From Matt Black to Memphis and Back Again Deyan Sudjic, 1990
Sifting the Trash Alice Twemlow, 2017-06-09 How product design criticism has rescued some products from the trash and consigned others to the landfill Product design criticism operates at the very brink of the landfill site salvaging some products with praise but consigning others to its depths through condemnation or indifference When a designed product's usefulness is past the public happily discards it to make room for the next new thing Criticism rarely deals with how a product might be used or not used over time it is more likely to play the enabler encouraging our addiction to consumption With Sifting the Trash Alice Twemlow offers an especially timely reexamination of the history of product design criticism through the metaphors and actualities of the product as imminent junk and the consumer as junkie Twemlow explores five key moments over the past sixty years of product design criticism From the mid 1950s through the 1960s for example critics including Reyner Banham Deborah Allen and Richard Hamilton wrote about the ways people actually used design and invented a new kind of criticism At the 1970 International Design Conference in Aspen environmental activists protested the design establishment's lack of political engagement In the 1980s left leaning cultural critics introduced ideology to British design criticism In the 1990s dueling London exhibits offered alternative views of contemporary design And in the early 2000s professional critics were challenged by energetic design bloggers Through the years Twemlow shows critics either sifted the trash and assigned value or attempted to detect diagnose and treat the sickness of a consumer society

Provocative Plastics Susan Lambert, 2021-01-07 Plastics have now been our most used materials for over fifty years This book adopts a new approach exploring plastics contribution from two perspectives as a medium for making and their value in societal use The first approach examines the multivalent nature of plastics materiality and their impact on creativity through the work of artists designers and manufacturers The second perspective explores attitudes to plastics and the different value systems applied to them through current research undertaken by design materials and socio cultural historians The book addresses the environmental impact of plastics and elucidates the ways in which they can and must be part of the solution The individual viewpoints are provocative and controversial but together they present a balanced and scholarly unpicking of the debate that surrounds this ubiquitous group of materials The book is essential reading for a wide academic readership interested in the Arts and Humanities especially Design and Design History Anthropology and Cultural Material and Social Histories
NATØ: Narrative Architecture in Postmodern London Claire Jamieson, 2017-01-20 Chronicling the last radical architectural group of the twentieth century NAT Narrative Architecture Today who emerged from the Architectural Association at the start of the 1980s this book explores the group's work which echoed a wider artistic and literary culture that drew on the specific political social and physical condition of 1980s London It traces NAT's identification with a particular stream of post punk postmodern expression a celebration of the abject an aesthetic of entropy and a do it yourself provisionality NAT has most often been documented in reference to Nigel Coates the instigator of NAT which has led to a one sided one dimensional record of NAT s place in architectural history This book sets out a more detailed contextual history of NAT told through photographs drawings and ephemera restoring a truer polyvocal narrative of the group s ethos and development

Cultural Seeds: Essays on the Work of Nick Cave Tanya Dalziel,Karen Welberry,2016-05-13 Nick Cave is now widely recognized as a songwriter musician novelist screenwriter curator critic actor and performer From the band The Boys Next Door 1976 1980 to the spoken word recording The Secret Life of the Love Song 1998 to the recently acclaimed screenplay of The Proposition 2005 and the Grinderman project 2008 Cave s career spans thirty years and has produced a comprehensive and sometimes controversial body of work that has shaped contemporary alternative culture Despite intense media interest in Cave there have been remarkably few comprehensive appraisals of his work its significance and its impact on understandings of popular culture In addressing this absence the present volume is both timely and necessary Cultural Seeds brings together an international range of scholars and practitioners each of whom is uniquely placed to comment on an aspect of Cave s career The essays collected here not only generate new ways of seeing and understanding Cave s contributions to contemporary culture but set up a dialogue between fields all too often separated in the academy and in the media Topics include Cave and the Presley myth the aberrant masculinity projected by The Birthday Party the postcolonial Australian ness of his humour his interventions in film and his erotics of the sacred These essays offer compelling insights and provocative arguments about the fluidity of contemporary artistic practice Bishop Charles H.
