From Manchuria To Tibet A Quarter Century Of Exploration:

From Manchuria to Tibet Gaw Man, How Man Wong, Julie Gaw, 1998 Beautifully presented and exhaustively researched book which provides a unique glimpse of the people and landscape of Inner China Modern Explorers Robin Hanbury-Tenison, Robert Twigger, 2021-11-09 Stories of the thrills and hardships faced by modern expeditions that continue to enhance our understanding of the world around us now in a compact edition This book profiles forty modern explorers who have disproved the idea that there is nowhere left to discover Some are experienced and celebrated worldwide while others are just starting to make their mark The Modern Explorers delves into challenging and extraordinary expeditions to the remotest parts of the world by explorers from the United States Australia China France and beyond Nine thematic sections cover all terrains Polar Desert Rainforest Mountain Ocean River Under Sea Under Land and Lost Worlds Written mainly by the explorers themselves these accounts provide unique insight into what it is like to join an expedition from being dragged through the top of the rainforest canopy in an inflatable raft suspended from a balloon to pedaling a boat across the Pacific to standing on the edge of an erupting volcano Eastern Tibet Christoph Baumer, Therese Weber, 2005 The first study dedicated solely to the culture of Eastern Tibet the cradle of Tibetan culture The thoroughly researched text is the result of fieldwork conducted by both authors over a period of several years The brilliant and inspiring images The Language of Paper Therese Weber, 2008 As the technology propagated paper effected profound changes in each society it touched becoming one of the most important of all cultural media a status that it retains to the present Paper accrues value as religious and symbolic markings are added to its surface fortune papers transport messages to the gods paper is given the value of money in the form of banknotes and the dream of flying was first realised in hot air balloons made of paper Paper can even be employed as architectural elements as textiles for garments and as a medium for artistic expression In one or many of these manifestations paper affects the lives of all on earth today In this cultural history of paper acclaimed paper artist Therese Weber travels to the few remaining places where traditional methods of papermaking have been preserved Commencing there Weber takes the reader on a fascinating and colourful journey of discovery of a commodity that many may take for granted but few fully understand Australian Books in Print 1999 K G Saur Books, 1999-04 Excellent coverage essential to worldwide bibliographic coverage American Reference Books Annual This comprehensive reference provides current finding ordering information on more than 123 000 in print books published in Australia You ll also find brief profiles of more than 12 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on trade associations local agents of overseas publishers literary awards more From Thorpe The National Geographic Magazine , 1901 Indexes kept up to date with supplements Reinterpreting Exploration Dane Keith Kennedy, 2014 Exploration was a central and perhaps defining aspect of the West s encounters with other peoples and lands Rather than reproduce celebratory narratives of individual heroism and national glory this volume focuses on exploration s instrumental role in shaping a European sense of exceptionalism and its iconic importance in defining the terms of cultural engagement with other peoples In chapters offering broad geographic range the contributors address many of the key themes of recent research on exploration including exploration s contribution to European imperial expansion Western scientific knowledge Enlightenment ideas and practices and metropolitan print culture They reassess indigenous peoples responses upon first contacts with European explorers their involvement as intermediaries in the operations of expeditions and the complications that their prior knowledge posed for European claims of discovery Underscoring that exploration must be seen as a process of mediation between representation and reality this book provides a fresh and accessible introduction to the ongoing reinterpretation of exploration s role in the making of the modern world
