Decision on Palestine Deferred Monty Noam Penkower, 2013-10-23 Professor Penkower s latest book Decision on Palestine Deferred offers the first sustained documented account of Palestine and the Anglo American alliance during the Second World War. Firmly grounded in three decades of archival research, his spirited narrative offers a fascinating cast of characters against the backdrop of the larger Middle Eastern context. The latter relates to Jewish and Arab activities during the War, the grave threat of Erwin Rommel's Afrika Korps, U.S. interest in Saudi Arabian oil, and the effort to achieve Arab unity. Zionism's shift to viewing the United States as the center of decision making in international affairs and hence the Archimedean point for forging Jewry's destiny occurred in these same six years. British anxieties about imperial security while administering the Palestine mandate by means of a stringent immigration quota jostled with the first American steps taken to formulate a stance vis-à-vis Palestine and the region as a whole. The differing approaches of Churchill and Roosevelt to the Palestine imbroglio are also explored, as are the varied avenues that were then championed within the Jewish camp. The impact of the Holocaust with both governments breathing the very spirit of defeatism and despair surfaces throughout. Holocaust

Film Terri Ginsberg, 2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power. The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox, the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general. Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films: Korczak, Poland, 1990; The Quarrel, Canada, 1990; Entre Nous, France, 1983; and Balagan, Germany, 1994, this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today's global arena. After the Holocaust

Monty Noam Penkower, 2021-10-12 A Winner of the Association for the Study of the Middle East and Africa 2023 Bernard Lewis Prize. The chapters in this volume examine a few facets in the drama of how the survivors of the Holocaust contended with life after the darkest night in Jewish history. They include the Earl Harrison mission and significant report, the effort to keep Europe's borders open to refugee infiltration, the murder of the first Jew in Germany after V-E Day and its aftermath, and the iconic sculptures of Nathan Rapoport and Poland's landscape of Holocaust memory up to the present day. Joining extensive archival research and a limpid prose, Professor Monty Noam Penkower again displays a definitive mastery of his craft. America and the Holocaust
