Extremis Edmund Richardson,2018-12-13 Classics in Extremis reimagines classical reception Its contributors explore some of the most remarkable hard fought and unsettling claims ever made on the ancient world from the coal mines of England to the paradoxes of Borges from Victorian sexuality to the trenches of the First World War from American public school classrooms to contemporary right wing politics How does the reception of the ancient world change under impossible strain Its protagonists are marginal figures who resisted that definition in the strongest terms Contributors argue for a decentered model of classical reception where the marginal shapes the central as much as vice versa and where the most unlikely appropriations of antiquity often have the greatest impact What kind of distortions does the model of centre and margins produce How can marginal receptions be recovered most effectively Bringing together some of the leading scholars in the field Classics in Extremis moves beyond individual case studies to develop fresh methodologies and perspectives on the study of classical reception Julia Margaret Cameron Julia Margaret Cameron,J. Paul Getty Museum,1996 This volume

Transnational Perspectives on Artists' Lives Marleen Rensen,Christopher Wiley,2020-10-06 This book demonstrates the significance of transnationality for studying and writing the lives of artists While painters musicians and writers have long been cast as symbols of their associated nations recent research is increasingly drawing attention to those aspects of their lives and works that resist or challenge the national framework The volume showcases different ways of treating transnationality in life writing by and about artists investigating how the transnational can offer intriguing new insights on artists who straddle different nations and cultures It further explores ways of adopting transnational perspectives in artists biographies in order to deal with experiences of cultural otherness or international influences and analyses cross cultural representations of artists in biography and biofiction Gathering together insights from biographers and scholars with expertise in literature music and the visual arts Transnational Perspectives on Artists Lives opens up rich avenues for researching transnationality in the cultural domain at large Neo-Victorian Biofiction ,2020-09-07 This volume explores the many paradoxes of neo Victorian biofiction a genre that yokes together the real and the imaginary biography and fiction and generates oxymoronic combinations like creative facts fictional truth or poetic truthfulness Contemporary biofictions recreating nineteenth century lives demonstrate the crucial but always ethically ambiguous revision and supplementation of the historical archive Due to the tension between ethical empathy and consumerist voyeurism between traumatic testimony and exploitative expos the epistemological response is per force one of hermeneutic suspicion and iconoclasm In the final account this volume highlights neo Victorianism s deconstruction of master narratives and the consequent democratic rehabilitation of over looked microhistories The Home, Nations and Empires, and Ephemeral Exhibition Spaces Dominique Bauer,Camilla Murgia,2025-10-01 This book explores ephemeral exhibition spaces between 1750 and 1918 The chapters focus on two related spaces the domestic interior and its imagery and exhibitions and museums that display both national imperial identity and the otherness that lurks beyond a country s borders What is revealed is that the same tension operates in these private and public realms namely that between identification and self projection on the one hand and alienation otherness and objectification on the other In uncovering this the authors show that the self the citizen society and the other are realities that are constantly being asserted defined and objectified This takes place they demonstrate in a ceaseless dynamic of projection versus alienation and intimacy versus distancing Photography and Philosophy Scott Walden,2008-04-30 This anthology offers a fresh approach to the philosophical aspects of photography The essays written by contemporary philosophers in a thorough and engaging manner explore the far reaching ethical dimensions of photography as it is used today A first of its kind anthology exploring the link between the art of photography and the theoretical questions it raises Written in a thorough and engaging manner Essayists are all contemporary philosophers who bring with them an exceptional understanding of the broader metaphysical issues pertaining to photography Takes a fresh look at some familiar issues photographic truth objectivity and realism Introduces newer issues such as the ethical use of photography or the effect of digital imaging technology on how we appreciate images Illustrating Camelot Barbara Tapa Lupack,Alan Lupack,2008 An account in words and pictures of how the world of Camelot and King Arthur s knights was reflected in and shaped by book illustration Arthurian book illustration which came into its own in the Arthurian Revival of the nineteenth century and began to flourish as an important art form has done more than any other visual art to shape notions of King Arthur and his court and to introduce the legends to the widest possible audience Yet to date there has been no comprehensive study of Arthurian illustration Illustrating Camelot fills this critical gap by examining the special collaboration between illustrators and authors and exploring the ways that the best Arthurian illustrators move beyond mere reproduction to become interpretive readers of the texts they embellish In versions that range from illustrated editions of Tennyson s Idylls of the King to the numerous editions and popular children s retellings of Malory s Morte d Arthur and in forms that range
