The Early Humiliati Frances Andrews, 2000-01-27 This book is the first major study in English of a group of late twelfth century religious enthusiasts the early Humiliati who were condemned by the Church as heretics in 1184 However in a remarkable transition they were reconciled seventeen years later and went on to establish a highly successful religious order in north Italy The Humiliati have been accorded little attention in previous studies both because of their local nature and because of the suppression of the Order in 1571 after one of their number made a disastrous attempt to murder Charles Borromeo Using a combination of a wide range of sources the nature of the early movement and its processes of institutional development are reconstructed The book also includes a Bullarium Humiliatorum a calendar of papal and episcopal letters and privileges which will be of great use to scholars in the field     Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1980     Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1980-04     The Franciscan Tradition Regis J. are treated to Fehlner's first reflections on ecclesiology in the wake of Vatican II and his own earlier research into Bonaventure's ecclesiology and Duns Scotus's teachings on grace and personhood. To Fehlner these studies along with his Tractatus de gratia and teaching notes on the mission of the Holy Spirit all from the 1960s contain the rationes seminales of the entirety of his later thought. In part two we find writings mainly from the following two decades on the Conventual Franciscan charism, the ecclesiola, the church in microcosm. Here we can readily discern the radical effects of Fehlner's encounter with Maximilian Kolbe and this volume's close affinity with volume six of this series on St Maximilian Kolbe. In part three of this volume comprising essays from the final fifteen years of his life Fehlner brings his lifetime of prayerful contemplation and research directly to bear upon practical spirituality. In these essays Fehlner's spiritual testament our author presents his Catholic and Franciscan charismatic vision of Christian life.
