From Hawthorne To Hofmann Provincetown Vignettes 1899 1945:

From Hawthorne to Hofmann ,2003-01-01 Hans Hofmann Lucinda Barnes,2019-02-22 Hans Hofmann The Nature of Abstraction offers a fresh and revealing assessment of the artist s prolific and innovative painterly career The comprehensive exhibition and accompanying catalogue will feature approximately seventy paintings and works on paper by Hofmann from 1930 through the end of his life in 1966 including works from public and private collections across North America and Europe Curator Lucinda Barnes builds on new scholarship published over the past ten years and the 2014 catalogue raisonné to present Hofmann as a unique synthesis of student artist teacher and mentor who transcended generations and continents His singular artistic achievement drew on artistic influences and innovations that spanned two world wars and transatlantic avant gardes Over the last fifty years Hofmann has come to be understood primarily from the vantage of his late color plane abstractions Hans Hofmann The Nature of Abstraction expands our understanding and reinvigorates our appreciation of Hofmann through an inclusive presentation of his artistic arc showing the vibrant interconnectedness and continuity in his work of European and American influences from the early twentieth century through the advent of abstract expressionism Exhibition dates Berkeley Museum of Art Pacific Film Archive BAMPFA February 27 July 21 2019 The Peabody Essex Museum Salem MA September 21 2019 January 6 2020 Little Art Colony and US Modernism Gano Geneva M. Gano,2020-08-18 Explores the little art communities and their aesthetic products in the early twentieth centuryHistoricizes and theorizes the role and function of the little art community as a geo social formationComparative place based study of three semiperipheral non metropolitan sites New readings of major authors Jeffers O Neill and LawrenceInterdisciplinary methodology based in primary source analysisChallenges a center periphery model of modernist activity and literary aesthetic production and instead emphasizes a network based collaborative modelThis book is first to historicise and theorise the significance of the early twentieth century little art colony as a uniquely modern social formation within a global network of modernist activity and production Alongside a historical overview of the emergence of three critical sites of modernist activity the little art colonies of Carmel Provincetown and Taos the book offers new critical readings of major authors associated with those places Robinson Jeffers Eugene O Neill and D H Lawrence Geneva M Gano tracks the radical thought and aesthetic innovation that emerged from these villages revealing a surprisingly dynamic circulation of persons objects and ideas between the country and the city and producing modernisms that were cosmopolitan in character yet also site specific Hans Hofmann Dawn V. Rogala,2016-08-01 The career of the German American painter and educator Hans Hofmann 1880 1966 describes the arc of artistic modernism from pre World War I Munich and Paris to mid twentieth century Greenwich Village His career also traces the transatlantic engagement of modern painting with the materials of its own making a relationship that is perhaps still not completely understood In these interrelated narratives Hofmann is a central protagonist providing a vital link between nineteenth and twentieth century art practice and between European and American modernism The remarkable vitality of his later work affords insight not only into the style but also the literal substance of this formative period of artistic and material innovation This richly illustrated book the fourth in the Getty Conservation Institute's Artist's Materials series presents a thorough examination of Hofmann's late career materials Initial chapters present an informative overview of Hofmann's life and work in Europe and America and discuss his crucial role in the development of Abstract Expressionism Subsequent chapters present a detailed analysis of Hofmann's materials and techniques and explore the relationship of the artist's mature palette to shifts in the style and aging characteristics of his paintings The book concludes with lessons for the conservation of modernist paintings generally and particularly those that incorporate both traditional and modern paint media This book will be of value to conservators art historians conservation scientists and general readers with an interest in modern art

Edna Boies Hopkins Dominique H. Vasseur, 2007 Edna Boies Hopkins 1872-1937 is best known for her floral woodblock prints that range from delicate Japanese inspired stylizations to boldly colored and progressively modernist works In her brief twenty year career Hopkins produced seventy four known woodblock prints including figurative work and landscapes as well as floral compositions This catalogue raisonné is the first in depth study of this once well known American artist It illustrates all of Hopkins's known prints related drawings and studies Born in Hudson Michigan Hopkins attended the Art Academy of Cincinnati from 1895 to 1898 In 1899 she took classes with the influential artist Arthur Wesley Dow an advocate of Japanese art Following her marriage in 1904 Hopkins and her husband settled in Paris where they remained until the outbreak of World War I After returning to America Hopkins became part of a small group of artists in Provincetown whose innovations in woodblock printmaking have come to be known as the Provincetown print or the white line woodcut In 1917 a visit to the Cumberland Falls region of Kentucky provided the inspiration for some of Hopkins's most important prints which predate the work of American regionalist painters and printmakers by a decade or more In addition to the catalogue raisonné Edna Boies Hopkins includes much new biographical research along with a census of her prints and a comprehensive list of her exhibitions

The Indiana Dunes Revealed Frank V. Dudley, 2006 A native Midwesterner's timeless portrayals of a fragile sanctuary The Indiana Dunes Revealed offers the first comprehensive examination of a widely collected much loved and ecologically significant artist Described by art historian William Gerdts as one of the finest painters working in the Midwest in the first decades of the twentieth century Frank V Dudley 1868 1957 was a native of Wisconsin who studied at the Art Institute of Chicago before going on to establish a long exhibition record both there and across the country He also dedicated over forty years of his professional life as a landscape painter to the promotion and preservation the Indiana Dunes Today thanks in part to Dudley's efforts this unique geographical region enjoys state and federal protection and provides ecologists from around the world with a living laboratory unlike anything else The Indiana Dunes Revealed serves as the accompanying catalogue for the exhibition of Dudley's work showing from August 15 to November 30 2006 at the Brauer Museum of Art at Valparaiso University Featuring 150 color and 70 black and white images it celebrates Dudley's unique artistic legacy documents the exhibition and demonstrates the painter's importance to environmentalists and naturalists especially during the many years of national debate over the designation of parts of the dunes as a national park In some areas Dudley's painting may be the only record of a lost dunescape and as the struggle between development and preservation continues his enduring art reminds us of the need for a sustainable environment for the Great Lakes
