

Chink

I dare not move before our baby wakes in case we lose these last moments of doze.
You have your morning tic, a click-jaw loud enough to wake even the daws that nest in our bedroom chimney stack. The room shrinks to your impending clack and my full nose, waiting for a sneeze. We're fixed, long enough to look once at each other, each a sleep-drooled, chosen lover.
Our toes graze, by accident we think, a touch we will not gauge till later. I break, reach for a tissue, notice that we have open peepers.
This, the first time she wakes without a cry.
She has become the keeper of our gaze, her look, where we begin and end our days.
