History of Iranian Literature J. Rypka,2013-11-11 Some justification seems to be necessary for the addition of yet another History of Iranian Literature to the number of those already in existence Such a work must obviously contain as many novel features as possible so that a short explanation of what my collaborators and I had in mind when planning the book is perhaps not superfluous In the first place our object was to present a short summary of the material in all its aspects and secondly to review the subject from the chronological geo graphical and substantial standpoints all within the compass of a single volume Such a scheme precludes a formal and complete enumeration of names and phenom ena and renders all the greater the obligation to accord most prominence to matters deemed to be of greatest importance supplementing these with such figures and forms as will enable an impression to be gained of the period in question all this is far as possible in the light of the most recent discoveries A glance at the table of contents will suffice to give an idea of the multifarious approach that has been our aim We begin at the very first traces of evidence bearing on our subject and continue the narrative up to the present day Geographically the book embraces Iran and its neighbouring countries while it should be remarked that Iranian literature in its fullest sense also includes Indo Persian and Judeo Persian works Iranian and Diasporic Literature in the 21st Century Daniel Grassian,2013-02-18 The most populous Islamic country in the Middle East Iran is rife with contradictions in many ways caught between the culture and governments of the Western more dominant and arguably imperialist world and the ideology of conservative fundamentalist Islam This book explores the present day writings of authors who explore these oppositional forces often finding a middle course between the often brutal and demonizing rhetoric from both sides To combat how the West has falsely generalized and stereotyped Iran and how Iran has falsely generalized and stereotyped the West Iranian and diasporic writers deconstruct Western caricatures of Iran and Iranian caricatures of the West In so doing they provide especially valuable insights into life in Iran today and into life in the West for diasporic Iranians The Mystery of Contemporary Iran Mahnaz Shirali,2014-10-07 The mystery of how an Islamic dictatorship came to power remains more than thirty years after the Islamic Republic s inception in Iran The precise nature of a regime that calls itself both a republic and Islamic but is neither is little understood The ayatollahs unpopularity may have reached unprecedented heights but their power seems more secure Such paradoxes weigh heavily and judgments diverge While public opinion wonders how an archaic theocratic regime could survive so long some explain it in terms of Iran s continued modernization and the clergy s ability to reconcile itself with politics Understanding the modernization process propelled by the Constitutional Revolution is difficult and raises questions How and why could ideological Islam continue to dominate Iranian society since the late 1970s How did it gain power and influence and overcome the reforms molded by the Constitutional Revolution Mahnaz Shirali analyzes twentieth century Iranian history to understand the Shiite clergy s role in a modernized country s social and political organization She explains what enabled the clergy to take over prevailing political forces and gain control of the state Studying Iran s history for the past one hundred years reveals the force of a religious conservatism opposing political modernity repelling any attempt at democracy by Iranians thanks to its constant metamorphoses Shirali studies the curse of the Shiite clergy on political modernity It is a convincing in depth criticism of the ideological Islam imposed on Iran Perceptions of Iran Ali M. Ansari,2013-11-30 I B Tauris in association with the Iran Heritage Foundation From the Sasanian to the Safavid Empire and from Qajar Iran to the current Islamic Republic the history of Iran is one which has been coloured by a rich tradition of myths and narratives and shaped by its wealth of philosophers cultural theorists and political thinkers Perceptions of Iran dissects the construction of Iranian identity to reveal how nationalism has been continually re formulated and how Iran s self perception has been moulded by its literary past Here Ali M Ansari gathers together a varied and wide ranging account of the long history of Iranian encounters with the Western world whether via the observations of Herodotus or the knowledge via the Old Testament of Cyrus liberating the Jews from Babylon or into the modern era when nineteenth and twentieth century interactions reflect the unequal power relationship between Iran and the West Perceptions of Iran also explores the salient elements in the country's narrative which helped to form Iran's identity such as Ferdowsi's creation of the Shahnameh the national epic the exquisite architecture of Safavid Isfahan or the unfulfilled promise of the Constitutional Movement in the early twentieth century It offers analysis of the Qajar Shahs use of a mythical and dynastic past as they drew on the narratives of Jamshid's glory and Khusraw's splendour in order to legitimise their rule At the same time it examines the ways in which foreign travellers and diplomats understood and conceived of the royal courts of Safavid Persia As it covers 2 500 years of political and intellectual history Perceptions of Iran ties together the diverse threads of Iranian experience that have underpinned the country's social and cultural movements spanning Mirza Agha Khan Kermani's writing on Persian history and liberal nationalism through to the strident anti-Western discourses of Seyyed Jamal al-Afghani Jalal al-e Ahmad and Ayatollah Khomeini The book is therefore vital for researchers of Iranian history and those interested in the use of myth in the construction of national identity more widely

Arab-Iranian Relations Since the Arab Uprisings Mahjoob Zweiri, 2023-09-01 Unlike most writing on Arab-Iran relations which looks at specific episodes and specific countries this book taking a long-term view assesses the overall dynamics of the relationship discussing in particular how far religion or politics drives the relationship It argues that although Iran asserts that religion is a key factor underpinning a coherent approach to international relations in fact what turns out to be the key factor is the politics of particular circumstances and Iran's specific interests The book considers Iran's differing reactions to the Arab uprisings of 2011 onwards showing that while Iran supported the uprisings in some countries it sided with repressive governments in other countries The book also examines Iran's reaction to its own outbreak of popular discontent in 2009 which was controlled by what has been considered as severe repression and explores how Iran is viewed by ordinary people in different Arab countries Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license

Modern American Literature and Contemporary Iranian Cinema Morteza Yazdanjoo, 2022-12-29 As an endeavor to contribute to the burgeoning field of comparative literature this monograph addresses the dynamic yet understudied intertextual dialogism between modern American literature and contemporary Iranian Cinema pinpointing how the latter appropriates and recontextualizes instances of the former to construct and inculcate vestiges of national gender identity on the silver screen Drawing on Louis Montrose's catchphrase that Cultural Materialism foregrounds the textuality of history and the historicity of texts this book contends that literary texts are synchronic artifacts prone to myriad intertextual and extra textual readings and understandings each historically conditioned The recontextualization of Herzog Franny and Zooey The Glass Menagerie A Streetcar Named Desire and Death of a Salesman into contemporary Iran provides an intertextual avenue to delineate the textuality of history and the historicity of texts

Great Events in Religion Florin Curta, Andrew Holt, 2016-11-28 This three volume set presents fundamental information about the most important events in world religious history as well as substantive discussions of their significance and impact This work offers readers a broad and thorough look at the greatest events in world religious history covering a wide range of religions time periods and areas around the globe The entries present authoritative information and informed viewpoints written by expert contributors that enable readers to easily learn about the chief events in religious history help them to better understand the course of world history and promote a greater respect for culturally diverse religious traditions The first of the three volumes covers religion from the preliterate world through around AD 600 the second the post classical era from 600 to 1450 and the third the modern era from 1450 to the present Each volume begins with a substantive introduction that discusses the history of world religions during the period covered by the volume The chronologically ordered entries overview each event place it in historical context and identify the reasons for its enduring significance

America and Iran John Ghazvinian, 2021 A history of the relationship between Iran and America from the 1700s through the current day

Rome and Persia at War Peter Edwell, 2020-10-25 This book focuses on conflict diplomacy and religion as factors in the relationship between Rome and Sasanian Persia in the third and fourth centuries AD During this period military conflict between Rome and Sasanian Persia was at a level and depth not seen mostly during the Parthian period At the same time contact between the two empires increased markedly and contributed in part to an increased level of conflict Edwell examines both war and peace diplomacy trade and religious contact as the means through which these two powers competed and by which they sought to gain maintain and develop control of territories and peoples who were the source of dispute between the two empires The volume also analyses internal factors in both empires that influenced conflict and competition between them while the roles of regional powers such as the Armenians Palmyrenes and Arabs in conflict and contact between the two super powers receive special attention Using a broad array of sources this book gives special attention to the numismatic evidence as it has tended to be overshadowed in modern studies by the literary and epigraphic sources This is the first monograph in English to undertake an in depth and critical analysis of competition and contact between Rome and the early Sasanians in the Near East in the third and fourth centuries AD using literary archaeological numismatic and epigraphic evidence and one which includes the complete range of mechanisms by which the two powers competed It is an invaluable study for anyone working on Rome Persia and the wider Near East in Late Antiquity

Humanities, 1986 Identities in Crisis in Iran Ronen A. Cohen, 2015-03-18 Identities in Crisis in Iran aims at finding answers to the questions about the puzzling character of the Iranian identity The contributors acknowledge that identity especially when it is faced with fundamental tensions as in the case of Iran is a phenomenon that is constantly developing via factors involving the private self and common social components This book addresses the tension many Iranian people face that lie between the Persian culture and the Shi'a religion women versus men and culture versus traditions

Democracy in Modern Iran Ali Mirsepassi, 2010-05-01 New perspectives on Iran's relationship to democracy Can Islamic societies embrace democracy In Democracy in Modern Iran Ali Mirsepassi maintains that it is possible demonstrating that Islam is not inherently hostile to the idea of democracy Rather he provides new perspective on how such a political and social transformation could take place arguing that the key to understanding the integration of Islam and democracy lies in concrete social institutions rather than pre-conceived ideas the every day experiences rather than abstract theories Mirsepassi an Iranian native provides a rare inside look into the country offering a deep understanding of how Islamic countries like Iran and Iraq can and will embrace democracy Democracy in Modern Iran challenges readers to think about Islam and democracy critically and in a far more nuanced way than is done in black and white dichotomies of Islam vs Democracy or Iran vs the West This essential volume contributes important insights to current discussions creating a more complex conception of modernity in the Eastern world and with it Mirsepassi offers to a broad Western audience a more accurate less clichéd vision of Iran's political reality
