Race, Sexuality and Identity in Britain and Jamaica Gemma Romain, 2017-09-07 This is the first biography of the extraordinary but ordinary life of Patrick Nelson His experiences touched on some of the most important and intriguing historical themes of the twentieth century He was a black migrant to interwar Britain an aristocrat's valet in rural Wales a Black queer man in 1930s London an artist's model a law student a recruit to the Auxiliary Military Pioneer Corps and Prisoner of War during the Second World War Through his return to Jamaica after the war and his remigrations to London in the late 1940s and the early 1960s he was also witness to post war Jamaican struggles and the independence movement as well as the development of London's post war multi ethnic migrations

Drawing on a range of archival materials including letters sent to individuals such as Bloomsbury group artist Duncan Grant his former boyfriend and life long friend as well as paintings and newspaper articles Gemma Romain explores the intersections of these diverse aspects of Nelson s life and demonstrates how such marginalized histories shed light on our understanding of broader historical themes such as Black LGBTQ history Black British history in relation to the London artworld the history of the Second World War and histories of racism colonialism and empire Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1995-04-04 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya Black Experience and the Empire Philip D. Bélanger,2022-06-15 Memory while seemingly a thing of the past has much to reveal in the present With its focus on memory War and Remembrance provides new viewpoints in the field of war representation

Bringing an interdisciplinary approach to discussions of the cultural memory of war the collection focuses on narratives either fictional or testimonial that challenge ideological discourses of war The acts of remembrance and of waging war are constantly evolving A range of case studies analyzing representations of war in art film museums and literature from Nigeria Australia Sri Lanka Canada and beyond questions our current approaches to memory studies while offering reinterpretations of established narratives Throughout a commitment to Indigenous perspectives to examining the ongoing legacy of colonialism and to a continued reckoning with the Second World War foregrounds what is often forgotten in the writing of a single official history War and Remembrance invites readers to cast a reflexive look at wars and conflicts past some of them forgotten others still vividly commemorated the better to understand the cultural political and social stake of memory as a source of conflict and exchange of resistance and opposition and of negotiation and reconciliation
