Life is Short -My Friend Joseph Yurkin, Sr., 2014-06-25 Once you live as an efficient cause you establish peace within your heart and soul without any regrets looking backward and forward Live your life that the fear of death can never enter your heart Trouble no one about religion respect others in their view and demand that they respect yours Love your life perfect your life and beautify all things in your life Seek to make your life long and its purpose in the service of your people Prepare a noble death song for the day you go over the great divide Always give a word or a sign of salute when meeting or passing a friend even a stranger when in a lonely place Show respect to all people and grovel to none When you rise in the morning give thanks for the food and the joy of living If you see no reason for giving thanks the fault only lies in yourself Abuse no one and nothing for abuse the wise ones to fool and robs the spirit of its vision When it comes your time to die be not like those whose hearts are filled with the fear o death so when their time comes they weep and pray for a little more time to live their lives over again in a different way Sing your death song and die like a hero going home No self-love- from emotional dependence to codependence Lola Sola,2019-07-01 This book contains clinical cases and personal experiences of patients who learn to recover from their emotional dependence and codependence in their treatment process r r Emotional pain is harder to feel and endure than physical pain Many people are hooked on emotional pain and drama r r Emotional dependence is a physical mental emotional and spiritual disease which a large portion of our society suffers from One of its symptoms is codependence and there is a solution for it r r Codependence is a syndrome made up of dysfunctional behavior patterns such as perfectionism pleasing manipulating need for controlling need for approval incapacity to take decisions permissiveness procrastination and victimhood among others r r Codependence entails the belief that we are incomplete This belief turns us into people with a great need of being needed We learn to seek love from a place of need and do whatever is necessary to get it r r Without self love we lose our connection to life There are only gratifications which leave us with anxiety and emptiness When we become dependent we lose our connection to life and end up having a second hand life r r Originally written in Spanish this book has been translated to English and Swedish r r Feminist Interpretations of Mary Astell Alice Sowaal,Penny A.

Weiss,2016-05-02 Often referred to as a proto feminist early modern English philosopher and rhetorician Mary Astell was a pious supporter of monarchy who wrote about gender equality at a time when society tightly constrained female agency This diverse collection of essays situates her ideas in feminist historical and philosophical contexts Focusing on Astell s work and thought this book explores the degree to which she can be considered a feminist in light of her adherence to Cartesianism Christian theology and Tory politics The contributors explore the philosophical underpinnings of Astell s outspoken advocacy for the autonomy and education of women examine the intricacies underlying her theories of power community and female resistance to unlawful authority and reveal the similarities between her own philosophy of gender and sexual politics and feminist theorizing today A broad ranging look at one of the most important female writers of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries this volume will be especially valuable to students and scholars of feminist history and philosophy and the early modern era Aside from the editors the contributors are Kathleen A Ahearn Jacqueline Broad Karen Detlefsen Susan Paterson Glover Marcy P Lascano Elisabeth Hedrick Moser Christine Mason Sutherland and Nancy Tuana Varcarolis's Canadian Psychiatric Mental Health Nursing - E-Book Cheryl L. 3rd Edition uses a practical clinical perspective to provide a clear understanding of this often intimidating subject. It provides a foundation in nursing techniques and a guide to psychobiological disorders such as bipolar and depressive disorders, trauma interventions and interventions for distinct populations such as children and older adults. Adapted to meet the needs of Canadian nurses by Cheryl L. Pollard and Sonya L. Jakubec, this market-leading text prepares you for practice with real-world examples presented within a Canadian legal, ethical, and cultural context. Canadian focus throughout includes key considerations such as our nation's cultural and social diversity with federal/provincial/territorial distinctions. Canadian research and statistics reflect mental health and mental health practice in Canada. Research Highlight boxes are updated with examples of Indigenous research methodologies by Indigenous researchers and settler allies. DSM-5 boxes provide criteria for disorders covered by the American Psychological Association. Learning features include key terms and concepts, learning objectives, key points to remember, critical thinking, and chapter reviews reinforcing important information and helping to apply textbook content to the clinical setting. Assessment Guidelines boxes summarize the steps of patient assessment for various disorders. Drug Treatment boxes feature the most current generic and trade names for drugs used in Canada. Patient and Family Teaching boxes provide important details that should be discussed with patients and care givers. Integrative Therapy boxes highlight the different types of therapy that may be used to enhance treatment. Considering Culture boxes discuss the importance of cultural safety in providing competent care to diverse populations within various clinical situations. NEW Safety Tip boxes highlight important issues of safety for psychiatric mental health care, patient experiences, and nursing interventions. NEW Added mental health content covers Indigenous populations, migrant populations, and gender differences with a focus on cultural safety, equity-informed approaches, relational and trauma-informed practices. Updated Chapter 29 covers recovery, survivorship, and public mental health approaches. Enhanced topics include substance use disorders, harm reduction, and support among nurses; changes related to Medical Assistance in Dying (MAiD) legislation; and mental health in view of climate change and the COVID-19 pandemic.
