Ferreira, 2012-10-30 Panic and mourning are two pivotal constructs that often emerge and interplay under circumstances of conflict violence crisis and catastrophe both natural and man made Whereas panic tends to crop up during the experience of violent events mourning on the other hand relates to the aftermath of a brutal disruption and to the way humans try to make sense of it retrospectively Conversely violent events can leave a thread of panic in their aftermath while mourning can be unsettled interrupted or even refuelled by another catastrophic incident From an international and inter disciplinary outlook this volume wishes to address questions at the interface of panic and mourning and their impact on practices in literature media and the arts Since violent events take place within cultures that will draw from their traditions memories and systems of beliefs in order to process them the authors of this book aim precisely at discussing the effects of calamity upon the cultural structure and the way literary artistic and media practices not only reproduce individual and collective anxieties but also generate knowledge and reshape the cultural formation within which they emerge God Allows U-Turns American

Moments Allison Gappa Bottke, 2002 This fourth title in the popular U Turn series addresses national tragedies the Great Depression Vietnam Columbine September 11 and presents the testimonies of Americans on how these national trials brought them to their knees in prayer Reconciliation, Healing, and Hope Jan Naylor Cope, 2022-02-22 Powerful sermons from Washington National Cathedral that inspire and a foreword by John Meacham Through their sermons Cathedral clergy and guest preachers such as Jon Meacham Kelly Brown Douglas and Presiding Bishop Michael B Curry share inspiring words Collectively they offer lasting guidance for difficult times reinforcing that even in the midst of loss and chaos God is at work among us lifting us up and giving us hope for the future Topics include hope faith during times of distress love grief and the presence of God With a foreword by Jon Meacham Time of Terror, Time of Healing David B. Smith,2002

Mourning the Presidents Lindsay M. Chervinsky,Matthew R. Costello,2023-02-20 The death of a chief executive regardless of the circumstances sudden or expected still in office or decades later is always a moment of reckoning and reflection Mourning the Presidents brings together renowned and emerging scholars to examine how different generations and communities of Americans have eulogized and remembered US presidents since George Washington s death in 1799 Over twelve individually illuminating chapters this volume offers a unique approach to understanding American culture and politics by uncovering parallels between different generations of mourners highlighting distinct experiences and examining what presidential deaths can tell us about societal fissures at various critical points in the nation s history right up to the present moment Traveling with Bears: in Search of Mark Twain Jack Dold,2020-01-24 Mark Twain is high on the list of America s great travel writers His amazing life took him to more than 35 countries and two thirds of the states and provinces of North America Jack Dold has highlighted these travels with a series of journals describing unique tours conducted for the University of California Berkeley where the majority of Mark Twain s writings are housed at the Bancroft Library Those tours were all accompanied by Bob Hirst the general editor of the Mark Twain Papers Project whose stated goal is the publication of every word the author penned Jack s journal descriptions are enhanced by Mark Twain s own observations Affective Heritage and the Politics of Memory after 9/11 Jacque Micieli-Voutsinas,2021-03-30 This book critically examines the institutional curation of traumatic memory at the 9 11 Memorial Museum and its evocative power as a cultural storyteller Memorial Museums are evocative spaces Drawing on aesthetic practices deeply rooted in representing the unrepresentability of cultural trauma most notably the Holocaust Memorial Museums are powerful popular mediums for establishing cultural values asking the visitor to contemplate Who am I in relation to the difficult histories on display Using primary data this book poses important questions about the emotionally charged site what moral lessons are visitors imparted with at the 9 11 Memorial Museum Who is the cultural institution s primary audience the imagined community it reconstructs this traumatic history and safeguards its memories for What does the National September 11 Memorial Museum ultimately teach visitors about history ourselves and others This work will be of interest to students and scholars in the areas of Human Geography American Studies Museum Studies and Public History Cultural and Heritage Studies and Trauma and Memory Studies Congressional Record United States.
