From Image To Likeness A Jungian Path In The Gospel Journey:

From Image to Likeness William Harold Grant, Magdala Thompson, Thomas E. Clarke, 1983 This book represents a stage on a journey For almost a decade the three of us have been conducting retreat workshops R W based on the Gospel as illuminated through the Jungian personality types The Myers Briggs Indicator has been the instrument employed in these programs for helping participants to identify their types From image to likeness: a Jungian path in the gospel journey

William Harold Grant, 1983 Projection and Personality Development via the Eight-Function Model Carol Shumate, 2021-01-25 Jung considered personality development critical for the survival of the human race not just for personal fulfillment but how can personality be developed Carol Shumate shows how John Beebe's revolutionary eight function eight archetype model of personality type can be applied to guide development for each of the sixteen Myers Briggs types making explicit the implications of Jung's eight function model Based on reports from participants at Beebe's workshops and using examples of historic figures like Abraham Lincoln this is the first book to detail how the unconscious aspects of the functions tend to manifest for each type Projection and Personality Development via the Eight Function Model can assist readers in realizing the transformation that Jung himself experienced It will be key reading for Jungian analysts and psychotherapists academics and scholars of Jungian and post Jungian studies and practitioners of psychological type The Handbook of Jungian Psychology Renos K. Papadopoulos, 2012-10-12 The field of Jungian psychology has been growing steadily over the last twenty years and awareness is increasing of its relevance to the predicaments of modern life Jung appeals not only to professionals who are looking for a more humane and creative way of working with their clients but also to academics in an increasingly wide range of disciplines This Handbook is unique in presenting a clear comprehensive and systematic exposition of the central tenets of Jung's work which has something to offer to both specialists and those seeking an introduction to the subject Internationally recognised experts in Jungian Psychology cover the central themes in three sections Theory Psychotherapy Applications Each chapter begins with an introduction locating the topic in the context of Jung's work as a whole before moving on to an investigation of contemporary developments and concluding by demonstrating how Jung's theories continue to evolve and develop through their practical therapeutic applications The Handbook of Jungian Psychology is the definitive source of authoritative information on Jungian psychology for Jungian analysts psychotherapists counsellors and related professionals It will be an invaluable aid to those involved in Jungian academic studies and related disciplines Jungian Psychology in Perspective Mary Ann Mattoon, 1985 John Warwick Montgomery's Legal Apologetic Ross Clifford, 2016-01-22 Dr Montgomery is one of our leading Christian apologists His writings have influenced several generations of apologists from around the globe His debates are legendary This book purports to break new ground apologetically as it assesses Dr Montgomery's work It focuses on his legal historical apologetic and in the process reframes it for both the tough minded and the tender hearted It shows not only the rationality of Montgomery's work but also that his writings pave the way for an apologetic to New Age followers and to those who place experience before reason. A special feature of this analysis concerns Montgomery's apologetic insights on the occult and paganism. This book also breaks new ground as the legal apologetic model has not been previously assessed; it illustrates that a juridical apologetic style has a rich history dating back to the Gospels themselves. The present work should thus be of particular interest to apologists, theologians, philosophers of religion, pastors, and all who are concerned to share the legal historical fact of the Resurrection of Jesus together with its relevance in a secular age.

Energies and Patterns in Psychological Type John Beebe, 2016-06-17

This book encapsulates John Beebe's influential work on the analytical psychology of consciousness. Building on C. G. Jung's theory of psychological types and on subsequent clarifications by Marie Louise von Franz and Isabel Briggs Myers, Beebe demonstrates the bond between the eight types of consciousness Jung named and the archetypal complexes that impart energy and purpose to our emotions, fantasies, and dreams. For this collection, Beebe has revised and updated his most influential and significant previously published papers and has introduced in a brand new chapter a surprising theory of type and culture. Beebe's model enables readers to take what they already know about psychological types and apply it to depth psychology. The insights contained in the fifteen chapters of this book will be especially valuable for Jungian psychotherapists, post-Jungian academics and scholars, psychological type practitioners, and type enthusiasts.

Seasons of Love Eleanor Sampeck, 2004

Twenty-five years ago, an extended family made a return-to-nature move to the country. This magical book is the record of their struggles and growth. The book achieves its vividly realistic tone by covering the family's lived experience from joy to sorrow, life and death, and lofty to such mundane details as manure for the garden. Its pages are populated by four generations, unusual in a time when the nuclear family is everything. Although the work is supported by sound theological and psychological theory, it never lingers too long in these realms but continues the daily drama of one family's risky living of the gospel.

Personality, Religion, and Leadership, Christopher F. J. Ross, Leslie J. Francis, 2019-10-28

In Personality, Religion, and Leadership, Christopher F. J. Ross and Leslie J. Francis illustrate how Jungian archetypes can help religious leaders understand and deal with their personal spiritual journeys in times of stress and success and build strong religious communities that contain a diverse array of psychological types.

Cinematic Projections Luke Hockley, 2001

An introduction to the world of post-Jungian film studies, this book redresses the dominance of Freudian theories of cinema and guides individuals through the intricacies of Jungian thought. In so doing, it provides the basis on which to construct a contemporary theory of cinema. Drawing on research into detective films and the myths of detection, Hockley weaves together psychological analysis with textual interpretation. The resulting hypothesis suggests that watching films is an intensely personal experience in which viewers, according to individual needs and desires, project and identify with films and their characters.

Pastor as Person Gary L. Harbaugh, 1984

Harbaugh captures your interest with dramatic stories of the inner lives of working pastors, weaving these stories into patterns of meaning from his own reflection and research. An excellent study guide for the individual pastor the pastor's support group or the seminary class that really wants to come to grips with the dilemmas of being a person who is also a pastor

Journeys Into Emptiness Robert Jingen Gunn, 2000 Journeys into Emptiness traces the lives of three famous religious seekers and their quests for personal transcendence Dogen a thirteenth century Japanese Zen master experienced emptiness in wordless meditation the practice of zazen that spread in time from the Eastern world to the West Thomas Merton was a twentieth century Catholic monk whose experience of personal homelessness brought him to explore the tension that lies between solitude and community Carl Jung raised by a pious father and a psychologically unbalanced mother was driven to understand the structure of the psyche including the male and female elements that exist in every human person Robert Jingen Guinn provides wise and compassionate portraits of these emblematic figures Each of them in his own way had to experience emptiness going beyond consciousness to discover his own personal truth whether that was rooted in Buddha nature God or the unconscious This going beyond became a path to encountering their own unique selves and a deeper sense of life
