Brotherton's Travels Greg Boyd, 2025-05-20 Equal parts travelogue cultural study and picaresque autobiography Brotherton's Travels is a probing and insightful book that challenges conventional perceptions Having lived and worked in the United States France Ecuador and Spain Greg Boyd brings a border crossing sensibility to his memoirs Raised and educated in upstate New York during the early 1960s then in the free wheeling culture of 70s Southern California Boyd's upbringing resulted in a highly developed sense of irony Whether telling the story of his mysterious Brotherton ancestors or describing his experiences in small press publishing teaching and the arts Boyd pulls back the curtain to reveal the absurdity hiding in plain sight Having left Paradise California prior to the conflagration that wiped it off the map he remembers a town that no longer exists Having grown up near the site of a series of nuclear accidents at the Santa Susana Research Laboratory in the city of Los Angeles he now lives in the Spanish town on which the U S Air Force once dropped a handful of nuclear warheads Whether describing conversations with a wandering peddler of psychedelics a body piercing expert or a victim of serial alien abductions or describing what it's like to catch a wave as a surfer teach classes in Taekwondo or be an expat Boyd's memoirs are full of the inventiveness and explosiveness critics have praised in his fiction The book concludes with Planet Hazmat an alternative autobiographical narrative that examines the effects of environmental and cultural toxicity production of the play Olderr's Fiction Index, 1990      Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1991      Revagations: 1966-1974 Eric Basso, 2006 Cultural Writing Biography and memoir Eric Basso began to record his dreams in 1966 at the age of nineteen REVAGATIONS is the first of three projected volumes In these pages we discover an unconscious life laid bare in a myriad of bizarre adventures and intrigues Whether he is dancing with Ginger Rogers buying secondhand books from Adolf Hitler or narrating the strange history of the mutant Bazillia Basso's imagery is always vivid direct sometimes poetic at other times hilariously funny and more often than not brazenly politically incorrect The first volume is preceded by Basso's diverting survey of the role played by dreams in art literature music and sciences      Understudies Marie Redonnet, 2005 Fiction Translated from the French by Jordan Stump Twelve little machines to make death and failure Redonnet calls the twelve characters or the twelve stories we find in this book and it's true every tale we find here tells the same story albeit in twelve different forms the story of a kind of erasure of disappearance and undoing owing to the characters' fatal need to make of themselves a copy of another From the translator's introduction Marie Redonnet has published five novels a book of stories and a book of poems Leaping Dog Press has released the poems and short stories in English translation for the first time Jordan Stump teaches at University of Nebraska Lincoln He has published three previous volumes of fiction by Marie Redonnet      Decompositions Eric Basso, 2006 Literary Criticism Art Criticism DECOMPOSITIONS collects Eric Basso's essay on art and literature in one volume In the pivotal essay Annihilation Basso takes a short story by a forgotten Hungarian writer as the springboard to a searing dissection of Rembrandt's alchemy Stephane Mallarmé Edgar Allan Poe and Rene Daumal closing with a new interpretation of Kafka's The Castle Eric Basso remains one of the most interesting writers in the country someone whose work does not fit conveniently into categories but whose poetry fiction and dramatic writing extend our sense of what terms like modernism and postmodernism mean Stephen Paul Martin      Burn & Learn, Or, Memoirs of the Cenozoic Era Eric Paul Shaffer, 2009 Burn Learn is a wild tale of five friends attending college drinking coffee at the Frontier Restaurant and learning the wisdom of the ages the era and the street in Albuquerque New Mexico This episodic novel begins where Laurence Sterne and Richard Brautigan left off introducing a truly amusing and alluring wilderness of words through which readers can blaze their own glorious trails The novel reveals all in thirteen modes ranging from mythology science fiction fables American koans Coyote tales BookMovie chapters missing lists realistic narrative encyclopedic entries enumerating the details of the Century of Technological Disaster a love story a lost love story and parables of four monkish brothers residing in a cabin on the Continental Divide The novel encompasses all time from the beginning to the end of the universe and examines everything through the brief flickering frames of 167 short chapters      The Railroad in American Fiction Grant Burns, 2015-01-28 Nothing better represented the early spirit of American expansion than the railroad Dominant in daily life as well as in the popular imagination the railroad appealed strongly to creative writers For many years fiction of railroad life and travel was plentiful and varied As the nineteenth century receded the railroad's allure faded as did railroad fiction. Today it is hard to sense what the railroad once meant to Americans. The fiction of the railroad often by railroaders themselves recaptures that sense and provides valuable insights on American cultural history. This extensively annotated bibliography lists and discusses in 956 entries novels and short stories from the 1840s to the present in which the railroad is important. Each entry includes plot and character description to help the reader make an informed decision on the source's merit. A detailed introduction discusses the history of railroad fiction and highlights common themes such as strikes, hoboes, and the roles of women and African Americans. Such writers of pure railroad fiction as Harry Bedwell, Frank Packard, and Cy Warman are well represented along with such literary artists as Mark Twain, Thomas Wolfe, Flannery O'Connor, and Ellen Glasgow. Work by minority writers including Jean Toomer, Richard Wright, Frank Chin, and Toni Morrison also receives close attention. An appendix organizes entries by decade of publication and the work is indexed by subject and title.

Friends Stephen Dixon, 1990. In the ten stories that comprise Friends, Dixon, a two-time National Book Award finalist for his novels Frog and Interstate, writes with his unusual flair, wit, and gentle irony. Through Will and Magna, characters he first introduced in his first collection Time To Go, Dixon offers many insights into the complexities and richness of human relationships.

American Writers Leonard Unger, 1974. The four-volume set consists of ninety-seven of the pamphlets originally published as the University of Minnesota pamphlets on American writers. Some have been revised and updated.

Here Lies David Gilbert, Karl Roesler, 2001. The premise of HERE LIES is that every story either features the telling of a lie or the presence of a liar. This collection of thematically linked short stories features the writing of 21 authors among them Etel Adnan, Lydia Davis, Gilbert Sorrentino, and Mac Wellman. Also included are stories by editors David Gilbert and Karl Roesler.
