Sounding Objects Carla Zecher, 2007-12-15 Often abstracted by the aesthetic implications of music itself musical instruments can be seen as physical signifiers apart from the music that they produce In Sounding Objects Carla Zecher studies the representation of musical instruments in French Renaissance poetry and art arguing that the efficacy of these material objects as literary and pictorial images was derived from their physical characteristics and acoustic properties as well as from their aesthetic product Sounding Objects is concerned with ways in which musical culture provided poets with a rich nuanced vocabulary for reflecting on their own art and its roles in courtly life the civic arena and salon society Poets not only depicted the world of musical practice but also appropriated it using musical instruments figuratively to establish their literary identities Drawing on music treatises and archival sources as well as poems paintings and engravings this unique study aims to enrich our understanding of the interplay of poetry music and art in this period and highlights the importance of musical materiality to Renaissance culture Electronic Format Disclaimer Images removed at the request of the rights holder

Royal Institute of British Architects, Journal of the Royal Institute of British Architects Royal Institute of British Architects,1911 The Renaissance of Empire in Early Modern Europe Thomas James Dandeleit,2014-04-14

This book brings together a bold revision of the traditional view of the Renaissance with a new comparative synthesis of global empires in early modern Europe It examines the rise of a virulent form of Renaissance scholarship art and architecture that had as its aim the revival of the cultural and political grandeur of the Roman Empire in Western Europe Imperial humanism a distinct form of humanism emerged in the earliest stages of the Italian Renaissance as figures such as Petrarch Guarino and Biondo sought to revive and advance the example of the Caesars and their empire Originating in the courts of Ferrara Mantua and Rome this movement also revived ancient imperial iconography in painting and sculpture as well as Vitruvian architecture While the Italian princes never realized their dream of political power equal to the ancient emperors the Imperial Renaissance they set in motion reached its full realization in the global empires of sixteenth and seventeenth century Spain France and Great Britain
