William Faulkner for example use oral storytelling in the 1930s to examine the fear of racial mixing Ellen Douglas and Ernest Gaines use it in the 1970s to build bridges between the races Exploring the cultural crossing that occurs in the use of oral storytelling Ford offers a different view of this common strategy in southern narrative and a new perspective on how culture Critical Race Theory Richard Delgado, Jean Stefancic, 2000 This tightly edited volume contains the finest highly accessible articles in the fast growing legal genre of critical race theory a field which is changing the way this nation looks at race challenging orthodoxy questioning the premises of liberalism and debating sacred wisdoms Including treatments of two new exciting topics Critical Race Feminism and Critical White Studies this volume is truly on the cutting edge Questions for discussion and reading suggestions after each part make this volume essential for those interested in law the multiculturalism movement political science and critical thought In this wide ranging second edition Richard Delgado and Jean Stefancic bring together the finest most illustrative and highly accessible articles in the fast growing legal genre of Critical Race Theory In challenging orthodoxy questioning the premises of liberalism and debating sacred wisdoms Critical Race Theory scholars writing over the past few years have indelibly changed the way America looks at race This edition contains treatment of all the topics covered in the first edition along with provocative and probing questions for discussion and detailed suggestions for additional reading all of which set this fine volume apart from the field In addition this edition contains five new substantive units crime critical race practice intergroup tensions and alliances gay lesbian issues and transcending the black white binary paradigm of race In each of these areas groundbreaking scholarship by the movement s founding figures as well as the brightest new stars provides immediate entry to current trends and developments in critical civil rights thought Author note Richard Delgado Jean Lindsley Professor of Law at the University of Colorado at Boulder is one of the founding members of the Conference on Critical Race Theory Winner of the Association of American Law Schools 1995 Clyde Ferguson Award for outstanding law professor of color he is the author of over 100 articles in the law review literature on civil rights and of several books including Failed Revolutions Words that Wound and The Rodrigo Chronicles Jean Stefancic Research Associate in Law at the University of Colorado is the author of leading articles and books on Critical Race Theory Latino a scholarship and social change including No Mercy How Conservative Think Tanks and Foundations Changed America s Social Agenda Temple Storytelling for Social Justice Lee Anne Bell, 2019-08-28 Through accessible language and candid discussions Storytelling for Social Justice explores the stories we tell ourselves and each other about race and racism in our society Making sense of the racial constructions expressed through the language and images we encounter every day this book provides strategies for developing a more critical understanding of how racism operates culturally and institutionally in our society Using the arts in general and storytelling in particular the book examines ways to teach and learn about race by creating counter storytelling communities that can promote more critical and thoughtful dialogue about racism and the remedies necessary to dismantle it in our institutions and interactions Illustrated throughout with examples drawn from contemporary movements for change high school and college classrooms community building and professional development programs the book provides tools for examining racism as well as other issues of social justice For every facilitator and educator who has struggled with how to get the conversation on race going or who has suffered through silences and antagonism the innovative model presented in this book offers a practical and critical framework for thinking about and acting on stories about racism and other forms of injustice This new edition includes Social science examples in addition to the arts for elucidating the storytelling model Short essays by users that illustrate some of the ways the storytelling model has been used in teaching training community building and activism Updated examples references and MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,2007 resources Becoming a Racially Sensitive Therapist: Race and Clinical Practice Kenneth V. Hardy, 2025-05-06 Transform your clinical practice by transforming yourself Claims of color blindness and the insistence that all clients are essentially the same have contributed to a dearth of knowledge and understanding regarding the delivery of racially sensitive treatment For many clinicians addressing issues of race in therapy mirrors the same discomfort that permeates most of our efforts to discuss it outside of treatment Yet providing racially sensitive therapy as well as possessing the clinical acumen to address complex issues of race and culture is vital to competent contemporary practice. The volume is organized into three fundamental sections with contributions from mental health experts who have done the work to unlearn systemic biases about race and therapy The first section introduces the concept of a racially sensitive therapist and what it means to become one The second section focuses on cultural and racial storytelling to help uncover unknown parts of oneself and emphasizes racial self examination self interrogation and personal transformation And the final section transports the reader from seeing and being to doing with racially informed intervention methods A monumental undertaking this book is an essential step for healers and caregivers to reframe the therapy process for all clients Contributors include Lane Arye Vanessa Bing Toby Bobes Bonnie Cushing Elana Katz Niketa Kumar Sharon RC Lee Gloria Lopez Henriquez Yasmeen Rubidge and Virginia Seewaldt
