Journey To New Beginnings Debbie Ziemann, 2006-12 The year following my diagnosis of breast cancer having a total mastectomy and chemotherapy I felt as if I was out at sea in the midst of a storm The faster I ran from the darkness and turmoil the closer it came I was frightened but I learned to depend on the energy of the Universe I realized that the quickest way to the light was to go directly into the darkness and face my fears Accepting my new body image was very difficult along with not being able to respond to my husband's touch Due to my insecurities low self esteem and self confidence I placed my marriage in jeopardy Learning to rediscover myself was difficult I learned to trust in the positive energy of the Universe to help me heal Depending on myself only led me further away from where I wanted to go I needed to allow God and His angels to take me in their hands and carry me Depending on the power of the Universe established inner strength and courage to be a survivor We have a choice in how we react and respond to situations lessons that life presents to us Learning to let go of certain feeling and situations is difficult but it makes each day more peaceful and comfortable Learning there is life after breast cancer is a difficult journey Everything happens for a reason and it is up to us to learn from the lessons which are presented to us You can be a survivor when you accept that being a survivor is a state of mind which is dictated by you and not others Realizing that guilt and shame is wasted energy and that you are still loved and can love others Everyone's path in recover and rediscovery will be different and the rate in which we achieve it will be different What worked for me may not work for you We cannot compare ourselves to others We are individuals with different childhood experiences different backgrounds personalities and with different support systems I hope that Journey to New Beginnings gives you a sense of comfort and hope Sharing my journey has helped me heal Each year will be another path of learning experiencing the joys of living and life enjoying the extraordinary in the ordinary

My Words Will Not Pass Away Martin Hogan, 2021-09-01 Heaven and earth will pass away but my words will not pass away Luke 21:33 At the weekday Eucharist we read from sections of all four gospels in the course of the liturgical year The reflections in this book are based predominantly on the gospel readings for the weekdays of the coming liturgical year 2021-22 with occasional references to the first reading They follow the sequence of the weeks of the calendar year beginning on the 29th November Monday of the first week of Advent In the course of the liturgical year the gospel readings present us with a significant selection of the words and deeds of Jesus from all four gospels In and through these gospel readings we encounter the living word of the risen Lord to his church There is rich fare here to nourish our faith life and to help us to grow in our knowledge and love of the Lord These short reflections attempt to listen to the Scripture passages on their own terms while showing how they can continue to speak to our church and our world today Many people feel drawn to basing their prayer on the Scriptures in particular the gospels It is hoped that these reflections will serve as a help to prayer for people of faith They may also be of service to priests who seek to offer a short reflection on the gospel reading of the day to their parishioners In parishes where from time to time there is a Liturgy of the Word in place of Mass the Minister of the Word might read the corresponding reflection after the gospel reading On most week days the same readings are proclaimed in the church throughout the world in the setting of the Eucharist To read and reflect upon the readings for the weekdays of the liturgical year is to go on a spiritual journey with the universal church
