From a College Window (Classic Reprint) Arthur Christopher Benson, 2017-12-20 Excerpt from From a College Window Let me speak then plainly Of what that life has been and tell what my point Of View is I was brought up on ordinary English lines My father in a busy life held a series Of what may be called high Official positions He was an idealist who owing to a vigorous power Of practical organisation and a mastery Of detail was essentially a man Of affairs Yet he contrived to be a student too Thus owing to the fact that he Often shifted his headquarters I have seen a good deal Of general society in several parts Of England Moreover I was brought up in a distinctly intellectual atmosphere About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works a must read for students educators and anyone who cherishes the beauty of reflective thought From a College Window Arthur Benson,2014-12-02 I have lately come to perceive that the one thing which gives value to any piece of art whether it be book or picture or music is that subtle and evasive thing which is called personality No amount of labour of zest even of accomplishment can make up for the absence of this quality It must be an almost wholly instinctive thing I believe Of course the mere presence of personality in a work of art is not sufficient because the personality revealed may be lacking in charm and charm again is an instinctive thing No artist can set out to capture charm he will toil all the night and take nothing but what every artist can and must aim at is to have a perfectly sincere point of view He must take his chance as to whether his point of view is an attractive one but sincerity is the one indispensable thing It is useless to take opinions on trust to retail them to adopt them they must be formed created truly felt The work of a sincere artist is almost certain to have some value the work of an insincere artist is of its very nature worthless *D.
