

The background of the book cover is a collage of abstract and symbolic elements. A horizontal film strip runs across the middle, featuring several frames. One frame on the left shows a close-up of a human eye. Another frame to the right shows a glowing blue light source. Above the film strip, there are several circular shapes, some resembling film reels or lenses, and a network of thin, intersecting lines. The overall color palette is dominated by warm oranges, yellows, and browns on the left, transitioning to cooler blues and purples on the right.

Saunders, 2011-01-01 Defying predictions that the Internet would eventually create a world where nations disappeared in favor of a unified global village the new millennium has instead seen a proliferation of nationalism on the Web Cyberspace a vast digital terrain built upon interwoven congeries of data and sustained through countless public private communication networks has even begun to alter the very fabric of national identity This is particularly true among stateless nations diasporic groups and national minorities which have fashioned the Internet into a shield against the assimilating efforts of their countries of residence As a deterritorialized medium that allows both selective consumption and inexpensive production of news and information the Internet has endowed a new generation of technology savvy elites with a level of influence that would have been impossible to obtain a decade ago Challenged nations from Assyrians to Zapotecs have used the Web to rewrite history engage in political activism and reinvigorate moribund languages This book explores the role of the Internet in shaping ethnopolitics and sustaining national identity among four different national groups

Albanians outside of Albania Russians in the near abroad Roma Gypsies and European Muslims Accompanying these case studies are briefer discussions of dozens of other online national movements as well as the ramifications of Internet nationalism for offline domestic and global politics The author discusses how the Internet provides new tools for maintaining national identity and improves older techniques of nationalist resistance for minorities Bringing together research and methodologies from a range of fields Saunders fills a gap in the social science literature on the Internet's central role in influencing nationalism in the twenty first century By creating new spaces for political discourse alternative avenues for cultural production and novel means of social organization the Web is remaking what it means to be part of nation This insightful study provides a glimpse of this exciting and sometimes disturbing new landscape Shangri-La Michael Buckley, 2008-11-25 Appealing to the adventure traveler or armchair reader who simply wishes to browse and dream this guide promises to lead them into the glorious reality and breathtaking landscapes of the Himalayas The Cyberspace Handbook Jason Whittaker, 2004 A comprehensive guide to all aspects of new media information technologies and the internet Fundamentals of Arts Management Pam Korza, Maren Brown, 2007 Anchoring the book are eleven tried and true chapters providing principles and best practices for managing and governing community arts organizations raising funds and presenting promoting and evaluating arts programs Four new chapters cover fundamentals of personnel management writing successful funding proposals advocating effectively for the arts and maximizing the arts role in the economic development of communities Nationally recognized leaders and authors in the community arts field offer historical and contemporary context regarding the role of the arts in community as well as insights about arts education and cultural access two important dimensions of local arts agencies work Also new are Online Companions to several chapters Easily accessed Online Companions offer expanded exploration of subject matter worksheets and other practical tools that can be downloaded and used or adapted and valuable resource listings that point to organizations publications and websites From publisher description Professionalization in the Creative Sector Margaret J. Wyszomirski, WoongJo Chang, 2023-10-26 This book seeks to better understand the processes and influences that have driven professionalization in the arts It develops an analytical framework that examines how processes of professionalization that typically influence and shape work conditions and occupational status are in the creative sector augmented by atypical worker efforts and choices to self structure their protean careers The book brings together a collection of works that explore the specific trajectories of professionalization in a variety of creative occupations as well as the formative processes that work across many creative occupations In particular the scholarship presented focuses on the interaction of three key variables field growth and institutionalization mutual benefit organization within fields and occupations and the intervention of cultural policy to validate and foster professional support structures In the broader context of expanding globalization growing awareness of diversity and tectonic shifts in technology this volume unveils research based implications for cultural policy cultural workers and cultural organizations This book will be of interest to researchers creative professionals as well as undergraduate and graduate level students in the fields of arts administration and culture Screen Space Reconfigured Susanne Saether, Synne Tollerud Bull, 2025-10-01 Screen Space Reconfigured is the first edited volume that critically and theoretically examines the many novel renderings of space brought to us by 21st century screens Exploring key cases such as post perspectival space 3D vertical framing haptics and layering this volume takes stock of emerging forms of screen space and spatialities as they move from the margins to the centre of contemporary media practice Recent years have seen a marked scholarly interest in spatial dimensions and conceptions of moving image culture with some theorists claiming that a spatial turn has taken place in media studies and screen practices alike Yet this is the first book length study dedicated to on screen spatiality as such Spanning mainstream cinema experimental film video art mobile screens and stadium entertainment the volume includes contributions from such acclaimed authors as Giuliana Bruno and Tom Gunning as well as a younger generation of scholars A Portrait of the Visual Arts Kevin F. McCarthy, Elizabeth Heneghan Ondaatje, Arthur Brooks, Andras Szanto, 2005-08-12 The third in a series that examines the state of the arts in America this analysis shows in addition to lines around the block for special exhibits well paid superstar artists flourishing university visual arts programs and a global expansion of collectors developments in the visual arts also tell a story of rapid even seismic change systemic imbalances and dislocation Management and the Arts, 3rd ed. William Byrnes, 2003-03-11 Revised to reflect the latest thinking and trends in managing organizations and people Management and the Arts Third Edition provides the reader with the practical tools necessary to manage an arts organization The class tested questions in each chapter help the reader to integrate the material and develop ideas as to how the situations and problems could have been handled New case studies focus on the challenges facing managers and organizations every day and new In The News quotes give the reader real world examples of principles and theories A new chapter focuses on developing career skills and options Graduate school options and postgraduate training opportunities are discussed and professional organizations and conferences are highlighted Probing Popular Culture on and Off the Internet Marshall William Fishwick, 2004 In Probing Popular Culture On and Off the Internet one of the leading authorities in American and popular culture studies presents an eye opening examination of the Information Age s influence on what we do how we live and who we are Dr Marshall Fishwick author of the textbooks Great Awakenings Popular Religion and Popular Culture Popular Culture Cavespace to Cyberspace and Popular Culture in a New Age focuses his penetrating gaze upon the impact of the cultural icons and events that color the fabric of our lives He examines the most recent developments crises and anxieties encountered in our headlong dash down the Information Superhighway and illustrates the reasons behind the media madness Peppered with quotes from influential figures ranging from Plato to P T Barnum this book provides food for thought that will spark smart discussion about every aspect of popular culture from Henry Ford to Y2K the impact on popular culture of the September 11 tragedy and more Media/Society

David Croteau, William Hoynes, 2018-08-02 Providing a framework for understanding the relationship between media and society this updated Sixth Edition of Media Society helps you develop the skills you need to critically evaluate both conventional wisdom and your own assumptions about the social role of the media Authors David Croteau and William Hoynes retain the book's basic sociological framework but now include additional discussions of new studies and up to date material on today's rapidly changing media landscape Now featuring streamlined content and a more engaging narrative this edition offers expanded discussions of the new media world including digitization the internet the spread of mobile media devices the role of user generated content the potential social impact of new media on society and new media's effect on traditional media outlets Santa Clara Computer and High-technology Law Journal, 2003 Beyond Productivity National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Computer Science and Telecommunications Board, Committee on Information Technology and Creativity, 2003-04-02 Computer science has drawn from and contributed to many disciplines and practices since it emerged as a field in the middle of the 20th century Those interactions in turn have contributed to the evolution of information technology new forms of computing and communications and new applications that continue to develop from the creative interactions between computer science and other fields Beyond Productivity argues that at the beginning of the 21st century information technology IT is forming a powerful alliance with creative practices in the arts and design to establish the exciting new domain of information technology and creative practices ITCP There are major benefits to be gained from encouraging supporting and strategically investing in this domain Heaven on Earth Richard Landes, 2011-08-04 Millennialists through the ages have looked forward to the apocalyptic moment that will radically transform society into heaven on earth They have delivered withering critiques of their own civilizations and promised both the impending annihilation of the forces of evil and the advent of a perfect society And all their promises have invariably failed We tend therefore to dismiss these prophets of doom and salvation as crackpots and madmen and not surprisingly historians of our secular era have tended to underestimate their impact on our modern world Now Richard Landes offers a lucid and ground breaking analysis of this widely misunderstood phenomenon This long awaited study shows that many events typically regarded as secular including the French Revolution Marxism Bolshevism Nazism not only contain key millennialist elements but follow the apocalyptic curve of enthusiastic launch disappointment and often catastrophic re entry into normal time Indeed as Landes examines the explicit millennialism behind such recent events as the emergence of Global Jihad since 1979 he challenges the common notion that modern history is largely driven by secular interests By focusing on ten widely different case studies none of which come from Judaism or Christianity he shows that millennialism is not only a cultural universal but also an extremely adaptive social phenomenon that persists across the modern and post modern divides At the same time he also offers valuable insight into the social and psychological factors that drive such beliefs Ranging from ancient Egypt to modern day UFO cults and global Jihad Heaven on Earth both delivers an eye opening revisionist argument for the significance of millennialism throughout history and alerts the reader to the alarming spread of these ideologies in our world today Revitalizing Arts Education Through Community-wide Coordination Susan J. Bodilly, Catherine H. Augustine, Laura Zakaras, 2008 To succeed in the long run coordinated efforts such as these must have committed and sustained leadership supportive policy and sufficient resources BOOK JACKET Collaborating for Museum Innovation Chuan Li, 2024-09-16 This book is a fresh reflection on the study of museum innovation with special attention paid to the enabling role of collaboration within the process It sets out to capture the innovation dynamics of museums and explore to what extent and how collaborative arrangement can contribute to different types of innovative activities in the museum sector The book presents a holistic review of museum innovation from multiple perspectives of among others economics sociology museology and organisational study while adopting an interdisciplinary approach to explore and analyse the innovation process and collaboration mechanism from the viewpoint of economics and sociology The research presented is based on three interdependent aspects first a holistic definition and taxonomy of innovation in museum organisations second qualitative and quantitative analysis of the enabling role of collaboration in technological cultural and organisational innovation in museums and third multiple case studies for the identification and evaluation of effective collaboration models in different types of innovation This is a problem oriented study which avoids focusing on those large and super museums that have been well documented in prior studies instead it concentrates on small and medium sized museums which account for more than 85% of museums in the world and have become the main resources of cultural tourism and the creative economy at a regional level Primarily written for postgraduates researchers and academics interested in innovation study innovation in cultural and creative sectors and museum study the findings may also have important implications on innovation management and policy for regional museums and public authorities Living with Cyberspace John Armitage, Joanne Roberts, 2003-02-01 Cyberspace and cybertechnology have impacted on every aspect of our lives Western society culture politics and economics are now all intricately bound with cyberspace Living With Cyberspace brings together the leading cyber theorists of North America Britain and Australia to map the present and the future of cyberspace Presenting a guidebook to our new world both the theory and the practice the book covers subjects as diverse as androids biotech electronic commerce the acceleration of everyday life access to information the alliance between the military and the entertainment industries feminism democratic practice and human consciousness itself Together the essays divided into separately introduced sections on society culture politics and economics present a systematic and state of the art overview of technology and society in the 21st Century Contributors John Armitage Verena Andermatt Conley James Der Derian William H Dutton Phil Graham Tim Jordan Wan Ying Ling David Lyon Ian Miles Joanne Roberts Saskia Sassen Cathryn Vasseleu McKenzie Wark Frank Webster
