National Urban Recreation Study: Technical report 13 ,1978      A Guide to Information Sources in the Geographical Sciences Stephen Goddard,1983-01-01 Geography is a wide ranging discipline and the number of information sources available is truly enormous These include printed books and journal articles maps satellite photographs archives statistical information and much else One particular problem facing geographers is that when one studies a foreign country information may be available only in the foreign country and difficult to obtain This book discusses the information sources available to geographers      The Face of Social Suffering Merrill Singer,2005-11-16 This brief compelling life story of a drug addict poses and answers questions of broad public concern about social responsibility illicit drug use hidden economies and social inequality Merrill Singer a medical anthropologist involved in the public health impact of alcohol and illicit drug use conducted interviews over a seven year period with Tony a street drug addict who grew up in the inner city Tony learned the ways of using and selling drugs from his father became an enforcer in a street gang spent considerable time in prison committed seemingly heartless violent acts and has had to struggle with the knowledge that he suffers from HIV infection Tonys life story is an insider personal view of a tumultuous marginalized world that intertwines closely with the wider social milieu constructed and sustained by the U S political economy Unique to this book is its attempt to understand the forces that contribute to the risky behavior of drug use even at a time when drug users know about its deadly and damaging connection to diseases like HIV and hepatitis Tonys story demonstrates that none of us make choices in a vacuum Further the book addresses important issues about how structures of social inequality in our society impact the lives and options of those at the bottom of the social ladder      Technical report 13 United States.
