From Johnsons Kids To Lemonade Opera The American Classical Singer Comes Of Age:

From Johnson's Kids to Lemonade Opera Victoria Etnier Villamil, 2004 American baritone Lawrence Tibbett created an overnight sensation at the Metropolitan Opera in 1925 when the audience stopped the performance of Falstaff to honor their compatriot for his exceptional talent Tibbett's now legendary curtain call foreshadowed a startling new era for classically trained native singers who rarely received the public recognition or respect given to their European colleagues In this absorbing work Victoria Etnier Villamil chronicles the extraordinary time from 1935 to 1950 when American artists who felt intensely inferior to foreign performers journeyed from being unappreciated in their own country to standing without apology on stages at home and abroad Drawing on exhaustive primary research and extensive interviews Villamil tells the remarkable story of a generation of American opera singers whose profession image and art were forever altered by the upheavals of World War II as well as sweeping cultural and technological changes The author's in depth look at these breakthrough years explores such defining factors as Edward Johnson's drive to Americanize the Met in his first seasons as general manager the impact of the microphone on singers and singing styles and the importance of radio and motion pictures in introducing classical music voices to wider audiences Villamil also considers how travel restrictions imposed on European artists during the war unlocked opportunities for American artists and the role of political and Jewish refugees in enriching music education and training in this country In addition the author discusses thoroughly the founding of the New York City Opera the rise of regional and smaller opera companies including the enterprising and popular Lemonade Opera and advancements for African American classical singers Brimming with entertaining anecdotes and colorful figures both famous and little remembered the fascinating book concludes with an examination of this crucial period's legacy for the American classical music scene in the 1950s and beyond From Johnson's Kids to Lemonade Opera contains an invaluable appendix that provides biographical sketches of the over 250 opera and radio singers as well as art song specialists featured in this illuminating study

Kurt Weill's America Naomi Graber, 2021 When German Jewish composer Kurt Weill arrived in the United States in 1935 he found a nation nothing like he imagined This book tells the full story of Weill as outsider turned insider showing how he was keenly attuned to the difficult relationship America had with her immigrants but was slower to grasp the subtleties of race relations John Charles Thomas Michael J. Maher, 2015-01-24 Buoyant irrepressible and hot tempered John Charles Thomas captivated audiences worldwide with his incredible voice The son of a minister he studied voice at the Peabody Conservatory under the tutelage of Adelin Fermin one of the few voice teachers in America capable of training Thomas in the French operatic style By 1915 Thomas had become a leading performer on Broadway and ten years later had embarked on a trans Atlantic career in opera and concerts At the height of his popularity from 1934 through 1946 he was a popular star of radio phonographs and the Metropolitan Opera a favorite of both popular and classical audiences His decision to leave opera and focus on his radio career during the Second World War cost him his reputation as a serious artist The singer who introduced Home on the Range and launched many other American standards has been largely forgotten today This thorough biography details Thomas s life and career Beginning with his school days at the Peabody it traces his Broadway career as the star of Step This Way and Maytime and his highly successful career as a concert recording and opera star Appendices provide a discography of his recordings a list of operatic appearances in Brussels and the United States and the songs he performed on radio broadcasts from 1934 to 1948 Dreaming in Ensemble Lucy Caplan,2025
