Friends Followers Factions A Reader In Political Clientelism:

Friends, Followers, and Factions Steffen W. Schmidt, 1977 Poor People's Politics Javier Auyero, 2001 Examines how Argentina's urban poor use political networks and informal webs of reciprocal help to solve their everyday survival needs

Human Rights In The People's Republic Of China Yuan-li Wu, 2019-04-10 This book examines the effects that political institutions the legal system and economic policies have had on the human rights record in the PRC since 1949 The authors first address the problems of assessing political liberties in a nation that emphasizes economic over civil rights and that has traditionally valued collective rights over individual Rainbow's End Steven P. Erie, 1990-08-09 Unprecedented in its scope Rainbow's End provides a bold new analysis of the emergence growth and decline of six classic Irish American political machines in New York Jersey City Chicago San Francisco Pittsburgh and Albany Combining the approaches of political economy and historical sociology Erie examines a wide range of issues including the relationship between city and state politics the manner in which machines shaped ethnic and working class politics and the reasons why centralized party organizations failed to emerge in Boston and Philadelphia despite their large Irish populations The book ends with a thorough discussion of the significance of machine politics for today's urban minorities The Social World of Jesus and the Gospels Bruce J. Malina, 2002-11 The Social World of Jesus and the Gospels provides the reader with a set of possible scenarios for reading the New Testament How did first century persons think about themselves and others Did they think Jesus was charismatic Political Economy of Labour, Income Distribution & Exclusion Christos Papatheodorou, Savaş Çevik, Dimitris Paitaridis, Güneş Yılmaz, 2018-12-15 This volume includes 11 chapters based on papers presented at the 9th International Conference of Political Economy ICOPEC 2018 that was co-organised by the Greek Association for Political Economy the Department of Social Policy of Panteion University and the Faculty of Economics of Marmara University Chapters adopt a political economy approach to discuss and analyse crucial issues linked to social and economic inequalities poverty and deprivation as well as to labour market changes These are issues which are greatly affected by the recent economic crisis and by the neoliberal policies for fiscal discipline reduce of public spending and labour market deregulation that were implemented to most countries and particularly to those where the consequences of the crisis were more severe

Millenarian Vision, Capitalist Reality Todd A. Diacon, 1991-08-29 Why did a millenarian movement erupt in the Brazilian interior in 1912 Setting out to answer this deceptively simple question Todd A Diacon delivers a fascinating account of a culture in crisis Combining oral history with detailed archival research Millenarian Vision Capitalist Reality depicts a peasant community whose security in economic social and religious relations was suddenly disrupted by the intrusion of international capital Diacon shows how a deadly triumvirate comprised of foreign capital state power and local bosses engineered a land tenure revolution that threatened smallholders subsistence sparking rebellion among the Contestado peasants Unlike most analysis of millenarian movements Diacon combines a material analysis with a careful exploration of the movement's millenarian ideology to demonstrate how a particular combination of external and internal forces produced a crisis of values in the Contestado society Such a crisis Diacon concludes gave a special power to the millenarian vision that promised not only outward reform but inner salvation as well This work offers a significant contribution to the literature of millenarian movements popular religion peasant rebellions and the transition to capitalism in Brazil Neopatrimonialism in Africa and Beyond Daniel C. Bach, Mamoudou Gazibo, 2013-03-01 Neopatrimonialism a system whereby rulers use state resources for personal benefit and to secure the loyalty of clients in the general population is central to any teaching or conceptualisation of contemporary African politics This book is a theoretical and comparative study of neopatrimonialism in Africa and across world regions Although such practices are widespread in other parts of the world the African neopatrimonial state has also become a global prototype of the anti developmental state This volume calls for a reappraisal of the genesis and interpretations of the concepts of patrimonialism and neopatrimonialism Expert contributors consider recent debates in Africa through the study of democracy clientelism the big man syndrome Kenya the rise of godfatherism Nigeria warlordism Liberia and the neopatrimonial state on a day to day basis Niger They discuss patrimonialism and neopatrimonialism from Latin America to Europe Central Asia and Asia Pacific to weave a comparative analysis of the interplay between public policies and private interest Neopatrimonialism in Africa and Beyond is an important and timely volume that will be of interest to students and scholars of international politics African studies sociology and international development The Fourth Circle John Fitzgerald McCarthy, 2006 This book analyzes the political legal and economic dynamics shaping environmental outcomes across two districts in Aceh one of the richest and most expansive areas of tropical rainforest in Southeast Asia Its central theme is that the present cycle of ecological decline can best be understood in terms of the way political economic and social forces operate at the district level A Lebanon Defied Majed Halawi, 2019-04-05 A Lebanon Defied focuses on the constitutive role of the Shi'a masses in the movement led by Sayyid Musa al Sadr in Lebanon It explores the origins of this Shi'a movement and its determination to become a major participant in a sharply reformed Lebanese polity Paul and the Power of Sin T. L. Carter, 2001-12-13 Paul and the Power of Sin first published in 2001 seeks to ground Paul's language of sin in the socio cultural context of his original letters T L Carter draws on the work of social anthropologist Mary Douglas to conduct a cross cultural analysis of the symbolism of the power of sin in the letters examining thoroughly Douglas Grid and Group model and defending its use as a heuristic tool for New Testament scholars He uses this model to examine the social location of Paul and the communities to which he wrote and offers a fresh insight into key passages from 1 Corinthians Galatians and Romans Carter concludes that an important part of Paul's purpose was to safeguard the position of law free Gentile believers by redrawing social boundaries along eschatological rather than ethnic lines Dam Development Kavita Rai, 2005 The Naqab Bedouins Mansour Nasasra, 2017-05-02 Conventional wisdom positions the Bedouins in southern Palestine and under Israeli military rule as victims or passive recipients In The Naqab

Bedouins Mansour Nasasra rewrites this narrative presenting them as active agents who in defending their community and culture have defied attempts at subjugation and control The book challenges the notion of Bedouin docility under Israeli military rule and today showing how they have contributed to shaping their own destiny The Naqab Bedouins represents the first attempt to chronicle Bedouin history and politics across the last century including the Ottoman era the British Mandate Israeli military rule and the contemporary schema and document its broader relevance to understanding state minority relations in the region and beyond Nasasra recounts the Naqab Bedouin history of political struggle and resistance to central authority Nonviolent action and the strength of kin based tribal organization helped the Bedouins assert land claims and call for the right of return to their historical villages Through primary sources and oral history including detailed interviews with local indigenous Bedouins and with Israeli and British officials Nasasra shows how this Bedouin community survived strict state policies and military control and positioned itself as a political actor in the region

Court and Politics in Papal Rome, 1492-1700 Gianvittorio Signorotto, Maria Antonietta Visceglia, 2002-03-21 This 2002 book attempts to overcome the traditional historiographical approach to the role of the early modern papacy by focusing on the actual mechanisms of power in the papal court The period covered extends from the Renaissance to the aftermath of the peace of Westphalia in 1648 after which the papacy was reduced to a mainly spiritual role Based on research in Italian and other European archives the book concentrates on the factions at the Roman court and in the college of cardinals The sacred college came under great international pressure during the election of a new pope and consequently such figures as foreign ambassadors and foreign cardinals are examined as well as political liaisons and social contacts at court Finally the book includes an analysis of the ambiguous nature of Roman ceremonial which was both religious and secular a reflection of the power struggle both in Rome and in Europe

Patronage in Sixteenth- and Seventeenth-Century France Sharon Kettering, 2024-10-28 The dual themes of this volume are the characteristics of patronage relationships and their political uses in early modern France The first essays provide an overview of the scholarly literature and suggest that the obligatory reciprocity of the patron client exchange was a defining characteristic The third and fourth essays compare patronage relationships with kinship and friendship while the following two focus on the patronage role of noblewomen Professor Kettering then looks at the role of brokerage in state formation in early modern France comparing this with other early modern societies In the final section she explores the role of patronage in the religious wars of the late 16th century and in the civil war of the Fronde a half century later and the ways in which it was affected by the changing lifestyles of the great nobles during the late 17th century

Exploring Revolution Timothy P. Wickham-Crowley, 2019-07-26 This series of essays on insurgency and revolution focuses on events in Latin America since 1956 The contributors discuss revolutionary theory the nature of social movements and models of social action Topics raised include terror guerilla regimes mobilizing peasants and the vulnerability of regimes to revolution

Social Structures Barry Wellman, S. D. Berkowitz, 1988-01-29 This study of social structures looks at the network approach It contains non technical articles that contrast structural analysis with other social scientific approaches It deals with individual behaviour and identity and with neighbourhood and community ties It examines the relationships within and between organizations discussing how firms occupy strategically appropriate niches It also explores the impact of the growth of the Internet equating computer networks as social networks connecting people in virtual communities and collaborative work

Caught in the Crossfire Thomas David Mason, 2004 The puzzle of revolution in the Third World Theories of revolution the evolution of the field Dependent development and the crisis of rural stability Mobilizing peasant social movements The response of the state reform or repression State repression and the escalation of revolutionary violence Win lose or draw how civil wars end Reform repression and revolution in El Salvador Peruvian land reform the rise of Sendero Luminoso The future of revolutions in the countryside globalization democratization and peacekeeping

Third World Politics Christopher S. Clapham, 1985 Both ambitious and original Clapham's book covers governance economic management external relations military leadership and revolutionary orientations for all the nations involved He shows how fragile Western institutions of political and economic management and accountability are in the Third World and on the other hand how dependent on the advanced industrial nations Third World leaders remain For all who seek a better understanding of the emerging nations of the Third World Clapham's book will provide illuminating introductory and background information The Wisconsin edition is not for sale in the British Commonwealth excluding Canada or Japan

(Dys-)Functionalities of Corruption Tobias Debiel, Andrea Gawrich, 2013-12-16 Corruption is usually understood as hampering political development economic growth and democratic participation of citizens but comparing the effects of corruption for different political regimes presents astonishingly complex findings The ongoing persistence of corruption underlines that it is not only dysfunctional but can be highly functional as well This special issue brings together contributions from comparative politics political science and economics which precisely focus on these dys functionalities of corruption in political regimes across various world regions The question of methodological pluralism is especially important for studying corruption comparatively While on an international level a trend towards an increased use of quantitative methods in political science as well as in economics can be observed the special issue underlines the importance of having a pluralistic approach for grasping the complex and multi layered effects of the phenomenon Of similar importance is the adoption of a comparative perspective that includes different world regions in order to understand the different roles of corruption in developing transforming and developed countries alike Dr Tobias Debiel is Director of the Centre for Global Cooperation Research and of the Institute for Development and Peace INEF Since 2006 he is also Professor in International Relations and Development Policy Institute of Political Science University of Duisburg Essen Dr Andrea Gawrich is Professor for International Integration at the University of Gießen
