Rhetoric of Revolt Peter A. DeCaro, 2003-02-28 The success of Vietnam's August Revolution of 1945 can be attributed in part to Ho Chi Minh's reconstitutive rhetoric a form of rhetorical discourse that gave the Vietnamese people a new sense of identification This reawakened identity in turn influenced a renewed demand for nationalism and independence This study explores the reconstitutive rhetoric of Ho Chi Minh In doing so it advances rhetorical theory founded on nonWestern premises and examines the cultural differences responsible for creating a rhetoric whose focus is nonEurocentric Most current thinking on reconstitutive discourse has focused on Western premises Decaro challenges some of these premises and adds a new dimension to reconstitutive understanding Ho Chi Minh utilized the cultural heritage of the Vietnamese people as a means of creating his persona a powerful aspect of his ability to persuade In understanding Ho Chi Minh's unique form of discourse it is then possible to see how he was able to unify his country in order to sustain a protracted conflict with the goal of securing national independence

From Colonialism to International Aid Carina Schmitt, 2020-06-29 This open access volume addresses the role of external actors in social protection in the Global South from the Second World War until today analysing the influence of colonial powers superpowers during the Cold War and contemporary donor agencies Following an introduction to the analysis of external actors in social policy making in the Global South the contributions explore which external actors were dominant in the decades after World War II and how they shaped early and contemporary social protection making in developing countries The latter half of the collection elucidates important players in the contemporary transnational social policy arena such as donor organizations and international organizations and critically evaluates the potential for and limits of the explanatory power of external actors in social protection making in the Global South considering the relative contribution of external and domestic influences By examining how transnational relationships and external actors have influenced the formation development and transformation of social policies in the developing world this collection will be an invaluable resource for scholars interested in social protection in the Global South from a range of disciplines These include political science social policy and sociology as well as historians of the welfare state international relations scholars and scholars working on global and transnational social policy and development policy

Kautsky on Colonialism Mike Macnair, 2013-02-21 The approach of the majority of the left on imperialism is drawn from Lenin's Imperialism the highest stage of capitalism and the conclusions drawn from this by the Communist International i.e. unequivocal hostility to imperialist wars and critical support for nationalism in the subordinated countries even where this takes unattractive forms like Ba'athism or Islamism A small minority has criticised this line as anti democratic or even pro fascist arguing either for support for the War on terror or for non opposition to it Both sides of this argument rest on a myth that in the past there was a non imperialist capitalism The origins of this myth can be traced back to Karl Kautsky s 1898 articles on colonialism This book publishes these with an introduction exploring the articles and their legacy The aim is to expose the rotten foundations of the myth and to help the left escape from the political traps of both pro nationalist anti imperialism and Yankee philiac anti anti imperialism Prelude to Disaster Weldon Amzy Brown,1975 Examining world affairs from the bombing of Pearl Harbor to the drafting of the Tonkin Resolution the author examines anti communist fervor

Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1964 The Shadow of Colonialism on Europe's Modern Past R. Healy,E. Dal Lago,Enrico Dal Lago,2014-10-28 Through a range of case studies from eastern and western Europe this book breaks new ground in investigating the extent to which European peoples living within Europe were also subjected to the ideologies and practices of colonialism Building Socialism, Constructing People Andrada Fatu-Tutoveanu,2014-11-19 This volume focuses on the issue of identity within the context of the radical shift that took place in Romania during the late 1940s and early 1950s as a result of the process of Sovietisation or cultural colonisation a concept analysed in particular detail in this book It adopts a novel approach to this theme by studying the issue of identity within the context of the first decade of the Romanian communist regime with the help of a series of concepts and theories belonging to the disciplines of Western cultural media and gender studies as well as those relating to colonialism and imperialism Of particular interest to this volume is the use of the press as an essential instrument for Romanian propaganda in terms of spreading as well as controlling the new set of politically established identity patterns As such the press provides one of the most relevant environments for the analysis of the major cultural social and political identity shifts that took place in Romania during the late 1940s and the 1950s The book follows the evolution deconstruction and reconstruction of identity at both the micro and macro levels focusing on some of the most significant identity pattern constructs in terms of reconfiguring cultural identities The volume consists of a series of theoretical as well as cultural press analyses and case studies based on a set of influential concepts and theories referring to identity media discourse and propaganda in association with newly introduced concepts such as cultural colonialism and cultural canon negotiation amongst others Reorientalism Nariman Skakov,2025-10-28 It is commonly believed that Stalinism ended a vibrant period in Soviet avant garde art and literature The triumph of socialist realism in this view curtailed experimentation with aesthetic form and replaced it with a call for clarity accessibility and ideological conformity But Stalin s formula national in form socialist in content gave artists an opening for officially sanctioned formal innovation as long as it drew on the national cultures of the Soviet Union Nariman Skakov offers a new way to understand Soviet modernism showing how writers and artists looked to the East to renew avant garde experimentalism under Stalin He traces how figures such as Victor Shklovsky Aleksandr Rodchenko Varvara Stepanova Dziga Vertov and Sergei Eisenstein responded to the Soviet state s ideological demands by engaging with the traditions of the new socialist republics in Central Asia The concept of national form gave these artists a sanctuary for aesthetic innovation yet this experimentation relied on exoticization of the strangeness of the Soviet East and a fascination with ethnic others Recasting Soviet aesthetics from the vantage point of Central Asia Skakov rethinks orientalism and its relationship to socialism Challenging conventional narratives of the fate of the Soviet avant garde Reorientalism provides a deeply original decentering of modernism

Marxism's Retreat from Africa Arnold Hughes, 2015-04-24 The collapse of Marxism in much of the Third World as well as Europe was so sudden and spectacular that it is hard to believe that in the space of seven years The Journal of Communist Studies could bring out special issues both on the creation of Military Marxist Regimes in Africa and on their demise and the wider collapse of Marxist governments on the continent This volume first published in 1992 derives from a roundtable on the theme of The Retreat from Moscow African and Eastern European Experiences of Disengagement from Marxism held at the University of Birmingham in September 1991 The conference examined the recent experiences of African countries in transition from Marxism and Marxist influenced ideologies to an uncertain future based on the market economy and a plural political system The NAEP ... Technical Report ,1960 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1961 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 German Colonialism Volker Max Langbehn, Mohammad Salama, 2011 Mohammad Salama teaches Arabic in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures at San Francisco State University Book Jacket The Oxford Handbook of European History, 1914-1945 Nicholas Doumanis, 2016-05-05 The period spanning the two World Wars was unquestionably the most catastrophic in Europe s history Despite such undeniably progressive developments as the radical expansion of women s suffrage and rising health standards the era was dominated by political violence and chronic instability Its symbols were Verdun Guernica and Auschwitz By the end of this dark period tens of millions of Europeans had been killed and more still had been displaced and permanently traumatized If the nineteenth century gave Europeans cause to regard the future with a sense of optimism the early twentieth century had them anticipating the destruction of civilization The fact that so many revolutions regime changes dictatorships mass killings and civil wars took place within such a compressed time frame suggests that Europe experienced a general crisis The Oxford Handbook of European History 1914 1945 reconsiders the most significant features of this calamitous age from a transnational perspective It demonstrates the degree to which national experiences were intertwined with those of other nations and how each crisis was implicated in wider regional continental and global developments Readers will find innovative and stimulating chapters on various political social and economic subjects by some of the leading scholars working on modern European history today Postcolonial Europe? Essays on Post-Communist Literatures and Cultures

,2015-07-28 This collective monograph analyzes post 1989 Central and Eastern Europe through the paradigm of postcoloniality Based on the assumption that both Western and Soviet imperialism emerged from European modernity the book is a contribution to the development of a global postcolonial discourse based on a more extensive and nuanced geohistorical comparativism It suggests that the inclusion of East Central Europe in European identity might help resolve postcolonialism s difficulties in coming to terms with both postcolonial and neo colonial dimensions of contemporary Europe Analyzing post communist identity reconstructions under the impact of transformative political economic and cultural experiences such as changes in perception of time and space landscapes cityscapes migration and displacement collective memory and trauma objectifying gaze cultural self colonization and language as a form of power the book facilitates a mutually productive dialogue between postcolonialism and post communism Together the studies map the rich terrain of contemporary East Central European creative writing and visual art the latter highlighted through accompanying illustrations

The Palgrave Handbook of Anti-Communist Persecutions Christian Gerlach,Clemens Six,2020-12-07 This handbook explores anti communism as an overarching phenomenon of twentieth century global history showing how anti communist policies and practices transformed societies around the world It advances research on anti communism by looking beyond ideologies and propaganda to uncover how these ideas were put into practice Case studies examine the role of states and non state actors in anti communist persecutions and cover a range of topics including social crises capitalist accumulation and dispossession political clientelism and warfare Through its comparative perspective the handbook reveals striking similarities between different cases from various world regions and highlights the numerous long term consequences of anti communism that exceeded by far the struggle against communism in a narrow sense Contributing to the growing body of work on the social history of mass violence this volume is an essential resource for students and scholars interested to understand how twentieth century anti communist persecutions have shaped societies around the world today Chapter 7 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com

Cultural Studies Approaches in the Study of Eastern European Cinema Andrea Virginás,2017-01-06 The spatial the bodily and the memory turn in the humanities and cultural studies are well canonized developments These features of our being in the world are fundamental in the medium of cinema which is an art of spaces bodies and memories increasingly so today when the analogue platform has been running parallel with the digitalized method of filmmaking The three nodal concepts define the tripartite structure of this volume composed of an overview study and twelve case studies of post 1989 Eastern European film and cinema The overarching questions of space representation and construction bodies on screen issues of national identification in a postcolonial framework and cinema as a form of cultural memory are explored through the lens of specific national cinemas or contemporary Croatian Hungarian Polish Serbian Slovakian Slovenian and Romanian films In addition to investigating the cohesive forces that mark the postcommunist Eastern European region as a coherent cultural entity in its cinematic representations the volume also stands as a witness to the importance of transnational approaches
