From Babylon to Bethlehem and Back Again A C Katz,2024-11-13 The Magi saw the Star of Bethlehem they knew what it meant how did they know Who were the Magi They saw his star what was his star How did it appear the first time and then again months later over Bethlehem Was the Bethlehem Star a cosmic view of an actual festival of lights an ancient GPS in the sky In the book From Babylon to Bethlehem you will be surprised to learn what his star actually was His star was the first and His star was the last as it settled over Bethlehem It was the same star from beginning to end it did not change Come along and travel back in time and view the heavenly sights of long ago as we join the Magi on their journey From Babylon to Bethlehem Was the Bethlehem Star Supernatural or Natural Some bible teachers believe that the Bethlehem Star was a supernatural event something that cannot be explained within the natural celestial mechanics created at the same time as the Sun the Moon and planets called wandering stars in the beginning in Genesis 1 14 It is possible the Bethlehem Star was a predictable event and when God uses His creation it isn't always an unexplainable supernatural event In this book you will find a compilation of information to confirm a timeline using scripture as the base including archaeology and historical writings to be tested against astronomical evidence There are videos and theories about the Star of Bethlehem however some are historically astronomically and even scripturally inaccurate it's understandable since people were unaware of many of the archaeological findings which are becoming more available to us today Over the years because of the unavailability of evidence some have concluded well we just can't know As time goes on we will be able to find out more as archaeology is revealed and continues to confirm the accuracy of scripture just one of the many reasons we need to keep watching Many of you might be familiar with AC Katz's previous book The Great American Writing on the Wall Total Solar Eclipse of 2017 and 2024 In that book she showed herself to be a meticulous researcher and seeker of truth She continues this methodology in her new book From Babylon to Bethlehem As an amateur astronomer and astrophotographer as well as Bible teacher I have been enthusiastically contemplating for many years the background behind the enigmatic star of Bethlehem which led the magi to Jesus In this new book AC Katz will take you on an amazing historical theological archaeological and astronomical journey exploring the possibilities of the Bethlehem star Was the Bethlehem star a conjunction of planets Conjunction of stars A comet Was it a supernatural event You will certainly find all of her research fascinating and worth the read Her attention to detail and conversational writing is enjoyable and highly recommended Mondo Gonzales co host at Prophecy Watchers and director of the Psalm 19 Project From Babylon to Bethlehem Laurence Edward Browne,1926 From Babylon to Bethlehem Laurence Edward Browne,1926 From Babylon to Bethlehem Claudius Lamar McGinty,1929 *From Babylon to Bethlehem ... Matthew Black, Etc Laurence Edward BROWNE, Matthew Black, 1951 From Babylon to Eternity Bob Becking, Alex Cannegieter, Wilfred van der Poll, 2016-04-08 First Published in 2014 Generally readers have a negative idea of the Exile Psalm 137 has fuelled the idea that this was a time of sorrow and despair This image of the Exile influenced for instance Luther's ideas on the Babylonian Captivity of the Church The four essays in this volume deconstruct and reconstruct this image Bob Becking tries to recreate a history of the Exile On the basis of the available evidence this could be no more than a fragmented history nevertheless showing that the fate of the exiles was not as bad as often supposed Anne Mareike Wetter reveals that the biblical image of exile is multi faceted She shows how a tradition of a people tied to their God given land was challenged by the reality of foreign occupation And how that people eventually succeeded in translating this experience appropriating it through a transformation into a counter tradition that enabled them to cope with the new situation without breaking entirely with their cultural and religious heritage Jewish ideas on exile are discussed by Wilfred van de Poll He concentrates on the use of the concept of galut which refers to the paradigmatic and identity shaping function of the dispersion of the people of Israel and showed that the Exile in Jewish thinking had become a permanent reality up until the present day From the perspective of intertextual reading Alex Cannegieter discusses four texts of varying ages and background Augustine Petrarch Luther and a Dutch sermon held after the end of the Second World War She explores the ways authors chose biblical texts to appropriate them a new context thereby changing the meaning of the new as well as the source texts Bethlehem's three mothers [Naomi, Ruth and Mary the virgin] and the soil they trod E. Clere, 1872 The American Journal of Semitic Languages and Literatures , 1928 Corpus Inscriptionum Arabicarum Palaestinae, Volume Two: -B-C- Moshe Sharon, 2021-07-26 Western Palestine is extremely rich in Arabic inscriptions whose dates range from as early as CE 150 until modern times Most of the inscriptions date from the Islamic period for under Islam the country gained particular religious and strategic importance even though it made up only part of the larger province of Syria This historical importance is clearly reflected in the hundreds of inscriptions the texts of which cover a variety of topics construction dedication religious endowments epitaphs Qur'anic texts prayers and invocations all now assembled in the Corpus Inscriptionum Arabicarum Palaestinae CIAP The CIAP follows the method established at the end of the 19th century by Max van Berchem namely the studying of the Arabic inscriptions in context Van Berchem managed to publish two volumes of the inscriptions from Jerusalem the CIAP covers the entire country The inscriptions are arranged according to site and are studied in their respective topographical historical and cultural context In this way the CIAP offers more than a survey of inscriptions it represents the epigraphical angle of the geographical history of the Holy Land Volume One A was published in 1997 Volume Two B C in 1999 Volume Three D F in 2004 Volume Four G in 2008 an Addendum in 2007 Volume Five H I in 2013 Volume Six J 1 in 2016 and Volume Seven J 2 Jerusalem 1 in 2021 All volumes are still available Corpus Inscriptionum Arabicarum Palaestinae (CIAP) Volume Two Moše Šārôn, 1997 Western Palestine is extremely rich in Arabic inscriptions whose dates range from as early as c. 150 until modern times. Most of the inscriptions date from the Islamic period. For under Islam the country gained particular religious and strategic importance even though it made up only part of the larger province of Syria. This historical importance is clearly reflected in the hundreds of inscriptions the texts of which cover a variety of topics: construction, dedication, religious endowments, epitaphs, Qur'anic texts, prayers and invocations, all now assembled in this Corpus Inscriptionum Arabicarum Palaestinae (CIAP). The inscriptions are arranged according to site and are studied in their respective topographical, historical and cultural contexts. In this way the CIAP offers more than a survey of inscriptions; it represents the epigraphical angle of the geographical history of the Holy Land. LEAH Jacob & Rachel Unknown Hebrew, 2019-02-16 Leah Jacob and Rachel are names that have shaped biblical history. Do you know who the matriarchs of the twelve tribes of Israel were? They were Rachel and Leah along with their handmaidens Zilpah and Bilhah. This book focuses on the two central women in Jacob's life: Rachel and Leah, the sisters who became his wives. When two women marry the same man, conflict is inevitable. Their household was no different. Rivalry, love and jealousy drove a story filled with trials and triumphs. Yet both Rachel and Leah are remembered as two of the greatest women in Scripture. In Ruth 4:11 KJV the witnesses proclaimed to Boaz: "The ELOHIM make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel and do thou worthily in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem. Through Leah, Rachel and their handmaidens came the twelve tribes of Israel: Leah's children Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun and Dinah; Rachel's children Joseph and Benjamin; Bilhah's children Dan and Naphtali; Zilpah's children Gad and Asher. This is not just history; it is a story filled with romance, heartbreak and divine destiny. Why if Jacob loved Rachel, did he father so many children with Leah? This book dives deep into that mystery and unveils truths many have overlooked. Don't wait to discover the drama, love and lessons within this powerful story. Herod the Great and Jesus: Chronological, Historical and Archaeological Evidence Gerard Gertoux, 2015-11-18 The traditional date of 4 BCE for Herod's death, as set forth by E. Schürer (1896), has been accepted by historians for years without notable controversy. However, according to the texts of Luke and Matthew, Herod died shortly after Jesus' birth, which can be fixed in 2 BCE. Consequently, there is apparently a major chronological contradiction. However, Josephus gives a dozen synchronisms that enable us to date his death on 26 January 1 BCE, just after a total lunar eclipse on 9 January 1 BCE prior to the Passover. Two important events confirm the dating of Herod's death: the census of Quirinius in Syria, which was a part of the inventory of the world ordered by Augustus when he became Father of the Country in 2 BCE, and the war of Varus after Herod's death, conducted under the auspices of Caius Caesar, the imperial legate of the East, and dated during the year of his consulship in 1 CE.
