From My Sisters Lips:

From My Sisters' Lips Na'ima bint Robert, Naima Bint Robert, 2005 Covered from head to toe with only her eyes visible the sight of a Muslim woman on a western city street rarely fails to provoke a strong reaction Feelings of shock horror repulsion pity or even fear are not uncommon But have you ever wondered who it is behind the veil and what makes her tick Ever wondered what her life is really like and whether her dreams hopes and aspirations differ from yours Now in FROM MY SISTERS LIPS Na ima B Robert offers a rare glimpse into the lives of a community of women most of whom are converts to Islam and invites you to share their joys sorrows convictions and faith years ago it was not a decision taken lightly Yet soon after she took the first tentative steps towards covering she felt empowered no longer judged on physical appearances alone no longer seeking the approval to feel beautiful or using her looks to wield power over men the experience effected her greatly Before long she grew in confidence and courage As she says Something just clicked I thought Good don t look don t compare me with your latest squeeze don t try and guess my measurements my body is my own business As Na ima recounts the compelling story of her conversion to Islam she also offers first hand accounts of just some of the extraordinary Muslim women she has come to know in recent years women like herself who have chosen to live behind the veil What emerges is a vivid and intimate portrait of a sisterhood as they speak candidly and with conviction on a diverse range of subjects ranging from marriage to motherhood stereotypes submission and self image we hear the strong proud voices of those who are seldom heard world usually seen only by those privileged enough to be admitted to it s inner circle It is also a celebration of womanhood a celebration of those who have chosen to live behind the veil

A Cup of Comfort for Sisters Colleen Sell, 2007-08-01 A powerful collection of stories that celebrate the special bonds of sisterhood No one knows a woman quite like her sister does no matter their differences rivalries or how far apart they may drift over time Sisters confide in each other share their most intimate secrets and depend on each other for support and guidance when everyone else in their lives disappoints them This unique collection celebrates the special relationship that only sisters share The sisters in A Cup of Comfort for Sisters care for one another through good times and bad providing advice and a reassuring hug when they are needed most

British Muslim Converts Kate Zebiri, 2014-10-01 Indispensable for anyone trying to understand Islam in the West When the Western mass media talk of conversion to Islam we are bombarded with accounts of vulnerable people brainwashed into a culture of extremism However in reality the vast majority who convert are well educated and doing so as the result of a long considered and heartfelt decision What is more their numbers are multiplying The only exploration of this unique group in British society this well argued and powerful book investigates the fascinating contribution that Western converts to Islam are making to Islamic thought
