

A surreal illustration of a race track. The track is a wide, light-colored path that curves from the bottom center towards the top. At the top of the track, two giant, stylized hands are positioned as if they are about to clasp each other, forming a finish line. The hands are a reddish-brown color. Numerous thin, vertical lines, resembling strings or threads, hang from the hands and extend down the length of the track. Several dark, silhouetted figures of runners are shown in various stages of a running stride along the track. The background is a gradient of warm colors, from a pale yellow at the bottom to a deep orange and red at the top. The overall composition suggests a metaphorical race or a journey towards a goal controlled by a higher power.
