From Goya To Gauguin:

The Nineteenth Century Maurice Raynal, 1951      New sources of emotion from Goya to Gauguin Maurice Raynal, 1951      The Big Seven Jim Harrison, 2015-02-03 From the New York Times bestselling author of The Great Leader and Legends of the Fall a retired detective confronts the sins of man in rural Michigan In The Great Leader Mark Twain Award winning author Jim Harrison introduced readers to the hard drinking nearly retired Detective Sunderson In this darkly comic follow up Sunderson takes stock of his past while his outlaw neighbors bring new havoc to his doorstep To flee his troubles Detective Sunderson buys a hunting cabin in a remote area of Michigan s Upper Peninsula But with neighbors like the Ames family there is no peace to be found Armed to the teeth the Ameses have local law enforcement too intimidated to take them on Then Sunderson s cleaning lady a comely young Ames woman is murdered and black sheep brother Lemuel Ames seeks Sunderson s advice on a crime novel he s writing which may not be fiction In a story shot through with wit bedlam and Sunderson s contemplation of the seven deadly sins The Big Seven is a superb reminder of why Jim Harrison is one of the finest writers of the past half century The Washington Times      The Nineteenth Century. New Sources of Emotion from Goya to Gauguin ... Translated by James Emmons. [With Reproductions.], 1951      The great centuries of painting Maurice Raynal,      Writing and Filming the Painting Laura M. Sager Eidt, 2008 This innovative interdisciplinary study compares the uses of painting in literary texts and films In developing a framework of four types of ekphrasis the author argues for the expansion of the concept of ekphrasis by demonstrating its applicability as interpretive tool to films about the visual arts and artists Analyzing selected works of art by Goya Rembrandt and Vermeer and their ekphrastic treatment in various texts and films this book examines how the medium of ekphrasis affects the representation of the visual arts in order to show what the differences imply about issues such as gender roles and the function of art for the construction of a personal or social identity Because of its highly cross disciplinary nature this book is of interest not only to scholars of literature and aesthetics but also for scholars of film studies By providing an innovative approach to discussing non documentary films about artists the author shows that ekphrasis is a useful tool for exploring both aesthetic concerns and ideological issues in film This study also addresses art historians as it deals with the reception of major artists in European literature and film throughout the 20th century      Painting in the Nineteenth Century Maurice Raynal,      A Sourcebook of Gauguin's Symbolist Followers Russell T. Clement, Annick Houzé, Christiane Erbolato-Ramsey, 2004-06-30 Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 played a seminal role in Post Impressionist France In his writings and work he favored emotional responses to nature over intellectual uses of lines color and composition In 1888 he and Emile Bernard developed a new style called Synthetism Three groups of Gauguin s symbolist followers Pont Aven Les Nabis and Rose Croix pursued and extended the Synthetist vision This sourcebook focuses on the most prominent adherents of the three schools directly affected by

Gauguin's symbolism This is the first comprehensive single volume guide and bibliography of artists in these three important French avant garde movements This work covers the entire careers of 16 artists by providing biographical sketches chronologies citations to primary and secondary literature and exhibitions
