyrie 2008 and Inglourious Basterds 2009 The magnetic attraction to or nettlesome burden of World War Two memories on these directors of American Babelsberg and German Hollywood is explained in this book by the entwined histories of Germans and Americans the different challenges of national self definition and renewal they faced in the post Cold War world and their long standing and ongoing transatlantic discourse of political ideas and cultural ideals This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of film studies politics popular culture and contemporary history Thinking in the Dark Jeremy Blatter, 2015-10-16 Today's film scholars draw from a dizzying range of theoretical perspectives they're just as likely to cite philosopher Gilles Deleuze as they are to quote classic film theorist André Bazin To students first encountering them these theoretical lenses for viewing film can seem exhilarating but also overwhelming Thinking in the Dark introduces readers to twenty one key theorists whose work has made a great impact on film scholarship today including Rudolf Arnheim Sergei Eisenstein Michel Foucault Siegfried Kracauer and Judith Butler Rather than just discussing each theorist's ideas in the abstract the book shows how those concepts might be applied when interpreting specific films by including an analysis of both a classic film and a contemporary one It thus demonstrates how theory can help us better appreciate films from all eras and genres from Hugo to Vertigo from City Lights to Sunset Blvd and from Young Mr Lincoln to A.I. and Wall E The volume's contributors are all experts on their chosen theorist's work and furthermore are skilled at explaining that thinker's key ideas and terms to readers who are not yet familiar with them Thinking in the Dark is not only a valuable resource for teachers and students of film it's also a fun read one that teaches us all how to view familiar films through new eyes Theorists examined in this volume are Rudolf Arnheim Béla Balázs Roland Barthes André Bazin Walter Benjamin Judith Butler Stanley Cavell Michel Chion Gilles Deleuze Jean Douchet Sergei Eisenstein Jean Epstein Michel Foucault Siegfried Kracauer Jacques Lacan Vachel Lindsay Christian Metz Hugo Münsterberg V.F. Perkins Jacques Rancière and Jean Rouch A Second Life Thomas Elsaesser, Michael Wedel, 1996 In the Beginning Recollections of Software Pioneers records the stories of computing's past enabling today's professionals to improve on the realities of yesterday The stories in this book clearly show that modern concepts such as data abstraction modularity and structured approaches date much earlier in the field than their appearance in academic literature These stories help capture the true evolution The book illustrates human experiences and industry turning points through personal recollections by the pioneers people like Barry Boehm Peter Denning Watts Humphrey Frank Land and a dozen others German Film & Literature Eric Rentschler, 2013-10-15 First Published in 1986 This collection of essays by an international team of scholars is the first sustained investigation in any language of the historical interactions between German film and literature It is a book about adaptations and transformations about why filmmakers adapt certain material at certain times The major impetus at work is the desire to expand the field of adaptation study to include sociological theoretical and historical dimensions and to bring a livelier regard for intertextuality to the studies of German film and literature It is concerned with the ways in which filmmakers in Germany from Pabst and von Sternberg to Fassbinder Herzog and Sanders Brahms have engaged and been engaged by literary history Representing Social

Precarity in German Literature and Film Sophie Duvernoy, Karsten Olson, Ulrich Plass, 2023-10-05 Using Germany as a national case study this volume examines the historical genesis of precarity its evolution from 19th century industrial modernity to the present and its reflections and reconfigurations in artistic production in particular with relation to work gender and sexuality Precarity is everywhere now sociologist Pierre Bourdieu declared almost thirty years ago Not only declining middle class standards of living but also debt drug addiction housing and food insecurity depression and deaths of despair are now being recognized as symptoms of the downward pull of social precarity Although these and similar ills have been attributed to neoliberal policies of deregulation privatization and willful neglect of the common good precarization has accompanied the booms and busts of industrial modernity from its beginnings Representing Social Precarity in German Literature and Film explores how German and Austrian literature film and social history have engaged with social precarity from the period of Romanticism and early industrialization to the present The chapters in this volume deal with precarity as both an objective phenomenon reflected in literary and filmic representations and as a subjective phenomenon that gives these representations their particular shape Representing Social Precarity in German Literature and Film opens new critical perspectives on diverse forms of lived precarity and their creative manifestations by reflecting on the history of capitalist modernity from the vantage points of weakness vulnerability marginality impoverishment and otherness Weimar Cinema Noah William Isenberg, 2009 In this comprehensive companion to Weimar cinema chapters address the technological advancements of each film their production and place within the larger history of German cinema the style of the director the actors and the rise of the German star and the critical reception of the film Theorising National Cinema Valentina Vitali, Paul Willemsen, 2019-07-25 Why do we think of clusters of films as national cinema Why has the relationship between the nation and film become so widely and uncritically accepted Theorising National Cinema is a major contribution to work on national cinema by many of the leading scholars in the field It addresses the knotty and complex relationship between cinema and national identity showing that the nationality of a cinema production company and the films that it made have not always been seen as pertinent The volume begins by reviewing and rethinking the concept of national cinema in an age of globalisation and it goes on to chart the parallel developments of national film industries and the idea of a nation state in countries as diverse as Japan South Korea Russia France and Italy The issues of a national cinema for nation states of contested status with disputed borders or displaced peoples is discussed in relation to film making in Taiwan Ireland and Palestine The contributors also consider the future of national cinema in an age of trans national cultural flows exploring issues of national identity and cinema in Latin America Asia the Middle East India Africa and Europe Theorising National Cinema also includes a valuable bibliography of works on national cinema German Popular Cinema and the Rialto Krimi Phenomenon Nicholas G. Schlegel, 2022-01-28 German Popular Cinema and the Rialto Krimi Phenomenon Dark Eyes of London examines the Kriminalfilme or Krimis based on the novels of English author Edgar Wallace released by Rialto Film between 1959 and 1972 as part of the post World War II era of German popular cinema that enjoyed extraordinary popularity with the German public Nicholas G Schlegel analyzes how this group of West German thrillers not only nurtured a convalescing film industry but also provided unequaled national entertainment while canonizing Rialto's Krimi productions in terms of their historical genesis aesthetic characteristics and social reception Schlegel surveys the Krimi's enduring legacy calculable global influence inevitable decline and eventual migration to television in the 1970s where it thrived but ultimately took on a more somber tone Scholars of film television history and German culture will find this book particularly useful

The German-Jewish Experience

Revisited Steven E. Aschheim, Vivian Liska, 2015-09-14 In the past decades the German Jewish phenomenon Derrida has increasingly attracted the attention of scholars from various fields Jewish studies intellectual history philosophy literary and cultural studies critical theory In all its complex dimensions the post enlightenment German Jewish experience is overwhelmingly regarded as the most quintessential and charged meeting of Jews with the project of modernity Perhaps for this reason from the eighteenth century through to our own time it has been the object of intense reflection of clashing interpretations and appropriations In both micro and macro case studies this volume engages the multiple perspectives as advocated by manifold interested actors and analyzes their uses biases and ideological functions over time in different cultural disciplinary and national contexts This volume includes both historical treatments of differing German Jewish understandings of their experience their relations to their Judaism general culture and to other Jews and contemporary reflections and competing interpretations as to how to understand the overall experience of German Jewry

Camera Historica Antoine de Baecque, 2012 Antoine de Baecque proposes a new historiography of cinema investigating how cinematic representation changes the very nature of history Dismantling the Dream Factory Hester Baer, 2012-02 The history of postwar German cinema has most often been told as a story of failure a failure paradoxically epitomized by the remarkable popularity of film throughout the late 1940s and 1950s Through the analysis of 10 representative films Hester Baer reassesses this period looking in particular at how the attempt to dismantle the dream factory of Nazi entertainment cinema resulted in a new cinematic language which developed as a result of the changing audience demographic In an era when female viewers comprised 70 per cent of cinema audiences a women's cinema emerged which sought to appeal to female spectators through its genres star choices stories and formal conventions In addition to analyzing the formal language and narrative content of these films Baer uses a wide array of other sources to reconstruct the original context of their reception including promotional and publicity materials film programs censorship documents reviews and spreads in fan magazines This book presents a new take on an essential period which saw the rebirth of German cinema after its thorough delegitimization under the Nazi regime Photography and Place Donna West Brett, 2015-12-07 As a recording device photography plays a unique role in how we remember places and events that happened there This includes recording events as they happen or recording places where something occurred before the photograph was taken commonly referred to as aftermath photography This book presents a theoretical and historical analysis of German photography of place after 1945 It analyses how major historical ruptures in twentieth century Germany and associated places of trauma memory and history affected the visual field and the circumstances of looking These ruptures are used to generate a new reading of postwar German photography of place The analysis includes original research on world renowned German photographers such as Thomas Struth Thomas Demand Michael Schmidt Boris Becker and Thomas Ruff as well as photographers largely unknown in the Anglophone world
