From Head to Toe Janice Weaver, 2003-09-30 Shortlisted for the Rocky Mountain Book Award Included on VOYA's ninth annual Nonfiction Honor List Named Notable Book by the International Reading Association's Children's Book Award in the intermediate nonfiction category Did you know that in some parts of sixteenth century Europe men wore their beards so long that they had to wrap the ends around their waists like a belt to be able to walk the high heel shoe caught on because it was the perfect solution to the problem of hopelessly muddy and waste filled streets in cities like London and Paris women have at various times used soot ground ants eggs beet juice and poisonous lead as makeup Throughout history we have bound our feet until they broke piled our necks with jewelry until our chests collapsed cinched our waists in corsets until we couldn't breathe Why do we do these things to ourselves From Head to Toe travels across thousands of years and through countless cultures and countries to explore the story of fashion in its weirdest wildest and most wonderful forms Whimsical illustrations sidebars quick hit margin quips and a useful index round out this fun filled tour of fashion history America's Girl Tim Dahlberg, Mary Ederle Ward, Brenda Greene, 2009-08-04 America's Girl is an intimate look at the life and trials of Gertrude Ederle who in 1926 not only became the first woman to swim across the English Channel but broke the record set by men The feat so thrilled America that it welcomed her home with a ticker tape parade that drew two million people This fascinating portrait follows Ederle from her early days as a competitive swimmer through her gold medal triumph at the 1924 Olympics to the first attempt the next year by Ederle to swim from France to England in frigid and turbulent waters a feat that had been conquered by only five men up to that time This is also a stirring look at the go go era of the 1920s when the country was about to recognize that women not only could vote but compete on an international scale as athletes At the height of Prohibition Ederle's triumph over the formidable Channel was a triumph for women everywhere America's Girl immerses readers in a pivotal era of American history and brings to life the spirit of that time Canadian Books in Print.

Author and Title Index, 1975 The A to Z of Everyday Things Janice Weaver, 2004-11-09 Why are Americans superstitious about two dollar bills Why do we have twelve months in a year instead of ten or six or even twenty Why do we celebrate foolishness on the first day of April Why is yawning contagious Why is the number thirteen considered to be unlucky in so many different cultures The A to Z of Everyday Things tells the surprising stories behind twenty six seemingly ordinary objects and activities From calendars and money to tulips and sideburns this book uses commonplace items to explore the rich but often overlooked cultural history of our everyday lives In the end The A to Z of Everyday Things offers us a picture of modern life and how we got here in a funny quirky and highly readable form Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006
