From Memphis Peking Poems:

From Memphis & Peking; Poems Barbara Chase-Riboud, 1974 From Memphis and Peking Barbara Chase-Riboud, 1974 The Columbia Guide to Contemporary African American Fiction Darryl Dickson-Carr, 2005-12-06 In both the literal and metaphorical senses it seemed as if 1970s America was running out of gas. The decade not only witnessed long lines at gas stations but a citizenry that had grown weary and disillusioned. High unemployment, runaway inflation, and the energy crisis caused in part by U.S. dependence on Arab oil characterized an increasingly bleak economic situation. As Edward D. Berkowitz demonstrates, the end of the postwar economic boom, Watergate, and defeat in Vietnam led to an unraveling of the national consensus. During the decade, ideas about the United States, how it should be governed, and how its economy should be managed changed dramatically. Berkowitz argues that the postwar faith in sweeping social programs and a global U.S. mission was replaced by a more skeptical attitude about government's ability to positively affect society. From Woody Allen to Watergate, from the decline of the steel industry to the rise of Bill Gates, and from Saturday Night Fever to the Sunday morning fervor of evangelical preachers, Berkowitz captures the history, tone, and spirit of the seventies. He explores the decade's major political events and movements, including the rise and fall of détente, congressional reform, changes in healthcare policies, and the hostage crisis in Iran. The seventies also gave birth to several social movements and the rights revolution, in which women, gays, and lesbians, and people with disabilities all successfully fought for greater legal and social recognition. At the same time, reaction to these social movements, as well as the issue of abortion, introduced a new facet into American political life. The rise of powerful, politically conservative religious organizations and activists, Berkowitz also considers important shifts in American popular culture, recounting the creative renaissance in American film, as well as the birth of the Hollywood blockbuster. He discusses how television programs such as All in the Family and Charlie's Angels offered Americans both a reflection of and an escape from the problems gripping the country.

Black Writers Abroad Robert Coles, 2018-10-26 Originally published in 1999, Black Writers Abroad puts forward the theory that African American literature was born partially within the context of a people and its writers who lived for the most part in slavery and bondage prior to the Civil War. It is an in-depth study of black American writers who left the United States as expatriates. The book discusses the people that left, where they went, why they left, and why they did or did not return from the nineteenth century to the twentieth century. It seeks to explain the impact exile had upon these authors' literary work and careers, as well as upon African American literary history.

Prism International ,1974 Everytime a Knot is Undone, a God is Released Barbara Chase-Riboud,2015-02-10

The long breath of Barbara Chase Riboud s poems recalls poets of the antique world we know only from fragments like Sappho And yet here is a disquieting and sumptuous contemporary voice that seems to gather up antiquity and modernity with equal fervor and scorn These poems are sexually charged possessed of a courtly disdain and a strange nobility that seems to well up from below to be self creating and unlike the verse of any other poet writing today Certainly one secret to this work is that Chase Riboud s poems are informed by her epic polished bronze sculptures as her sculptures are informed by her narrative fiction and her fiction by her poems The idea of the Renaissance Man is almost a cliché but how often do we get to see what it means for an artist to be a Renaissance Woman Chase Riboud has been a major in sculpture fiction and poetry for close to half a century selling over a million copies of her path breaking novel Sally Hemings in the late 70s winning the Carl Sandburg Award for her second collection of poems in the late 80s and now nearly thirty years later on the heels of a major retrospective of her sculpture at the Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Berkeley Art Museum here is Everytime a Knot is Undone a God is Released her first new and collected volume of verse Who's who Among Black Americans ,1994 I Always Knew Barbara Chase-Riboud,2022-10-04 The extraordinary life story of the celebrated artist and writer as told through four decades of intimate letters to her beloved mother Barbara Chase Riboud has led a remarkable life After graduating from Yale s School of Design and Architecture she moved to Europe and spent decades traveling the world and living at the center of artistic literary and political circles She became a renowned artist whose work is now in museum collections around the world Later she also became an award winning poet and bestselling novelist And along the way she met many luminaries from Henri Cartier Bresson Salvador Dalí Alexander Calder James Baldwin and Mao Zedong to Toni Morrison Pierre Cardin Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and Josephine Baker I Always Knew is an intimate and vivid portrait of Chase Riboud s life as told through the letters she wrote to her mother Vivian Mae between 1957 and 1991 In candid detail Chase Riboud tells her mother about her life in Europe her work as an artist her romances and her journeys around the world from Western and Eastern Europe to the Middle East Africa the Soviet Union China and Mongolia By turns brilliant and naïve passionate and tender poignant and funny these letters show Chase Riboud in the process of becoming who she is and who she might become But what emerges most of all is the powerful story of a unique and remarkable relationship between a talented ambitious and courageous daughter and her adored mother Conversations with Biographical Novelists Michael Lackey,2018-10-18 How does a writer approach a novel about a real person In this new collection of interviews authors such as Emma Donoghue David Ebershoff David Lodge Colum McCann Colm Tóibín and Olga Tokarczuk
