Fringe Voices Texts By And About Minorities In The Federal Republic Of Germany:

Fringe Voices Antje Harnisch, Anne-Marie Stokes, Friedemann Weidauer, 1998 Since German unification there have been many reports about xenophobia in Germany and the government has attempted to stem the new wave of racism In contrast the voices of the victims of racism refugees asylum seekers immigrants are seldom heard This first anthology of essays by significant writers from minority groups in Germany Turks Afro Germans German Jews Eastern Europeans and others sheds new light on the diverse experiences of minority groups living in Germany today It also introduces to English speaking audiences innovative literary talents whose contribution to German culture has not yet received the attention it deserves Students of contemporary German culture who wish to increase their understanding of the changing nature of German society will find this book invaluable It will also be of interest to anyone following the rise of xenophobia in Germany its possible causes and the changing politics of immigration German Literature in the Age of Globalisation Stuart

Taberner, 2004-11-01 Literary fiction in Germany has long been a medium for contemplation of the nation and questions of national identity From the mid 1990s in the wake of heated debates on the future direction of culture politics and society in a more normal united country German literature has become increasingly diverse and seemingly disparate at the one extreme it represents the attempt to reinvent German traditions at the other the unmistakable influence of Anglo American forms and pop literature A shared concern of almost all of recent German fiction however is the contemporary debate on globalisation its nature impact and consequences for local culture In its engagement with globalisation the literature of the Berlin Republic continues the long established practice of reflection on what it is to be German This book investigates literary responses to the phenomenon of globalisation The subject is approached from a wide range of thematic and theoretical perspectives in twelve chapters which taken together also provide an overview of German fiction from the mid 1990s to the present The book serves both as an introduction to contemporary German literature for university students of German and as a resource for scholars interested in culture and society in the Berlin Republic Cosmopolitan Anxieties Ruth

Mandel, 2008-07-04 An anthropological history that traces shifts in 1990s German immigration policy regarding those within the Turkish diaspora along with portraying the lives of Turkish immigrants Routledge Handbook of Turkey's Diasporas Ayca Arkilic, Banu Senay, 2024-08-21 This handbook the first of its kind provides a rich overview of the socio political issues and dynamics impacting Turkey's diasporic groups and diaspora policymaking Turkey constitutes an important case study in the field of diaspora studies with a diaspora population of around 6.5 million This handbook therefore brings together emerging and established scholars to explore the central issues actors and processes relating to Turkey's diasporic groups and diaspora outreach Taken together the historical and contemporary analyses presented in this volume provide readers a multi lens perspective on the trajectories of Turkey's diasporic communities and diaspora policymaking in a wide range of regional contexts including Europe North America and Oceania The handbook comprises six analytical parts Contextualising

Gendering Knowledge in Africa and the African Diaspora Toyin Falola, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, 2017-07-14 Gendering Knowledge in Africa and the African Diaspora addresses the question of to what extent the history of gender in Africa is appropriately inscribed in narratives of power patriarchy migration identity and women and men's subjection emasculation and empowerment The book weaves together compelling narratives about women men and gender relations in Africa and the African Diaspora from multidisciplinary perspectives with a view to advancing original ways of understanding these subjects The chapters achieve three things first they deliberately target long held but erroneous notions about patriarchy power gender migration and masculinity in Africa and of the African Diaspora vigorously contesting these and debunking them second they unearth previously marginalized and little known histories depicting the dynamics of gender and power in places ranging from Angola to Arabia to America and in different time periods decidedly gendering the previously male dominated discourse and third they ultimately aim to re-write the stories of women and gender relations in Africa and in the African Diaspora As such this work is an important read for scholars of African history gender and the African Diaspora This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African Studies Diaspora Studies Gender and History

Not So Plain as Black and White Patricia M. Mazón, Reinhild Steingröver, 2005 After World War II brown babies were born to African American GIs stationed in Germany and German mothers Today there are 500 000 Afro Germans in Germany out of a population of 80 million Nevertheless German society still sees them as foreigners assuming they are either African or

African American but never German As editors Patricia Mazon and Reinhild Steingrover argue the experience of Afro Germans provides insight into contemporary Germany's transformation willing or not into a multicultural society Furthermore looking at Afro Germans allows us to see another dimension of the ideas of race that shaped the twentieth century and led to the Holocaust Jacket Cultural Identity in Transition Jari Kupiainen, Erkki Sevänen, John Stotesbury, 2004 Cultural Identity In Transition Analyses The Challenges That Globalisation And Modernisation Have Brought To Cultural Identity In Recent Years This Collection Of Articles Highlights Some Of The Central Theoretical Ideas And Models Currently Used In The Analysis Of Cultural Identity In The Social And Cultural Sciences While The Book's Main Regional Focus Is On Northern Europe This Is Complemented By Several Case Studies Addressing Issues Of Cultural Identity In Indigenous And Ethnic Communities In Literary And Artistic Expression And In Terms Of National Politics Around The World The Book Discusses In Detail The Questions Like What Is At Stake In The Global Culture Industry In Terms Of Cultural Identity How Do The Internet And Information Technology In General Empower Local Communities What Kinds Of Political Struggles And Conflicts Can Be Associated With The Processes Of Cultural Identity Cultural Identities Are In Transition But In What Direction Are They Moving Cultural Identity In Transition Will Be Essential Reading For University Students And Researchers In Sociology Anthropology And Cultural And Literary Studies Monatshefte, 2000 Intercultural literacies and German in the classroom Christoph Lorey, John L. Plews, Caroline Lea Anne Marie Rieger, 2007 Age, Accent and Experience in Second Language Acquisition Alene Moyer, 2004-03-16 This work critically addresses the age debate in second language acquisition studies presenting an in depth study of factors that predict foreign accent Quantitative and qualitative analyses confirm that cognitive social and psychological factors contribute to attainment and that biological influences must therefore be considered alongside these essential aspects of learner experience German Literature in a New Century Katharina Gerstenberger, Patricia Herminhouse, 2008 While the first decade after the fall of the Berlin wall was marked by the challenges of unification and the often difficult process of reconciling East and West German experiences many Germans expected that the new century would achieve normalization The essays in this volume take a closer look at Germany's new normalcy and argue for a more nuanced picture that considers the ruptures as well as the continuities Germany's new generation of writers is more diverse than ever before and their texts often not only speak of a Germany that is multicultural but also take a more playful attitude toward notions of identity Written with an eye toward similar and dissimilar developments and traditions on both sides of the Atlantic this volume balances overviews of significant trends in present day cultural life with illustrative analyses of individual writers and texts World Literature Today, 2000 Literature on the Move Dominique Marçais, 2002 Literature on the Move investigates the creativity emerging from the ruptures unforeseen intersections and new fusions of transmigration The cultural bifocality of the essays by established scholars such as Wolfgang Binder Karla Holloway Elaine Kim A Robert Lee Lisa Lowe and Sterling Stuckey as well as new voices from around the globe provides insights into this creativity of a score of uprooted ethnicities The chapters including Constructing the Ethnic Negotiating Identity Remembering and Forgetting in the Diaspora Performing Ethnicity Hybridizing the Ethnic Text Contesting Oppression and Post Colonialism Correcting Political Correctness reflect concerns of ethnic studies in the twenty first century The reader of Literature on the Move is invited to join the quest for imagined spaces and multicultural consciousness in Europe the Americas and inbetween Staging the Nation/confronting Nationalism Laura Leigh Bevis Hope,2007 American Book Publishing Record ,1999 Germanistik ,2000 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1965 The Oxford Handbook of Modern German History Helmut Walser Smith,2011-09-29 This is the first comprehensive multi author survey of German history that features cutting edge syntheses of major topics by an international team of leading scholars Emphasizing demographic economic and political history this Handbook places German history in a denser transnational context than any other general history of Germany It underscores the centrality of war to the unfolding of German history and shows how it dramatically affected the development of German nationalism and the structure of German politics It also reaches out to scholars and students beyond the field of history with detailed and cutting edge chapters on religious history and on literary history as well as to contemporary observers with reflections on Germany and the European Union and on multi cultural Germany Covering the period from around 1760 to the present this Handbook represents a remarkable achievement of synthesis based on current scholarship It constitutes the starting point for anyone trying to understand the complexities of German history as well as the state of scholarly reflection on Germany s dramatic often destructive integration into the community of modern nations As it brings this story to the present it also places the current post unification Federal Republic of Germany into a multifaceted historical context It will be an indispensable resource for scholars students and anyone interested in modern Germany Coming Home to Germany? David Rock,Stefan Wolff,2002 The end of World War II led to one of the most significant forced population transfers in history the expulsion of over 12 million ethnic Germans from Central and Eastern Europe between 1945 and 1950 and the subsequent emigration of another four million in the second half of the twentieth century Although unprecedented in its magnitude conventional wisdom has it that the integration of refugees expellees and Aussiedler was a largely successful process in postwar Germany While the achievements of the integration process are acknowledged the volume also examines the difficulties encountered by ethnic Germans in the Federal Republic and analyses the shortcomings of dealing with this particular phenomenon of mass migration and its consequences
